THE ARRIVAL of Mrs. Earl C. Flegel on the 8 o'clock Sassa- ta last night, with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers who have been in Honolulu since the first of the year, is of interest to a host of Salem friends. Accompanied by her little son, Earl, Jr., Mrs. Flegel and the Meyers took passage from the Islands on February 25, sailing on the Wilamena. During the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers in Honolulu, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denton have been occupying the Meyers home.

Mrs. Flegel will be a special guest this afternoon when Mrs. John H. Carson entertains for her bridge club.

The members of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution are anticipating an interesting meeting tomorrow when they accept the invitation of Mrs. Harwood Hall to be her guest at the Chemawa Indian school.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's church will meet today, beginning at 10:30 o'clock, for an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. U. G. Shipley, 975 E street.

A happy gathering was that of Chemeketa chapter of the order of De Molay when they met on Tuesday evening for an enjoyable dinner dance at the Gray Belle, planned for the pleasure of Miss Helen Sellig, Miss Ruth Ross, and Mrs. Charles Baker who assisted in the successful production in December of "The Yankee Four-Flusher." Plans were made for 25 couples, with vases of daffodils used on the banquet tables.

Raymond Bonesteel presided as toastmaster of the evening, the following responding: Hem Sun, Harold Mero, Carl Walker, Dr. O. A. Olsen, H. T. Love, Keith Brown and Frederick Arpke. Delightful program numbers were given by Miss Dorothy Felker, the Blues Boys orchestra, and the De Molay quartet.

In charge of the affair were

The woman's alliance of the Unitarian church will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the church.

Delightful among the affairs of the week was the Gamma Phi chapter association luncheon on Wednesday at 1 o'clock at which Mrs. John H. Carson and Mrs. Kenneth Cockerline were joint hostesses, entertaining at the Carson home. Grape hyacinths and daffodils gave the floral note, with blue candles completing the effect.

Luncheon covers were placed for Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Orris Fry, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Kenneth Cockerline and Mrs. John H. Carson.

At the next meeting of the group, early in April, Mrs. McCammon will be the hostess.

The regular March business meeting of Hal Hibbard auxiliary will be held at the Army at 2:30 o'clock.

Quite in line with this week's Statesman slogan "The City Beautiful," comes the announcement by the Salem Arts league, of a lecture by Howard Everts Weed of Portland, to be given in the auditorium of the city library on the evening of Tuesday, March 10, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Civic Arts section of the league.

Mr. Weed, who is a noted landscape architect, will lecture on "A More Beautiful Salem," and will illustrate his talk with over 100 stereopticon views. This will be a most interesting and informative entertainment.

As the slides are thrown upon the screen Mr. Weed will pass from one subject to another, discussing railway gardening, public parks, city and country homes, children's playgrounds, bill-boards, modern park cemeteries, children's flower and vegetable gardens, the work of improvement associations, and in many cases he will show the "before" and "after" effects.

At the close of the lecture the local application of these subjects will be mentioned, and the particular needs of this locality will be brought out.

Mr. Weed knows his subject, and his talks have been received most enthusiastically wherever he has appeared. From the Sherman (Tex.) Democrat comes the following: "If the suggestions contained in this lecture were taken up and carried out by the citizens of Sherman, one could safely predict an increase of thousands in the population of the town in a few years, and a corresponding rise in the value of real estate." The Salem (Ohio) News, says of him: "Mr. Weed closed his interesting talk with a review of Salem's needs that she may be made a more beautiful city. His emphasis that the goal of a more beautiful Salem is not so much a question of cost as it is of determination, is worth remembering."

The Salem Arts league invites all Salem to hear this lecture, which will be free to the public. Everyone is welcome.

Mrs. Sam Kozler is a guest of Salem friends.

The Junior and Senior King's Heralds of the First Methodist church will hold a joint meeting at the church at 7:15 o'clock this evening, which promises to be of unusual interest. The parents will be guests at this time.

Later in the evening Mrs. Lura Hesty Wire of Newberg will exhibit curios obtained during 13 years as a missionary in Japan.

Tomorrow the Little Light Bearers and their mothers will be guests at the church at a Thank offering party from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock, when the offerings will be brought in.

Assisting Mrs. A. A. Lee, who is in charge, will be Mrs. W. C. Young, Mrs. Fred L. Miller, Mrs. Ray White, Mrs. Walter Miller and Mrs. George Forge. Little Beatrice and Josephine Evans will each play a piano solo. Mrs. Wire will give an interesting talk. The offering brought in during the afternoon will go toward the school at Gi Kuku, Africa.

The West Side circle of the Jason Lee Aid society will meet today with Mrs. Alfred Vick at her home, 1495 N. Liberty street.

The Junior Music club, of which Miss Lena Dotson is adviser, met on Thursday for a delightful social evening at the home of Miss Helen Johnson on North Sixteenth street. Games and contests, with appropriate prizes, made the evening one of remembered pleasure. Mrs. Johnson served dainty refreshments to the girls at a late hour. Margaret Johnson was a special guest for the evening.

In the club group are: Miss Helen Ralph, Miss Vivian Marra, Miss Pauline Orey, Miss Alice Shurtz, Miss Mabel Harrison, Miss Marie Husaker, Miss Vera Wintermute, Miss Jane Kukuko, Miss Ruby Orey, and Miss Helen Johnson.

The Salem Heights Women's club will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the community hall.

Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. John R. Sites, and Mrs. T. S. Mesch attended the business meeting of Nydia temple, Daughters of the Nile, in Portland on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks entertained on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock dinner, placing covers for eight. Yellow candles in crystal holders, and a bowl of daffodils, were attractively arranged on the table where covers were placed for: Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Carson, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks. Bridge was the chosen diversion for the evening hours with the playing prize going to Mrs. Donald Young.

The J. S. club met on Wednesday evening for an enjoyable meeting at the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Spong and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Busey. Daffodils and ferns were used about the rooms. The high scores of the evening were: Mrs. John Compton and the low by Mrs. Louis Bechtel and Mrs. La Velle Keese and Mr. Ed Young. The next meeting—home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinzer.

The club members include: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinzer, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Coursey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Busey, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies, and Mr. and Mrs. John Spong.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther D. Cook are receiving felicitations upon the birth of a daughter, Carol Virginia, on Wednesday, March 4. Mr. and Mrs. Cook are both graduates of Willamette university where Mrs. Cook was a member of the Adelante literary society and Mr. Cook a member of the Websterian society.

Election of officers and their installation yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. E. Price made the meeting of Chapter G of the PEO sisterhood one of the most interesting of the year. Mrs. D. X. Beechler was re-elected president, with the other offices apportioned as follows: vice president, Mrs. E. J. Huffman; recording secretary, Mrs. A. T. Woolpert; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. C. Parr; treasurer, Mrs. C. K. Logan; and chaplain, Mrs. W. M. Smith. Installing officer was Mrs. Frank Churchill.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with tulips and carnations. The tea table held an attractive cut glass bowl of rose pink carnations and rose candles in crystal holders. Potted tulips were used about the rooms. At the tea hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. D. X. Beechler, who poured the coffee, and Mrs. W. H. Burt, who poured the tea.

Additional business of the afternoon was the election of three delegates to the convention at Oregon City in May. The following were named: Mrs. F. W. Selee, Mrs. E. J. Huffman, and Mrs. B. J. Miles.

Those present for the afternoon were: Mrs. B. X. Beechler, Mrs. W. B. Burt, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. Frank Churchill, Mrs. Harwood Hall, Mrs. E. J. Huffman, Mrs. W. M. Hughes, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mrs. J. W. Laflar, Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. A. C. Parr, Mrs. O. E. Price, Mrs. F. W. Selee, Mrs. W. M. Smith, and Mrs. A. T. Woolpert.

Tomorrow the chapter will meet again, honoring Mrs. W. B. Burt who with her husband who is government irrigation inspector over three states, will leave Sunday for Portland where they will take an apartment. Mrs. Burt will probably spend some time traveling with her husband during the summer months. Mrs. Burt has been one of the active officers of the club. The home of Mrs. William McGilchrist will be the scene of the farewell. Assisting Mrs. McGilchrist will be Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. C. B. McCullough, and Mrs. W. W. Moore. On Wednesday afternoon of this week Mrs. C. K. Logan entertained for Mrs. Burt's pleasure.

Danta Robbins of Salem, senior in vocational education, is a member of Lambda Epsilon, women's local vocational education honorary fraternity, recently granted recognition by the committee on student interests.

Upperclass women in vocational education only are eligible for membership in this fraternity. Junior women must have a scholastic average of 90, and senior women, 88. This is the highest scholastic average required by any organization on the campus.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rookstool celebrated their third wedding anniversary with a five hundred party on last Saturday at their home, 1040 N. 20th street. The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Nadon, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lebold, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Eckley, Miss Georgia Albee, Mr. Lewis Skirvin, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rookstool.

A large audience of music lovers heard the tone test given Wednesday evening by Betsy Lane Shepherd at the Grand theater, under the direction of George C. Will. The eminent soprano gave a convincing recital from beginning to end.

One of the interesting attractions of the week will be the benefit program at 8 o'clock this evening at the Central Congregational church, with much anticipation centering about the play, entitled "The Prize," which is to be given. The following is the cast of the play:

Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Lane, Miss Sweeting, school teacher Mrs. Skewis Mrs. Phippen, the widow Mrs. Chadwick Mrs. Seely, Mrs. Mrs. Bess Mrs. Greenly, Mrs. Elliott Letitia Bean, the old maid Mrs. Johnson Mrs. Flower, Mrs. Powell Grace Flower, Mrs. Sand

Added pleasurable numbers on the program will be piano solos by Martin Anderson, and Lucille Anderson; a whistling solo by Eva Sand; a reading by Mrs. Arthur Borgensten; and vocal solos by Miss Gladys McIntyre and Ronald Craven.

A silver offering will be taken with the proceeds to go toward the piano fund.

church Tuesday night of this week. A large number of people attended the program which was given in the early part of the evening at the church auditorium. The program consisted of a vocal solo by Mrs. S. E. Richardson, a reading by Mrs. W. McNeil, an anthem by the choir, a selection by a male quartet composed of Rev. J. A. Bennett, J. Ogden, J. Smith and G. Geiser, a vocal solo by Gordon McCall, and a piano solo by Katherine McCall.

To raise money for the class, waist measures were taken of those present and each person paid a cent an inch. At the close of the evening, jelly, hot rolls and coffee were served.

Among the social events at Silvertown during the week-end were several pleasant parties. Friends and neighbors numbering about fifty surprised Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gunderson at their home near Bethany, Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Gunderson recently returned from Montana where they spent a number of years. They have rented the John Kloster home which Mr. Kloster completed this winter. Mr. Kloster is a brother of Mrs. Gunderson.

Another pleasant surprise party of the week-end was that on Mr. and Mrs. John Moe. A number of friends and relatives met at the Moe home Sunday to assist in the celebrating of the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Moe. The guests brought basket dinners. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Satern, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hattberg, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Moe, Mrs. Hans Jensen, Ludvig Moe, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Furue, and Hege Rue. Miss Winona Palmer and Miss Cora Satern were joint hostesses at the home of Mrs. Marion Palmer, Saturday night. The affair was in celebration of the birthdays of Miss Palmer and Miss Satern. Cards furnished the diversion of the evening. Lunch was served by the two hostesses. Invited guests were Alfred Jensen, Alice Jensen, Harold Larson, Edwin Hattberg, William Hattberg, Nettie Hattberg, Victor Madsen, and Lillie Madsen.

At a regular meeting of the Legion Auxiliary held Monday night the scarf made by Mr. Endres, an ex-server man at Hospital 77 at Portland, was displayed.
