

SOCIETY

AUDRED BUNCH

PHONE 106

ST. PATRICK'S DAY colors of green and white predominated in the charming decorative scheme used on Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Legge, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard, and Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves entertained for a group of friends at the Legge home. Spring flowers and foliage gave an exceedingly pleasing background for the evening.

In the congenial group were: Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker, Mrs. Frank W. Power, Mr. U. G. Holt, Miss Beryl Holt, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. W.

THE last artist to be presented on the Salem MacDowell club program will be Royal Dadman, the American baritone who is to sing here on March 19th at the Grand theater. He is one of the most interesting singers to listen to, because he knows his "shop" thoroughly and is besides an easy and graceful speaker.

His experience has been very wide, for he has done everything in the line of singing, except opera and he never has ventured that, either in its light or grand varieties, but otherwise the career of a public singer holds no mysteries for him. When he was beginning he went through the usual apprenticeship of little concerts, a true "wandering minstrel." Then as he became better known, he sang with great orchestras, big choral societies, at great music festivals and in recital from one end of the country to the other. He has sung with singers big and little and with conductors and with conductors from men like Stranaky and Oberhoffer to men who could not read a score.

He should be heard by every music lover, no matter in which type preference lies, for Dadman is a master of the classic, the modern lyrics and dramatic forms folk songs and spirituals. He has clear enunciation, a beautiful intonation and great power and reserve force, gives fitting color to each selection and offers a baritone quality of sweetness and depth. In addition to which Dadman's voice runs into alto and enters the tenor range, all with a most satisfying smoothness. In the long list of baritone favorites which have secured our approbation none will be more pleasingly remembered. The sweetness of his tones were never at the expense of whole-

Unomness and virility. His many negro songs, splendidly given in text and contrast, left a memorable impress.

The young Married People's club of the First Baptist church will serve a pot-luck supper and have a social time this evening at the church. The supper will be at 6:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Francis Neer and little daughter, Natalie, have returned to their home at 780 North Church street, after spending the past three weeks in southern California at Pasadena and San Diego.

There is so much of interest in connection with the film, "Abraham Lincoln," which will open for public showing at the Oregon theater tomorrow that through the special courtesy of John H. Stille, the manager, both the residents of the Old People's home and the Old Soldiers of the GAR have been invited to be guests at a pre-viewing at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The opening of the theater doors on Thursday is being anticipated with great interest. Everywhere "Abraham Lincoln" is being granted the distinction of being one of the tremendous films of the year.

The March American magazine contains a splendid article on the production of this very film through the efforts of Albert and Ray Rockett who chose this manner in which to pay a glowing tribute. "Left fatherless in childhood, they turned to Lincoln as their ideal of all that a father might have been to them" comes as part of the caption. "How Two Boys Have Paid Their Debt to Lincoln."

"If you have seen the extraordinary motion picture of the life of Abraham Lincoln now being shown, you have seen how the Rockett boys did realize that dream for which they staked everything. On the screen you watch the unfolding of a great story, a humbler one to be sure; but into it are woven threads of the same sort as those that made up the fabric of Lincoln's life."

That is the way the article begins, and then it continues by telling how the Rockett boys and their assistants "went through the entire 50,000 books and pamphlets which form the Lincoln collection in the congressional library"; how they went "from Washington to Springfield, Ill., studying the period when Lincoln lived"; how finally it was Frances Marion who wrote the scenario; how George Billings happened to be chosen to take the part of Lincoln; and how the seven hundred thousand dollars that the film cost was after interminable struggle raised.

It will be a fortunate group that sees the picture this morning through Mr. Stille's courtesy, and doubtless by the end of the week practically all Salem will have shared in one of the great opportunities of filmdom.

The literature study section of the American Association of University Women will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the home of Professor and Mrs. E. C. Roberts, 966 Center street. Professor Williston will take charge of the study which will concern H. G. Wells as a novelist.

Starts TOMORROW

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

A First National Picture

OREGON

The Great American Drama—Don't Miss It.

His experience has been very wide, for he has done everything in the line of singing, except opera and he never has ventured that, either in its light or grand varieties, but otherwise the career of a public singer holds no mysteries for him. When he was beginning he went through the usual apprenticeship of little concerts, a true "wandering minstrel." Then as he became better known, he sang with great orchestras, big choral societies, at great music festivals and in recital from one end of the country to the other. He has sung with singers big and little and with conductors and with conductors from men like Stranaky and Oberhoffer to men who could not read a score.

He should be heard by every music lover, no matter in which type preference lies, for Dadman is a master of the classic, the modern lyrics and dramatic forms folk songs and spirituals. He has clear enunciation, a beautiful intonation and great power and reserve force, gives fitting color to each selection and offers a baritone quality of sweetness and depth. In addition to which Dadman's voice runs into alto and enters the tenor range, all with a most satisfying smoothness. In the long list of baritone favorites which have secured our approbation none will be more pleasingly remembered. The sweetness of his tones were never at the expense of whole-study which will concern H. G. Wells as a novelist.

BAMBINO

A Vegan Confection

BAR

It's a hit!

Dandy Candy for a Dime

A BAMBINO BAR is a huge candy festival all in itself—

—a creamy, melt-in-your-mouth butter scotch caramel fudge full of roasted nuts—with over all a deep, rich chocolate covering—either milk chocolate or dark to suit your very taste.

It's the biggest piece of candy goodness for the price of one small dime that ever satisfied a candy craving. And it's pure—good for kiddies and to grown folks.

They slice it for parties, luncheons, teas, after dinner—for whenever good candy's wanted. They pack it in picnics, in the youngsters' lunch; keep it in the office; fill the pockets of their autos.

It's sold at thousands of confectioners, candy stands, drug-stores, groceries—and eaten by the million.

It's quality knows no rival, imitation to the contrary notwithstanding. Wrapped in tin foil, with an inner lining of white paper, each Bambino Bar comes fresh and toothsome.

ECONOMICAL, ISN'T IT? BUT WAIT TILL YOU'VE TASTED ONE!

VOGAN CANDY CORPORATION
Portland, Oregon

SLICE IT!

Today

A SALE OF

MILL REMNANTS!

GENUINE NORMANDY VOILES

5c, 10c, 15c each

Hundreds of yards of genuine Flock Dot Voiles go on sale today in Bargain Square Basement Store. These are all Normandy Flock Dots, the season's most popular Voile. These Mill Remnants are priced so low that every one can afford them; all the new colors are included. Come early for best choice!

CAN BE USED FOR---

Collar and Cuff Sets, Dress Trimmings, Kerchiefs, Art Work, Vest Fronts, Blouses, Dresses, Tea Aprons, Draperies for Small Windows, Doll Dresses, etc.

1/2 to 3 Yard Lengths

MILLER'S BASEMENT STORE

"Only a Few Steps Down"

Spring Sports Demand Smart Togs

A chic and becoming Sweater is a necessary attribute of successful play, and these new models entice one with youthful lines and vivid colors.

Kid Boots, shoulder sleeve, popo and Prince of Wales styles in silk, silk and wool, and angora.

One of the "nifty" models is the Peter Pan with flannel or felt collars and pocket trim of contrasting colors.

$1.48 to $9.75

Stapley's

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Today

First Methodist church Woman's Foreign Missionary society. Mrs. E. T. Barnes, 325 N. Capitol street, 2:30 o'clock.

Literature study section of A. A. U. W. Prof. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, 966 Center street, 7:30 o'clock.

Jason Lee Methodist church Woman's Home Missionary society. Church parlors, 2:30 o'clock.

Young Married People's club dinner and social. First Presbyterian church parlors.

Woman's Benefit Association of Macabees. Benefit card party. WOW halls.

First Baptist church. Young Married People's club. 6:30 o'clock pot-luck supper.

Ladies' Aid of Christ Lutheran church, Mrs. J. Simon, 1080 North Winter street, hostess.

Barbara Fritchie tent, Daughters of Veterans. Armory, 8 o'clock.

Thursday

Brush College Helpers. Social and business meeting. Mrs. Will McCall, hostess, 2 o'clock.

Kensington club. Mrs. eGorge P. Griffith, 575 Court street, hostess.

Friday

First Presbyterian church Woman's Missionary society. Church parlors. 2:30 o'clock.

Concert by Cherry Bud band. West Salem church. Benefit of building fund. 8 o'clock.

Saturday

Salem Woman's club. Business meeting, club house.

Golden Hour club. Dinner party. Gray Bell eat 6:45 o'clock.

Salem Women's Service society. Cooked food sale. Southern Pacific ticket office.

Monday

St. Patrick's Day program. Woman's Club building. Sponsorship of Salem MacDowell club.

Tuesday

Writers' club. Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling, 1840 South High street, hostess.

First Evangelical church. Chickens pie supper. 6:35 o'clock.

By the number enrolling in dressmaking and millinery classes

NEW TODAY

Wednesday—Thursday

"Another Man's Wife"

A Colorful Melodrama

with

James Kirkwood

Lila Lee

Matt Moore

Wallace Beery

Zena Keefe

and Chester Conklin

COMEDY NEWS

LIBERTY