AUDRED BUNCH

FROM 196

ONE OF THE MOST interesting dedications of the year will be that on Monday attending the giving to the Children of the American Revolution in a formal way of a walnut tree, grown by Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson from a walnut taken from the branches of a walnut tree at Mt. Vernon which George Washington planted with his own hands. The young tree, which has been carefully watched over by Mrs. Patterson, who brought the seed, planted it, and cared for the growing shoot, is now four years old. It is the plan of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, under whose direction the tree is to be planted, to place it in the northeast corner of the court house grounds. The exercises, which will be of a patriotic nature, will be at 4 o'clock Monday, March 16, with a large number of the Children of the American Revolution as well as the Daughters of the American Revolution, present for the dedication of a gift so distinctive of the chapter.

It is a beautiful tribute to the children on Mrs. Patterson's part, for it is she who founded the organization of Children of the American Revolution a number of years ago in the state of Oregon.

ST. PATRICK'S supper that was unusually enjoyable to every one present was that of the B. B. G., Young Married People's class of the First Baptist church on Wednesday evening, when a group of forty gathered for an outstanding good time. A delicious pot-luck supper was held in the church dining rooms where the guests were assembled. The rooms were attractively decorated in the shamrock motif, with green and yellow the predominating colors. After a delightful and appropriate series of games, a short business meeting was held, with plans being made for some definite missionary work.

The class, with interested friends, meets every month for these delightful affairs.

The Count-on-me class of the First Baptist church will meet next Tuesday with Miss Dora Walker, 407 North Nineteenth.

The grand officers of the neighbors of Woodcraft will be entertained this evening (Friday) at the Silver Bell circle ceremonies in the large room at the WOW hall. Initiation will take place, with a drill team from Silverton putting on a special exhibition. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Russell Catlin is in charge of the cooked food sale which St. Paul's Guild of the Episcopal church is sponsoring tomorrow, beginning at 10:30 o'clock, at Neimeyer's drug store.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the church parlors. All women of the church and the congregation are invited.

"Friday, the 13th" will be the occasion for an entertaining St. Patrick's Day party at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the First Presbyterian church. Miss Maxine Buren is chairman of the social committee in charge. All young people above the high school age are cordially invited to be present for the fun and fellowship.

Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, in the interest of an extension course in design in Salem, is asking all those interested in such a course of study under Professor N. E. Kane to call at the studio above Weller's store on North Commercial street, and leave their names.

Professor Kane is interested in securing a class of 40 for this work which will meet for a two hour period, once each week, the first hour to be given to lecture work, and the second to practical design and individual work on the part of the students. In the lecture course, Professor Kane will develop the following summary of purposes: "The purpose of the course is to show that design springs directly from life itself and relates in turn to the life of the individual—that the individual may form deeper judgments involving art principles."

The practical work will involve the actual solution of problems. If a sufficient number desire the work, classes, to continue for 12 weeks, will probably start either Tuesday, March 31, or Thursday, April 2. Credit will be given at the university for this work if those taking it so arrange.

The Junior Standard Bearers of the First Methodist church will meet from 7 to 9:30 o'clock this evening at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee, 1515 State street. Miss Neva Stolze and Miss Lucille Miles will be the hostesses. Assisting with the entertainment will be: Miss Helen Breithaupt and Miss Chrystie Maxwell. The group will enjoy games and continue the work in preparing wash-cloths and bandages for a box to send to Tien-Sin, China. Officers will be elected at this time. The St. Patrick color scheme will be used in the decorating.

Entertaining for her son, Jack Elliott, Mrs. F. A. Elliott was hostess Wednesday evening at dinner, with covers placed for 11. Spring flowers and foliage were used in a decorative way, giving a hint of the approaching St. Patrick season.

Covers at the dinner were placed for: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Orris Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Becke, Mr. Jack Elliott, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott.

The Woman's society of the First Baptist church will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the church parlors.

Letters are at hand this week from Franklin B. Launer who is spending a year of intense music study in Fontainebleau and Paris. In a letter received by Mrs. C. A. Kells he writes enthusiastically as follows: "I am having a wonderful study in Paris this winter. It

It that the teachers are more wonderful than in America? No, I don't think so—it's the atmosphere, the environment—the art that it is,—with the Louvre, Luxembourg gardens, Ivalde,—and all. Of course, I know that you have seen them all in your visits to Paris. Before coming over here, one year looked like a long time, but now the one year, it seems, has squeezed itself into about three months.

"I feel in my return to Salem, and to Willamette university, that I am coming back with better ideas, larger vision, and more enthusiasm for my work than I have ever had before. I am thankful a hundred times over for my many friends who have helped and encouraged my stay in Paris.

"Next Sunday afternoon I have been invited to play at the studio of Leonide de Pachmann, son of the virtuoso, De Pachmann, who has been touring the States playing Chopin programmes.

"I am studying piano with Monsieur Philipp and Monsieur Decrous. They are both great masters and furthermore are patient to a degree, an important quality that a good teacher must have. My coming home and the exact arrival is still very indefinite. Either in June or September.

"As you told me last spring, Fontainebleau is one of the most beautiful of places. The forest is wonderful—I really like it better than Versailles.

"I am studying French hard, but it is 'tres difficile.' I understand much better than I can speak."

Mr. Launer closes his letter with an expression of pleasure at the news of the success of the recent YMCA drive in Salem.

Governor Walter M. Pierce has moved from his home on South Twelfth street to the Keyes Apartments. Miss Lorraine Pierce will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Harold Hall.

A St. Patrick's tea is announced by the East Division of the First Presbyterian Ladies' aid society for Tuesday, March 17, from 2 to 5 o'clock in the church parlors, for the benefit of the church building fund. Cake and home-made bread will also be on sale during the tea-hour. All are invited to join in the hospitality.

Miss Guslie Niles, Miss Eva Fee, and Mrs. Sylvia Woods had the pleasure of hearing Fritz Kreisler in concert on Wednesday at the Portland auditorium.

The Willing Workers of the First Christian church will give a Patrick's Day party this evening, Friday the 13th, at the church, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. A fine program has been arranged, with all members of the class and their families invited.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. F. M. Haberman entertained in honor of the Rebekahs of Stayton while the husbands attended the initiation ceremonies of the IOOF. Five hundred was the diversion of the evening, four tables being in play.

Those enjoying the evening together were: Mrs. A. Murphy, Mrs. W. Mayo, Mrs. R. Woods, Mrs. E. Crabtree, Mrs. W. E. Ryan, Mrs. V. Dare Sloper, Mrs. Henry Tate, Miss T. Mahoney, of Stayton; Mrs. J. Madison, Mrs. M. Bishop, Mrs. E. Pearce, Mrs. R. Crawford, Mrs. C. Elgin, Mrs. L. Stiffler, Mrs. Daisy McIntyre, Miss Anna McIntyre, Miss Angeline Ryan, and the hostess, Mrs. F. M. Haberman.

Wednesday evening for the pleasure of Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, who is leaving soon to make her home in The Dalles, Miss Ruby Drager and Miss Audra Winship entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner in the Rose room of the Spa. An attractive color scheme of yellow and green was carried out in the flowers and the place cards. The guests were Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, Miss Retha Nash, Miss Lortna Geer, Miss Alda Nash, Miss Audra Winship and Miss Ruby Drager.

Mabel Marcus of Salem, senior in vocational education, has a leading part in "Riders to the Sea," one of the three one-act Irish plays to be presented by the community drama classes at the OAC. These plays are prepared as class work by the students and presented to the students of the college in the workshop theater. Miss Marcus is a member of Sigma Kappa, social fraternity on the OAC campus.

Miss Elma Weller attended the Kreisler concert in Portland Wednesday evening. Miss Weller was enthusiastic over the artist's skill and the ovation given him by the Portland audience.

SILVERTON SOCIETY
Mrs. Harrison Cosho and her father, J. Largent, were visitors at Silverton a short time this week. Mrs. Cosho, who was formerly Miss Made Largent, and Mr. Largent were former Silverton residents. At one time Mr. Largent was manager of the Silverton hotel, which burned down three years ago. Later he managed the Largent apartments, first on North First street and later on North Water street. After the death of Mrs. Largent Mr. Largent went to Boise, Idaho, to make his home with his daughter. Mrs. Cosho is a graduate of the Silverton high school and of the University of Oregon.

Edwin Tingstad, principal of the Oregon City high school, and Mr. Kirk, superintendent of the Oregon City schools, were guests of Mr. Tingstad's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Tingstad of Silverton, at dinner Tuesday evening. Mr. Tingstad is coach for the Oregon City high school basketball team which was defeated by the Silverton team Tuesday evening.
