

WOMAN DOCTOR TO LOCATE IN SALEM

Visits City With Czecho-Slovak Party; Comes From Massachusetts

One of the women in the Czecho-Slovak party which visited in Salem yesterday for a few hours before proceeding to Portland was so pleased by the Willamette valley and especially with the conditions near Salem that she has decided to come to this state to make her home, according to the announcement made yesterday by Dr. E. Norris, of Springfield, Mass.

Dr. Norris has been traveling with the Chicago party of her countrymen during the past three weeks. She has also been accompanied on the trip by her mother, Mrs. J. Palecek.

The party struck the snow line in the mountains when they were at a height of about 4,000 feet and acute suffering resulted. There was a change, however, when they came to this part of the state and it did not take Dr. Norris very long to make up her mind to settle in the Willamette valley in or near Salem.

Editorials of the People

State Enforcement Best

Editor Statesman:

State enforcement of prohibition accomplishes better results with more unified and coordinated precision than county enforcement.

Bootleggers in and near Albany plied their illegal traffic without public interference until a state prohibition officer chanced along and uncovered the whole affair. Not only in Albany, but also in Portland, where men had been shipping large consignments in closed in bales of moss. The entire ring was placed under arrest.

State supervision of prohibition enforcement is more uniform than county enforcement. Sympathetic local officers are sometimes reluctant in executing their official duties in prohibition enforcement. State officers have the advantage of having no such duties to perform on life-long friends.

Since state officers are frequently transferred from one locality to another, they are not so

LANDS BEHIND BARS WHEN BAIL IS GONE

Stock Salesman Fails to Provide $500 After Arrest at Woodburn

L. B. Simons, stock salesman representing the National Life Preserver company of New York, was landed back of the bars of the county jail when he failed to raise a bail of $500 which the justice court of Woodburn had demanded. He was brought to Salem by Deputy Sheriff Bert Smith.

About $200 worth of stock had been sold in Woodburn, according to evidence, and a larger amount in Portland, with part of the money paid it, the balance to be given when the stocks were delivered. The stock was not turned over by Simons, who merely made representations of where he could get the necessary papers.

The man did not possess the necessary stock salesman's license and did not have any shares of the stock upon his person. He was armed, however, with photographs of the life preserver which was to be the means of saving passengers when in danger of drowning. They were to crawl inside the suit. In addition, he had a pad of applications for stock, which stated the company was capitalized at $3,000,000. Simons, well dressed, apologized because he could not raise the $500 necessary for his release.

Modern fiction covers more sins than charity.

Friends and money give out about the same time.

Of two evils, the best looking is usually chosen.

He who loves and runs away at least escapes alimony.

Economy is one of the finest arts—except when it is compulsory.

In prize fighting the object is not so much to knock your opponent out as to keep him from beating you.

Hez Heck says: "Nobody in this world is so closely watched as widowers."

DESIRES TO BE A PART OF CAPITAL

Delegation of West Salem Citizens Seeking Method to Annex to Salem

It appears that West Salem will truly be a part of Salem, according to the activities started by a delegation of residents of West Salem. They desire that their city be a part of the capital city and are endeavoring to have favorable action taken on the matter.

Members of the delegation, F. N. Heedham, W. D. Phillips, N. O. Burns, Dr. Patterson and Arthur Moore, waited upon City Recorder Poulsen yesterday in order to gain information as to how they should start about getting into Salem. Interviews have been arranged with Mayor J. B. Glesy and with various members of the city council.

Whether it is necessary to annex that portion of Polk county which West Salem is located on is not decided. Carl Pope, city attorney for West Salem, has not investigated that point, but if the Salem residents are favorable to the application these points will be removed.

All depends upon the action to be shown by the city council.

Previous action has been taken by residents to have the district a part of Salem last November, but action was started too late and the matter was dropped.

MOTORMATES

SUSTAINED QUALITY

products that assure efficient and economical operation of your motor

Associated scrip, sold at a discount, is accepted in payment for Associated Gasoline by all Associated Service Stations and dealers selling Associated Gasoline

Associated Oil Company

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN

By GENE BYRNES

A FLAX RALLY AT AURORA TONIGHT

Hon. T. B. Kay and Supt. Crawford Are Scheduled to Be Present

"Flax rally at Aurora, March 14, 8 p. m., IOOP hall!" Thus screams a headline across the top of the front page of the Aurora Observer of Thursday. It goes on to say the following:

"Hear the truth about flax. How it is grown, by a veteran flax grower. How it is reeled and scutched, by the state superintendent of flax. How it will be made and its commercial possibilities, by Thos. B. Kay, our state treasurer—a successful weaver of wool, and to be a more successful weaver of flax. Come to Aurora, March 14, 8 p. m. Lunch served after the meeting. Mr. Farmer, get in a crop where there is no possibility of an over-production or slump in price. — Aurora Community Club."

FRIDAY, THIRTEENTH PROVES UNLUCKY DAY

(Continued from page 1)

second trip proved to be a false alarm and the job was gone. The final effort to find work ended with the same results as the first trip.

And regarding basketball, just ask any of the players on the Astoria, Hood River, Pendleton or Arago teams what they think about Friday the Thirteenth. Salem, Eugene, Franklin and McMinnville—well, that is a different story.

What's the use of talking about women's place being in the home rocking the cradle when cradles have gone out of fashion. Women have taken their places with men because it is the work of the world, and they are doing their share. That's all there is to it.

River Man Drops Suit for Large Insurance Claims

C. F. Schaub, owner of the river boat Relief, which went to the bottom of the Willamette river during the cold freeze, has changed his mind and is now suing only for the cost of raising the boat and putting it back into good shape. His original claim was for $20,000.

The insurance company raised the boat from the river and intended to put her into condition for service, but the captain demanded the entire sum for which the boat was insured. This gave rise to a serious controversy between the captain and the insurance company, Globe & Rutgers Fire Insurance company, who had insured the vessel under terms conforming with English law.

According to rumor, the counter suit against the river man was brought to force him into terms, the insurance company never thinking they could prove he showed criminal neglect in allowing the Relief to go to the bottom of the river. The case is to come up for trial in the federal court in Portland, after being postponed from March 2 until a later date.

Silverton OAC Club Has Meeting; Elects Officers

SILVERTON, March 13.—(Special to the Statesman.)—The Silverton OAC club met for its annual election of officers Wednesday night. Theodore Hobart was elected president; Harold Larson, vice president; Miss Louise Fischer, secretary treasurer.

NINE CONVICTS GET CLEMENCY

(Continued from page 1)

the penitentiary November 27, 1915, to serve from one to 10 years. Paroled October 6, 1923. Cecil Ledgett—Convicted in Morrow county for burglary and received at the penitentiary December 16, 1923, to serve one year. Paroled May 10, 1924.

Clarence McDade—Convicted in Jackson county for assault while armed with a dangerous weapon and received at the penitentiary November 19, 1920, to serve 11 years. Paroled December 13, 1922.

Pete Chatter—Convicted in Harney county for larceny of horses and received at the penitentiary October 5, 1923, to serve one year. Paroled March 10, 1924.

For the Children

The Last of the Mohicans, J. F. Cooper; Boys of St. Timothys, A. S. Pier; Tales of the Red Children, Brown & Bell; Boys' Games Among the North American In-

NEW BOOKS

Salem Public Library

The Way of All Flesh, Samuel Butler; The Lantern in the Plow, G. A. Chamberlain; The Black Dog, A. E. Coppard; These Charming People, Kuyjian (Michael Arlen); The Peasants—Autumn and Winter, W. S. Reymont; Plumpy and Old J. Albert, H. A. Shute; The Real Diary of a Real Boy, H. A. Shute; The Rose Dawn, S. E. White; Stammering: It's Cause and Cure, B. N. Bogue; Dynamism and Dynamo Design, International Correspondence Schools; Forest Mensuration, H. S. Graves; Forest Regulation, Flibert Roth; Silviculture, Sir William Schlich; Forest Management, Sir William Schlich; Stereotomy, French & Ives; Modern Plumbing Illustrated, R. M. Starbuck; Let's Play, Edna Gelster; Games for Every-

The haunted house

TALES about it were as numerous as its dark, broken windows. Oaks shadowed it thickly; winds sucked through its halls. The shutters sagged and were ivy-eaten—the windows giving in to an emptiness at once foreboding, dreadful.

Excitement ran agog when the place was bought. School children huddled to watch the rooms renovated. A sign swung out: "Stop here for tea." Lights sprang up. It became a frequent pleasure to drop in of evenings. In time, the towns-people loved the place. The inviting sign, the cleanliness, the light banished fear.

Many a product you didn't know and might not have trusted, has become intimate to you through the clearness of advertising. Family standbys in your medicine chest, baking powders, extracts—products that might endanger if less than pure—you know to be pure because widely advertised. You are sure of their quality wherever you buy. You feel safe in using them—in using any product that invites, through advertising, the test that proves its worth. Your one-time fear is now a willing confidence.

Read the advertisements to recognize products that are worthy of your confidence

Chocolate Butter Creams

Light and Dark Coated, Regular Price 75c Lb.

Special for Saturday and Sunday only

36c lb., 2 lbs. for 70c

Limit 2 lbs. to Customer

No Phone or Delivery Orders

ONLY AT

SCHAEFER'S DRUG STORE'S

"The Yellow Front" The Peasler Store 135 North Commercial Phone 197

Delivers This Range

Any of Our Standard

GAS-FUEL OR COMBINATION RANGES

Sold (for a limited time) for one dollar down and easy payments on the balance without interest. Just select the range best suited for your needs, pay one dollar and we will deliver and set it up for you. Yes and we'll take the old range as part payment.

STOP IN THE STORE—Select Your Range, pay one dollar, leave your key and when you get home a nice new Range will have taken the place of the old range.

GIESE - POWERS

357 TO 377 COURT ST

Trade in Your Range or Furniture