

Mr. and Mrs. George M. King and Bobby King were guests on Friday in Portland.

Mrs. R. J. Hendricks was honored on Wednesday, March 4, in Portland, at a beautifully appointed luncheon given by the Portland chapter No. 2 of the War Mothers on the occasion of the sixth anniversary of their organization. An elaborately adorned birthday cake was a feature on the table. Many interesting reports relative to the important and extensive work being done by the organization were disclosed.

The St. Patrick's season gave a charming atmosphere to the dancing party last evening at the spacious studio of Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts when Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bonell, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson and Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts were hosts. Supper was served in the first floor dining room with seasonal novelties used in a decorative manner on the table.

Invitations for the evening were issued to the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Busick, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bowersox, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Hobson, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Powell, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Thomas of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Corroyer, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Geer, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Quisenberry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hudkins, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stiff, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Darby, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Webber, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Meritt Harding, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Rathbun, Mrs. Dan McLellan of Portland, Dr. Backstrand, Miss B. Davis and Bert Ford.

One of the most attractive features of the whole evening was a balloon dance, with a host of floating, green balloons, by means of which partners were chosen. The evening proved one of the most festive and delightful in many weeks.

A devotional period led by Mrs. B. Eilers and a duet by Mrs. Theodore Roth and Miss Mina Gile was enjoyed as a prelude to the school session program which was carried out by the Women's Society of the First Baptist church on Friday afternoon. Many interesting thoughts were brought out by the class in reading taught by Mrs. Earl Gregg.

The class in writing with Mrs. Harry White as teacher, emphasized the need of carrying on our mission work, while Miss Mina Gile with her arithmetic class, brought out the many uses of the budget dollar in both home and foreign missions. Mrs. Theodore Roth and her geography class took the principal of the school Mrs. O. B. Neptune and the guests on a pleasant and instructive trip to the different

Mrs. A. N. MOORES, Mrs. Henry J. Bean, and Mrs. C. F. Bishop entertained one of the most congenial club groups in Salem on Thursday at Mrs. Bishop's home when the Thursday Afternoon club met for the first time since January. Mrs. B. C. Miles told in an informal manner that was interesting to all present of her trip last summer to England and Ireland. Invited as guests were Mrs. T. G. Hopkins of Albany and Mrs. E. C. Small. Daffodils were attractive in hall, living room, and dining room. A beautiful basket of the golden blooms centered the dining table with yellow candles used in crystal where, at the tea hour, covers were placed for sixteen.

The club, one of Salem's oldest mission districts and the history class and their teacher, Mrs. Ernest H. Shaaks, gave interesting information about the first organization of the women's missionary work and the subsequent progress of the work.

The report of the gifts from John D. Rockefeller, Jr., of over $400,000 to the Women's Home and Foreign Societies and of $225,000 to the undesignated fund of the general society, with the promise of an additional $225,000 if the society duplicate the amount raised last year, which was $6,166,000, was given by the principal.

A social hour and dainty refreshments were enjoyed by a large number of ladies. The hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. E. M. Bailey, Mrs. Earl Barham, Mrs. J. F. Latham, Mrs. Harry Ralph and Mrs. C. Munding.

The many friends of Mrs. Paul Wallace will be glad to know that she is convalescing in a satisfactory manner at her country home west of Salem since her return from California. While still confined to her bed, Mrs. Wallace is allowed to receive callers for 15 minute periods.

The Fairmount Hill club will meet on Tuesday, March 17, at the home of Mrs. George H. Grabenhorst, 1655 Fir street.

The general aid society of the Jason Lee church will hold a chicken pie supper on Tuesday evening, March 17, at the church.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor was one of yesterday's most charming hostesses when she entertained at bridge tea complimenting a group of Corvallis matrons, Jonquills, and other spring flowers, were attractive about the rooms. The honor guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Dick Riger, Mrs. Grant

The March social meeting of Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star will be held at the stated communication Tuesday evening, March 17.

Miss Hazel Pierce and Miss Eldune Bays entertained on Friday evening at Miss Pierce's home, 1007 South Thirteenth street, at a delightfully planned St. Patrick's party. Golden daffodils and green shamrocks gave an appropriate decorative scheme, with dancing and five hundred the delicious luncheon was served at a late hour. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ransom, Mr. and Mrs. J. Woodhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bays, Mrs. Henry Bays, Miss Irene Pierce, Mr. Virgil McMorris, Mr. Arthur Jones, Mr. Merle Crossan, and the hostesses, Miss Eldune Bays and Miss Hazel Pierce.

The tea meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. T. Barnes was one of the pleasantest of the year. A Founders' day program was given under the direction of Mrs. John L. Brady, assisted by Mrs. A. A. Lee and a group of young people, in which Mrs. W. M. Pennington, Mrs. Alma Pohle, Mrs. E. C. Hickman and Mrs. Brady and Mrs. Lee participated. Preceding the program a business meeting was held, followed by a beautifully played violin solo by Miss Betty Siddall, with Miss Eugenia Savage playing the accompaniment.

At the tea hour Mrs. E. C. Richards and Mrs. R. V. Hollenbeck poured, assisted by the social committee of which Mrs. O. E. Price was chairman. The tea table was centered with daffodils with grape hyacinths used in smaller baskets. Blue candles were used in crystal holders.

Miss Catherine Andrews and Miss Georgia Lee Allison of Grand Ronde are spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cummings.

Salem Rebekah lodge No. 1 is presenting the four-act rural comedy at the Grand theater, on the evening of March 17. This play has been given most successfully by the Salem Heights Community club on several occasions and is well worth mentioning because each and every member of the cast is particularly adapted to his or her part.

The background of the play is formed around the home of a good old farmer couple, Zeph and Mrs. Cummings. Typical of the rural people, the Cummings' have a home where all are welcome and a home is offered to those who are alone. Jimsey, a fresh-air lad, and a real American boy, is with the Cummings when the story opens. He is a character, adding much to the mirth of the story.

Susie Cummings and Nell Wentworth, a poor young inventor, have a very complicated love knot formed. Susie is the daughter of Ralph, the millionaire brother of Zeph Cummings.

Keziah, who is a most imaginative body, has a hard struggle gaining the love of a man. When fortune favors her as an heiress, Bingle, an interesting old fisherman, and Tomps, the hired man, vie for her hand in marriage.

Mr. Holden, the lawyer, is instrumental in working out a number of financial problems for different ones, and is a very good good character.

Mrs. S. H. Van Tramp entertained for her husband Thursday evening on the occasion of his birthday at an enjoyable, small affair of the past week. Spring flowers were used in the rooms where Mr. Van Tramp, Prof. W. F. Fargo and Mr. D. W. Fisher were guests and honor guest at a 6 o'clock dinner.

Entertaining for the pleasure of her bridge club, Mrs. Henry Meyers was hostess on Friday for an enjoyable afternoon of the chosen diversion. Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mrs. W. H. Boot, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker and Miss Helen Jordan were additional guests at the tables.

Club members playing were: Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. T. C. Smith, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. David Eyre, and the hostess, Mrs. Henry Meyers.

Irish gaiety and Irish folk-lore will dominate at the woman's club house Monday when the MacDowell club sponsors a program that has been anticipated for many days. The program is announced for promptly at 8 o'clock, with all invited. No admission will be charged, though a silver offering will be taken, the proceeds to go toward the club building fund.

Polk song will give place to folk-dance only to give place to folk-song again. Irish lyrics will be given in all their beauty and poignancy of expression, and the violin will have a chance to play, too, to the memories of Erin.

The following promising program has been announced: "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen," Ronald Craven, Colas Marsters, Earl Riggs and Arlie Anderson.

Macushla, Gladys Raffety. Spring. The Connaught Rangers. Bridget Brady, Irish Skies, Carol Dibble. Address: "Killarney, Come Back to Erin," Mrs. C. A. Kells.

Irish folk dances, Elizabeth Waters and Cynthia Delano. "Believe Me if all Those Endearing Young Charms," Mary Talmadge Headrick. "Path Across the Moor," "The Kerry Cow," "The Harbor," Carol Dibble. "Last Rose of Summer," Ada Miller Harris.

"Kathleen Mavourneen," "Low-Back Car," Leon Jennison. The American Legion auxiliary will meet for their regular meeting at 8 o'clock Monday evening in McCormack hall. Immediately following a short business meeting the members will adjourn to the Armory at the invitation of the legion members to view the initiation ceremonies. Dancing will follow in the later evening.

The friends of Mrs. E. M. Lau will be glad to receive the news that she is improving from her illness.

At the Neighbors of Woodcraft initiatory program on Friday a group of 400 was present, 60 coming from Portland, 31 from Silverton and also a large number from McMinnville. A fancy drill was put on in splendid manner by the Marion circle No. 34 of Silverton. Speeches were given by all the grand officers in attendance, among the group being Margaret Chapman, grand advisor; Mary Hurley, grand banker; Amanda Findling of Denver, Colo., grand manager; Lillian Stanchfield of Pueblo, grand manager; Emma McCallum of Spokane, grand manager; Aneta Tickner of San Francisco, grand manager; Anna Mandell of Portland, grand manager, and Anna R. Hawkins of Toledo, Or., grand manager.

Following the initiation an interesting program was given with Miss Meyers, Mildred Ruth Borgenson, Mrs. Mason Bishop, Miss Zoe Daniel and Miss Neva Cooley taking part.

The hall was decorated with flags and beautiful potted plants furnished by J. W. Maruny.

The Pythian sisters are sponsoring a benefit dance on Tuesday, March 17, at the WOW hall. Proceeds will go toward a new hall for the children at the Pythian home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steusloff entertained on Friday evening for a pleasurable gathering of the Cherry City club. Miss Edna Luckner and Jack Luckner were present as special guests. At the close of an evening of five hundred high scores were awarded to Mrs. A. T. Wain and D. C. Minto. Playing at the tables were Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wain, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Minto, Miss Luckner, Mr. Luckner and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Steusloff.
