

SALEM PLACES TWO MEN ON MYTHICAL ALL-STAR QUINTETTE

ELLIS, DRAGER MEN SELECTED

Coleman Gives Franklin, McMinnville and Astoria One Man on Team

Salem high school placed two men on the mythical all-star team selected by Ralph Coleman of OAC from the players who were here during the state tournament. Ellis placed at forward and J. Drager at center.

Other selections were Scallon, Franklin, at forward with Ellis; Miller, of McMinnville, and Anderson, of Astoria, at guards.

By schools Salem placed two men, Franklin, McMinnville and Astoria one each.

The Medford squad, winners of last year, failed to place a man as did the strong teams from Pendleton and Eugene.

PUBLIC SCHOOL MEASURE NOW BEFORE COURT

enforce a compulsory education law, Moore asserted, and the only question presented, he said, was the extent to which the law could be carried by the people of a state. The supreme court must assume that the public school law is constitutional as an exercise of the police power of the state, unless those attacking it show it to be unreasonable. The courts must give deference to the assumption that the law was within the power of the state to enact.

A question by Justice Sutherland as to whether it was not correct that the state claimed the power, if it chose to exercise it, to close every private and parochial school and to prohibit children from attending schools, was indicative of the character of a volume of inquiries propounded by the members of the court. The questions seemed to indicate that the justices asking them were of the impression that the law was illegally drastic.

Said to Deprive Rights William D. Guthrie, counsel for the society of sisters, said that he expected to sustain the contention that the law was unconstitutional. Not only did it deprive private and parochial schools of the right to teach children, which was both a property and a personal liberty right, he said, but it also deprived parents and guardians of the right to decide where their children should be educated. He asserted that the purpose of the law was to compel children to attend public schools and it was the fundamental and sacred right of parents to decide such questions for themselves.

The law was invalid because it would deprive teachers in private and parochial schools of their livelihood, he said, and the act was a deliberate attempt to deny religious liberty and freedom of conscience to those parents who desire to send their children to religious schools of their own selection.

This was one of the few times in recent senate history that all the senators present answered when their names were first called. As

LEGION QUINTET CONTINUES WINS

Noted City of Portland Basketball Aggregation Defeated 41 to 21

SILVERTON, Or., March 16.—(Special to The Statesman.)—In a fast game, the Silvertown American Legion team defeated the much-touted City of Portland basketball team here tonight by the score of 41 to 21. The Silvertown team has one more game scheduled before closing the season.

The roll started, Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, who collapsed in the senate last week, came in slowly and took his seat. A minute or two later Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, recognized leader of the insurgents, who had been called from Florida, entered the chamber and took his seat in a front row directly behind Mr. Dawes.

Immediately after the result of the roll call was announced the senate went into executive session, confirmed a single postmaster and adjourned until noon tomorrow. Senators Curtis and Butler then drove rapidly to the White House where they were closeted with the president and Mr. Warren for half an hour.

Emerging from the executive offices for the return trip to the capitol, neither had any statement to make, but later Senator Curtis said he and Mr. Butler had informally reported to the president that the senate had no further business to transact unless Mr. Coolidge had a further communication to make.

The president then told the senators he would make known his position to them tomorrow. He seemed unpertrurbed by the senate action and merely smiled when informed the nomination had again been rejected.

SILVERTON GIRLS ARE GOING STRONG

Win Championship of District and Are Now Seeking State Honors

SILVERTON, March 16.—(Special to The Statesman.)—By defeating the Mill City basketball team at Mill City, Silvertown high school girls won the championship of this district and are well on their way to the state championship. The score was 43 to 13. The girls will play Seaside in the very near future. If they are successful in winning this game they expect to make a tour of the eastern part of the state. Only once in three years have they been defeated, and that was early this season at Estacada. At the game with Estacada all of the first team players were not out.

The personnel of the team is Bertha Alm, Dena Alm, Kathleen Booth, Florence Desart and Helen Johnson. Miss Olivia Hoffman of the Silvertown high school faculty has been coach for the past two years.

The girls were also successful in defeating Sandy at Oregon City Saturday night. The score was 24 to 15.

GIBBONS-WILLS MATCH LINED UP

Title Contenders to Meet in Milk-Fund Benefit on May 29

NEW YORK, March 16.—Harry Wills, negro heavyweight, and Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul, Minn., meet in a 15 round match at the Milk Fund bouts at the Yankee stadium May 29, providing the managers of the two principals can be given assurance that there is no possibility of a title match with Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, before fall. This was revealed by Tex Rickard, promoter of bouts, said after he had a conference with Paddy Mullins, manager of Wills.

Mullins withheld definite assurance that he would sign articles for the match with Gibbons until Wednesday, when he will know definitely whether there is a possibility of Wills meeting Dempsey for the title this summer. Eddie Kane, manager of Tommy Gibbons, has already agreed to terms for the match. The winner of this fight will meet Dempsey in a title match later in the year.

Wills will receive a guarantee of almost $150,000 for the Gibbons match, Rickard intimated.

COAST TOURNEY PLANS PROGRESS

Schools to Enter Teams Selected With Exception of Idaho Quintette

Plans for the allcoast tournament to be held here next week are now well under way. The schools to enter are now definitely picked with the exception of the Idaho representative. Yakima is the state champion of Washington and have been invited to attend. California has no state tournament although Piedmont high of Oakland was invited on the advice of the state board of control. A telegram was received from there this morning accepting the invitation.

The elimination in Idaho will have been completed last night and invitations have been forwarded to the winner. An answer from the winning team is expected to arrive some time today.

Yakima high has not definitely accepted the invitation although they indicated that they would in case California would accept.

A great deal of interest has been shown by the local business men in regard to the tournament. A number have already signified their willingness to underwrite the event and make good the expense money in case there is a loss.

This is not to be expected, however, if this tourney is as well attended as the state tourney was. The expense of the interstate tourney will be around $3,000.

TWO-HOUR PARKING ACTION IS DEFERRED

protected and to clear the city of a nuisance, which the Mill race is alleged to be.

Communications were read from C. H. Flake, who desires a two-hour parking ordinance for the city. In a lengthy article he stated that it is impossible to transact business, or to secure professional services without having to change the location of the automobile.

The Hayesville community entered a communication, which was signed by William W. Fox and others for the two-hour parking ordinance.

One, community, however, stated that they were perfectly satisfied with the one-hour parking limit and entered a communication. It was signed by Brush College residents. Other communications on the parking law were filed with the council.

as he was west of the stump he had planned to blast. His pipe was about a foot from his hand.

Feud Is Recalled The feud existing in the neighborhood was brought to light in the afternoon inquiry, when Spark and McDonald appeared on the witness stand. At the morning session, Assistant Attorney General Liljequist, LaRonda Pierce and a man named Robinson, special investigators out of the attorney general's office, who have been working on charges lodged with the governor relative to the death of H. H. Keunzli, brother-in-law of Swartz, about a year ago, were present.

Well Is Filled The Swartz estate is valued at about $10,000, according to the petition to admit the will to probate filed with the county court yesterday. Of this amount $2500 is estimated as personal property and the balance as real property. Heirs are the widow, Edna L. Swartz, and two children, F. Marjorie Swartz and Edwin Swartz.

The will of Swartz was admitted to probate yesterday and contains statements that belie the cloud of rumor, surmise and suspicion that
