THE DEDICATION of the "Children's Tree," a sturdy little walnut, took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the court house grounds under the direction of Chemekeka chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, with Mrs. Russell Callin, regent, presiding. The exercises opened with the salute to the flag and the singing of a stanza of "America." Then, impressively, one by one the young members of, and those eligible for membership in, the organization of Children of the American Revolution, each placed a shovelful of soil about the sturdy roots. "I name this tree Old Glory," said Claire Hurley, who ceremoniously concluded the planting.

Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, who planted the nut from which the tree grew, gave an interesting history of the organization of the Children of the American Revolution in Oregon, of which she was the founder in the state. Evelyn Sibley of Dallas, at the age of 8 years, was the first child in Oregon to become a member, having taken out her papers on November 18, 1915. Miss Sibley, whose mother was organizing regent of the Sarah Childers Polk chapter, was born on the anniversary of the ride of Paul Revere.

It is interesting to know that the walnut from which this small tree has sprung was one of a number given by M. O. Plummer, who brought a seed from the tree on George Washington's estate at Mount Vernon, which the Father of the Country himself planted, to each chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Oregon. The seed from which the tree that was planted yesterday sprung is the only one of these that grew.

Mrs. Seymour Jones made the wish for the tree which, in brief, was the same that she wished for the children's organization,—that both should grow and flourish and become very strong. Edna Raymond read Joyce Kilmer's "Trees," which was very appropriate to the day. The ceremonies closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Mrs. James Heltzel, president of the Children of the American Revolution, has as her charges Virginia Best, Clayborn Dyer, John McCullough, William Dyer, Edna Raymond, Orville Raymond, Dorothy Rullison, Robert Rullison and Maureen Styles.

Among those who are awaiting their papers are Jane Harblson, Sonny Spears, Annabelle Hawley, Helen Ralph, Jack Harblson, Grace Elizabeth Holman and Margaret Heltzel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Steusloff spent the week-end at Pacific City.

The eye of St. Patrick's day was fittingly chosen for an Irish program last night at the woman's club house with members of the Salem Macdowell club sponsoring interesting groups of numbers. "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen," a number full of plaintive longing for the Emerald Isle, was sung by the high school boys' quartet in which Ronald Craven, Collas Marsters, Earl Riggs and Airlie Anderson are the singers. Gladys Raffety gave "Macushia," and Carol S. Dibble gave two groups of readings—"Spring," "The Connaught Rangers," "Bridget Brady," "Irish Skies," "Pathless Mavourneen" and "Low-Back Across the Moor." "The Kerry Cow," and "The Harbor," "Kath-Car" were sung by Leon Jennison, and "Kharney, Come Back to Erin" by Mrs. C. A. Kells. Elizabeth Waters and Cynthia Delano were delightful in their dances, and Mary Talmadge Headrick's violin sang in "Believe Me if all Those Endearing Young Charms."

Reverend Ward Willis Long performed the ceremony at 9:15 o'clock Sunday morning at the Presbyterian manse which united in marriage Miss Violet Craig and Mr. Howard Harvey. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Knapp were the only friends of the young people witnessing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey left immediately after the ceremony for a short trip north, after which they will be at home at 461 North High street. Mrs. Harvey is an employee of the U. C. Shipley store, and Mr. Harvey is on the staff at the Gray Belle.

The members of the Tillicum club will enjoy a St. Patrick's dance this evening at Derby hall.

"Forget all your troubles and come to the Grand theater this evening for 'Down in Maine' is a screen from start to finish and, as a local show, is the best you've seen for many a day. Today is St. Patrick's Day, celebrate it by coming to a real rural comedy. Given by the Salem Heights Community club, under the auspices of Salem Rebekah Lodge No. 1, the lodge feels fortunate in being able to present "Down in Maine." This cast has worked together for two years and last year gave the well remembered "Cranberry Corners."

Two special acts prove quite an attraction in themselves. Edward Burnside will sing and Leo Du Bois will give a monologue. Neither men need any introduction to Salem people, as their acts are popular and very good. You're going to miss a real treat of this evening at the Grand theater.

Cast includes:
Zeta Cannon, A. N. Falkerson, Ralph (His Brother), P. F. Stoltselns, Neil Westcott, Edward Burnside, Bingle, Harry Burnside, Mrs. Holden, King, Barlett, James, Reddy, Hardman, Moe Goslin, William Trudgen, Susie Cummings, Mrs. King Barlett, Kay, M. L. Parrington, Betsy Tomps, Mrs. D. C. Washburn, Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. C. W. Sawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert entertained as their guest yesterday Anthony Suwer of Portland.

A cleverly given meeting of the Northwest Poetry society was held on Friday, the 13th at the Washington Hotel in Portland. The invitations issued read as follows: "The nine new official black cats with nine lives are going to howl on the back fence at 7:45 o'clock with all other poetically inclined cats cordially invited to join the chorus to the blue moon." More officially speaking, the occasion was the installation of officers, Mrs. F. G. Franklin of Salem being among these as third vice-president.

The music study section of the Salem Arts' League will meet this evening with Mr. J. F. Lau, 794 N. Summer street. The life and compositions of Brahms will be studied at this time.

PNEUMONIA USUALLY STARTS FROM COLDS
Physicians warn against neglecting coughs and colds and tell of the serious complications that may result. Leading physicians now prescribe BALSAMEA for all bronchial attacks. BALSAMEA is a pure vegetable preparation made from a newly discovered plant. Dr. Benj. E. Crabtree, Anderson, Mo., writes: "I use it exclusively for my practice and my family. It is quick, sure and safe in its action like nothing else."
Toward the end of the influenza epidemic a government physician noticed that a tribe of Indians in Nevada, by the use of oils from a native plant were immune from the ravages of influenza. He had these oils among his white patients and these in a hospital overflowing with "death" cases. None of the twenty died of the world and for some time it was not possible to supply the demand.
BALSAMEA has now been standardized and gives uniformly miraculous results in four ways: 1. It soothes the inflamed membranes and relieves irritation. 2. It increases secretion of mucus and permits easy expectoration. 3. It stimulates pores of the skin in throwing off body poisons and 4. It strikes at the cause, checking germ activity.
Do not confuse it with ordinary balsam which comes from the resinous bark of a tree and is only cooling and irritating. Unlike other cough remedies BALSAMEA is free from heat, tar and other harmful narcotics. Pleasant to take and absolutely safe to give to children. Be sure you get BALSAMEA with the picture of the Indian on the package. Guaranteed to relieve any cough, no matter from what cause, or your money back.

OTIS SKINNER IS TO BE SEEN HERE

The Spectacular Production, "Sancho Panza" to Be Presented Wednesday

From all accounts Otis Skinner's new play, "Sancho Panza," which comes to the Grand theater Wednesday, March 18, is one of the largest and most spectacular productions in which this popular star has appeared since his memorable success in "Kismet." The announcement reads: "Mr. Skinner's new play is a whirlwind, colorful, panorama of Spanish life in the 16th century—a kind of Spanish "Arabian Nights" as it were, with nobles, knights, impassioned damsels, Moorish beauties, kindly wenches, slaves, dancing girls and jesters to the king."

Here it will be seen that "Sancho Panza" is utterly different from anything in which Mr. Skinner has heretofore appeared. That the production is an elaborate one may be surmised in the announcement that Richard Boleslawsky of the Moscow Art theater, has staged the play and Hugo Felix, one of our foremost composers (his "Lassie," "Pom Pom" and "Sweetheart Shop" are of the pleasant memory) has written songs and special music to enhance the mise en scene. That dancing is a particularly important factor in "Sancho Panza" is evident in the selection of Bert French, who has charge of the terpsichorean features. Even to the costuming, this new Skinner play borders on the spectacular, for no less an authority than James Reynolds, designer of the wardrobe for the Zeigfeld "Pol-les" has this department in charge. "Sancho Panza" is an adaptation of the more important episodes in Cervantes' immortal work "Don Quixote de la Mancha." Melchior Lengyel, author of the play "Czarina," has written the play. Mr. Skinner's role is that of the genial squire, Sancho, faithful friend and follower of that adventuresome knight-errand, Don Quixote, charger of the windmills. Even Sancho's famous donkey, Dapple, is prominent in the play, and in justice to the donkey, it is stated that he shares honors with Mr. Skinner.
