That is your fate, you change, you must be ever changing, You climb from a boy to a man, from a man to a god, And the god looks back on the man with a smile, and the man on the boy with wonder; But I, I am woman for ever: I change not at all.

—CLEMENCE DANÉ: Will Shakespeare.

MR. AND MRS. Gideon Stolz were honored on Friday evening with a twenty-one cover dinner at the home of Mrs. Lenta Westcott, marking the occasion of their fifty-seventh wedding anniversary. A beautiful basket of Columbia roses centered the table, with a profusion of spring flowers in the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Stolz, who have made Salem their home for half a century, have a host of friends here who remembered them with flowers, messages of congratulation and gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Stolz were married in Dayton, Ohio, five years before coming to Oregon. Forty members and guests of the American Association of University Women met for an interesting luncheon meeting at 12:30 o'clock yesterday at the Gray Belle. Dr. and Mrs. Walter H. Brown and Miss Thompson were the special guests of the day, with Dr. Brown the speaker.

Mrs. Ira E. Hall, dressmaker, her many friends will be pleased to know, has returned to Salem, and is at 1295 Fir street.

The members of the Capitol Bridge club make up one of the congenial club groups of Salem which met during the past week. On Wednesday Mrs. Milton Meyers was hostess for the group with Mrs. Ed Gillingham and Mrs. Earl Flegel as special guests. A feature of the attractively appointed 1 o'clock luncheon was the use of lovely Hawaiian trays which Mrs. Meyers herself brought from the islands. Jonquils and forsythia gave a pleasing floral note about the rooms.

The afternoon's playing prize went to Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, with guest prizes to Mrs. Gillingham and Mrs. Flegel.

In the group for the afternoon were Mrs. Gillingham, Mrs. Flegel, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. L. P. Griffith, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Frank Meredith, Mrs. H. H. Olin-

Shope, honoring a group of the high school girls who are planning entering college. A special musical feature is planned. The hostesses in charge are Mrs. A. W. Stein, Mrs. D. Keeney, Miss Dantz Robbins and Miss Myrtle Pelker.

Famous French pianist who will appear in Salem on Monday, March 30, under the auspices of the Civic Music Club.

The Haystack Community Club held its regular meeting Friday evening, March 20, with a large attendance, and after a short business session a very fine program was rendered. The play, "Sign Here," by the school children was very funny and well executed.

The vocal solo by Mrs. Malcolm Ramp, accompanied by Professor Roberts on the piano, was especially fine and, judging by the applause and encores, was highly appreciated.

Mr. Bunn next favored the audience with three Norwegian dialect recitations which were full of humor and rendered in a professional manner.

Vocal duet by Mrs. C. Z. Ashbaugh and Mr. Madsen, accompanied by Mrs. Malcolm Ramp, was heartily applauded and encored.

Coleen Menace gave one of her inimitable, humorous recitations, and the negro comedy act by Joe Foley, assisted by Miss Lengren, brought down the house time after time. The costumes were furnished by courtesy of Director's department store.

Chapter AB of the PEO Sisterhood will meet at 7:45 o'clock Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. E. Barrett, 2117 State street.

The public will be interested in attending the annual graduation exercises for the 1925 class of the Salem hospital at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Women's club house. Adelaide F. Post and Claire B. Davis will be the graduating members.

The main address of the evening will be given by Dr. H. J. Clements. The complete program is announced as follows: Piano solo... Cecil Deacon Invocation... Rev. J. R. Buck Presentation of class... Dr. C. A. Downs Address... Dr. H. J. Clements Vocal solo... Mrs. P. L. Newmyer Charge to class... Dr. W. B. Morse Presentation of diplomas... August Hucklestein Presentation of pins... Miss Gladys Steele Selection... McDowell club quartet

Salem people will be interested in the radio concert at 5:30 o'clock when the two Willamette University Glee clubs broadcast a joint program from station KGW.

Active and alumnae members of the Alpha Xi Delta sorority from both the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college will entertain on Wednesday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock with a tea at the Colonial Dame Tea

The Civic Music club of Portland will present artist pupils of William Wallace Graham, violin; Minnetta Magers, voice, and Ella Connell Jesse, piano, in a triangle concert in the parlor of the Portland hotel Tuesday evening, March 24. Of special interest to Salem people will be the fact that one of the pupils presented by Mr.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. Breyman Boise and son, Eugene, and Miss Constance King of Portland left Thursday for southern California. They expect to be gone a month or six weeks. A charming afternoon affair of the week was the eight-table bridge party on Thursday at which Mrs. John C. Evans and Mrs. C. E. Bates were hostesses at the Evan's home. The lovelier of the spring blossoms were used profusely about the rooms. Mrs. Carl Webb and Mrs. Karl Kugel received the prizes. Those invited for the afternoon of cards were: Mrs. H. A. Corroyer, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. William Mo-when Chapter G of the PEO sisterhood entertained members of Chapter AB at an old fashioned party, with many among the hostesses, coming gowned in costumes of half a century ago.

Beautiful among these was the red, flowered charmeuse gown with train, and trimmed with insertion of lace, worn by Mrs. B. J. Miles.

Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., never looked lovelier than she did in a gown of white taffets, with pink flowers, covered with rare old lace and worn with hat to match.

Mrs. Harwood Hall wore a gorgeous gown of silk and lace with voluminous yards of material, and with hat and mitts to match.

Mrs. P. J. Kuntz wore her own white silk wedding gown made with a tight basque, and her wedding hat, and carried a feather fan.

Mrs. William Hughes wore a flowered silk frock with a long polonaise and with a looped bustle. With her hair primly dressed she made a quaint picture.

Mrs. Frank Churchill and Mrs. A. E. Wollpert wore long, redingote costumes with hats of the same period of fashion.

Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, in her immense Merry Widow hat, long black taffeta skirt worn with red sash, and a tight-sleeved, high-necked waist made one of the pictures of the evening.

It would be impossible to describe all the dresses that were unique and distinctive, though Mrs. F. W. Selee in her white silk wedding gown, long and flowing, must not be forgotten. The whole evening provided an immense amount of pleasure and amusement.

The program opened with a piano solo by Mrs. Frank Churchill followed with vocal solos by Mrs.

Gordon McGilchrist. One of the cleverest of skits, "Mechanical Jane," was enacted with skillful talent by Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. W. M. Hughes and Mrs. F. W. Selee.

The PEO colors of yellow and white were used in a motif developed with lovely spring flowers. A two course luncheon as served late in the evening with Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, and Mrs. A. C. Parr assisting the hostess.

The Poetry of Dress

by Irene Castle
America's Best Dressed Woman

"My Love in her attire doth show her wit, It doth so well become her: For every season she hath dressings fit, For Winter, Spring, and Summer."

"So sang an English poet as far back as the 16th Century. And I think he must have been inspired to write the pretty verse in a lovely Springtime when, even as today, all the smart world was discarding its "winter garments of repentance"—its petrics and heavy woolen stuffs—to don the more alluring, more ethereal, wardrobe of the sunshiny vernal season.

"Can a Frock really be witty? Yes, indeed. But the designer that can instill the quality of wit into Dress must be himself witty and of an exploring mind—not contented with the merely pretty and the picturesque that are so much easier to achieve.

"Uliana"
IRENE CASTLE
CORTICELLI FASHIONS

This Frock's new, square neckline and the long scarf that cleverly transforms itself into a sort of front-flounce are typical Irene Castle inspirations for Spring. Made of Corticelli Crepe Ensemble, the scarf inlaid with lace in contrasting, sombre tones.
