Special guests for the evening. Members of the two chapters present were: Mrs. Grace Osburn, Mrs. T. E. McCrooney, Miss May Raub, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Mrs. Louise Brickell, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Alice Thompson, Mrs. Frank Churchill, Mrs. Harwood Hall, Mrs. W. T. Hickey, Mrs. W. M. Hughes, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mrs. G. W. Laffar, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. A. C. Parr, Mrs. F. W. Selee, Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mrs. A. T. Woolpert and Mrs. C. K. Logan.

The marriage of Lieut. Cecil Ward Nist, 16th infantry, U.S.A., to Miss Ellen Mary Swan, daughter of Chaplain Thomas E. Swan, U.S.A., and Mrs. Alberta Gibbons, took place on February 12 on Governor's Island, New York. The ceremony was solemnized at the chapel of St. Cornelius, with a reception afterward at chaplain's quarters for close friends and relatives and a few distinguished guests. The service was impressively conducted by Rev. Herbert Shipman, D.D., bishop of New York. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Miss Alberta Swan, as maid of honor. Two little flower girls, Misses Lucille and Helen Kimmel, daughters of Major and Mrs. M. M. Kimmel, U.S.A., took part in the beautiful service. Lieutenant J. L. Green, U.S.A., was best man. The ushers of the day were Lieutenants John Grombach, Herbert Campbell, Lewis Morton, Favario Favial, John H. Evans and Joseph C. Joffries, all seven men, including the best man, being classmates of the bridegroom in the class of '23 at West Point. The charmingly gowned bride had the distinction of carrying a little white prayer book which has been carried at weddings in the family for two generations, with white satin streamers as markers, from which fell a lovely shower of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Alberta Swan, in shaded burnt orange, carried roses to harmonize with her frock. The men wore impressive uniforms and carried sabres; the bridal party, according to military custom, in leaving the altar passed beneath an arch of swords. The entire chapel was decorated with palms and lilies. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnes (Esther Paroungian) who are making their home in New York city, were guests for the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and Lieutenant Nist were classmates in the class of 1918 of the Salem high school.

Among a host of lovely gifts received by Lieutenant and Mrs. Nist was a sterling silver water pitcher, the gift of the regiment, bearing on one side the regimental seal and on the other the initials of the recipients. The corps area presented a beautiful sterling silver coffee service, and Lieutenant Nist's class at West Point sent greetings with an 82-piece set of flat silver. It is an unbroken custom of the 1923 class at West Point to send to each man who marries this gift of silver. Many other gifts, the most beautiful of their kind, were received in linen, brass and cutglass.

Lieutenant Nist is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nist, 1432 N. Sixteenth street, and with his bride will make his home on Governor's Island.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Birch entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner on Wednesday evening honoring the birthday of Mrs. C. V. Moore. Daffodils and St. Patrick decorations were used about the rooms. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Moore, Margaret Moore, Mrs. Amy Birch, Margaret Birch, Mr. W. L. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Birch.

Mme. Germaine Schnitzer, the famous French pianist, who plays here at the Grand theater March 30, achieved a sensational success on her American debut a few years ago. The critics were unanimous in her praise, crowning her with the title of the "greatest woman pianist of the age." Almost a year ago to a day Mme. Schnitzer made her first appearance in recital at the Auditorium, Portland, and was received by all the critics with tremendous acclaim. C. Hilton-Turrey, in the Oregonian, commented: "Mme. Schnitzer is a woman of great personal allure and charm and her art reflects this quality in a thousand subtle colors. Her playing shows a sure touch, strongly rhythmic, and a phraseology intense and nervous, using the word in its better sense, together with flawless execution. Apart from the technique, the musical values are high, and in her softer legatos the keys of the piano sang their little angel-songs under her compelling fingers with a ravishing tone."

Mme. Schnitzer appears here under the auspices of the Civic Music club.

With 54 delegates present, including state officers, 10 committee chairmen and about 15 visitors, the 12th annual conference of the Oregon Daughters of the American Revolution convened amid impressive patriotic ceremonies this morning at the LOL hall.

Reports of the various committees of the state organization and the passage of two resolutions featured the morning session. It was voted that the Oregon DAR organization would cooperate with the national body in the purchase of a painting of George Washington. Another resolution was directed at Secretary of State Sam Koser, and was to the effect that the DAR would take it upon themselves to construct a rail around the state seal built in the floor of the state capital building.

The convention was officially opened this morning with a bugle call by Scoutmaster Ralph Stevens, and the entrance of pages escorting the vice president general and state regent and state officers.

The gathering was called to order by State Regent Mrs. Seymour Jones. Mrs. A. A. Finch officially welcomed the visitors to Astoria and Mrs. I. L. Patterson, past vice president, responded to the welcome. The following state chairmen of national committees reported: Americanization, Mrs. John Pearson; Children, Sons and Daughters of the Republic, Mrs. J. H. Bagley, read by Mrs. G. E. Watts; Correct Use of the Flag, Mrs. E. C. Apperson, read by Mrs. Hembree; Ellis Island, Mrs. F. B. Sheldon; Girl Home Makers, Mrs. C. H. Irvin; Historical and Literary Reciprocity, Mrs. A. E. Stossmister; Liquidation and Endowment, Mrs. Gordon McCracken; Magazine, Mrs. U. G. Smith; Manual for Immigrants, Mrs. J. W. Orr; Memorial for Caroline Scott Harrison, Mrs. James N. Davis; National Old Trails Road, Mrs. C. E. Pell; Patriotic Education, Mrs. C. C. Clark; Preservation of Historic Spots, Mrs. O. J. Goffin; Publicity, Mrs. R. S. Stearns, and State Historian, Mrs. Lulu D. Crandall, chairman of the Historical Research and Preservation of Records committee.

The work of Mrs. O. J. Goffin was particularly outstanding. Mrs. Goffin is chairman of the preservation of historic spots committee and during the course of the year has prepared a detailed map of Oregon, showing all historical spots of interest. This map, together with a 2,000-word essay, telling of this state, has been sent to the National Historical society. Mrs. J. W. Orr, who has charge of the work of distributing the manual for immigrants, reported that her work has been exceptionally successful. Many of the books urging immigrants to study the laws of the land and become citizens, have been distributed in the state and have resulted in the making of more and better citizens.

During the afternoon session the following committees are scheduled through their chairmen: Real Daughters, Mrs. C. E. Wolverson; Revolutionary Relics, Mrs. William A. Evans; State Librarian, Mrs. P. M. Brandt; State Registrar, Mrs. John L. Soule; Report of State Regent, Mrs. Seymour Jones; Report of State Chaplain, Mrs. George F. Murch; report of State Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Elmo S. White; and Report of the State Recording Secretary, Mrs. Thomas J. Anders.

In addition there will be reports of chairmen of state committees and reports of chapter regents.—Astoria Budget.

The many friends of Mrs. W. P. Babcock will be glad to know that she is recovering from a tonsil operation performed during the middle of the week.

Twenty members of Hal Hibbard auxiliary met on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Bertelson for the regular March social meeting. A short business meeting was held early in the afternoon. Lovely bowls of daffodils were attractive in the rooms. Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Newcomb, Mrs. Anna Sea of Milton, Or., and Mrs. Montgomery. Mrs. Sea assisted the hostess at the refreshment hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kennell, of the Kennell-Ellis studio, are driving to Portland this evening to attend the Rotary district conference.

Mrs. Cecil Clark was hostess for the Just For Fun club Thursday evening at a line party at the Oregon theater. After the show a delightful supper was served in the rose room of the spa. Pink carnations with maiden hair fern were the decorations. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Rice, Mrs. Densell Gilliam, Mrs. Elfred van de Walker, Miss Lois Evans and Mrs. Cecil Clark.

Special Selling New Spring Dresses

THE long unbroken line is always smart, but there is also great charm in a skirt that is gracefully flared by pleats or godets. Many silken frocks are enhanced by lace trimming, and the jabot front is also good. The values and the qualities are so exceptional that we're certain that every woman who reads this announcement will respond. We're offering these four feature groups at these special prices made possible by a fortunate buy and fast express service.

We may add that the "Pay as you go plan" played an important part in the securing of these exceptional values for they are dresses that would have to command much higher prices under different circumstances.

Pimples

Are quickly rid

Learn what countless people know—that pimples, blotches and all skin eruptions may be easily and quickly ended. Modern science has spent decades in developing the methods. Now the best we know, or hope to know, is placed at your command. Sulphur remains the supreme help. It combats the parasites. But other factors give it multiplied effects. The new-day treatment is called Mentho-Sulphur. It brings instant relief, starts healing at once. Often in two or three days you see the end of all that annoys or disfigures. So many people have proved this that such troubles are now inexcusable. A remedy quick and complete is at everybody's call. Just ask your druggist for a jar of Rowley's Mentho-Sulphur. Then watch the skin trouble go. For Free Samples Address: WHITEHALL PHARMACAL CO., Inc. 589 Madison Ave. New York, N.Y.

AID IS PROMISED TO STRICKEN AREA

CHICAGO, March 20.—(By the Associated Press).—One hundred and thirty eight chambers of commerce in Illinois and six state branches of the American farm bureau federation, the American Red Cross, the American Legion, and numerous other smaller agencies tonight concentrated their efforts in raising more than $1,500, 000 to be used in the stricken area of Wednesday's tornado.

Committees of the Chicago chamber of commerce, after a hurried meeting today, set $500,000 as their quota and tonight had $55,000 cash on hand. This will be immediately dispatched to Carbondale, Ill., headquarters of the relief agencies.

The state of Illinois authorized $500,000 as an emergency measure. The appeal to the Illinois chambers of commerce was sent by Ferdinand Kohl, chairman of the relief committee now in the stricken area. It said:

"Money is needed most. Help must be immediate."

Communications should be addressed to the Disaster Relief Committee, 10 South La Salle street, Chicago, he said, where they will in turn be apportioned as needed. An offering of engineering help in the restoration of gas and electric lighting facilities was received from the American Gas association at New York. An additional quota of 58 nurses and doctors of the city department of health were sent to Murphysboro, Carbondale and other points today, to relieve others on duty there, since the first call for help was made.

Federations in the states of Illinois and Indiana, Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky and Ohio will conduct surveys for the American farm bureau federation throughout the rural districts to determine the exact nature of storm damage on farms and to suggest means of assistance.

Coincident with the announcement of relief work a donation of $5,000 was made by the William Wrigley, Jr., company.

THOUGHTS FOR EVERY DAY

By Editor J. B. Parker of The Conway (Arkansas) News

In one of the Guest poems whose reading make you feel that you are a lucky fellow to have been permitted to enjoy such a well-chosen, well-cooked, well-prepared, and well-served dinner, we find these lines—

Count your riches and boast of your fame— But more than these you can never claim;

But if you have the faith and love of the little fellow

Who watch and wait at the dusk for you, If your home be glad at the long day's close, You have all that any man ever knows.

A peaceful and happy home.

where real love reigns, is beyond compare—utterly different from the house where the inmates meet just to dress, to eat, and occasionally sleep, and where love and sentiment are strangers.

"Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home," where be you rich or great, or poor and humble, you always find a welcome there at the end of the day, if love is enthroned there.

The Outgo Vera: "Why do you let Bob come to see you twice a week and Ralph only once?" Nina: "Bob's salary is twice as much as Ralph's."
