Farm Suitable for Diversified Farming or Wheat Raising Sought

Claude Virge, a Texan who made a cleanup in safe investments while in the Southland has arrived in Salem to look for a place to buy. It is stated that Mr. Virge took a plunge in oil and was successful.

Mr. Virge is looking for a location in the Willamette valley where he may buy a farm suitable for diversified farming, or one suited to wheat raising. At first he plans to work on some Willamette valley farm, in order to gain a knowledge of the situation and conditions here. It is needless to say that he is impressed by the Willamette valley.

Mr. Virge stated that he wanted to get about 80 acres of wheat land which could be put under cultivation in the spring, and which would allow him to take in the harvest of southern California after it has taken place here.

Annual Meeting Scheduled For County Health Group

Election of officers and the annual meeting of the Marion County Health association will be held Friday noon, March 27 at the Gray Belle. Representatives from the six health centers of the county and including Salem are to be present. In addition many Salem residents are to be in attendance. Several speakers have been arranged for the meeting.

This organ was organized four years ago for the purpose of promoting child health in this locality. However, the Commonwealth fund of New York has sent in the child health demonstration for five years. Following this period of time, the work will be resumed. Dr. Walter H. Brown, who is directing the Marion County Child health demonstration will address the meeting.

Clubs of London Decide To Offer Bed and Board

LONDON, March 18.—Most of the London clubs have decided to add bedrooms to their quarters for the convenience of their guests. This innovation has come about gradually during the last year or so, chiefly on account of the fact that the London hotels have been so crowded.

The United Universities, the United Service, Carlton, Reform and Devonshire clubs, among others, have found it necessary to add sleeping quarters to their premises, and the Union club in Carlton House terrace will have its own bedrooms when it re-opens next summer. The old-fashioned Athenaeum also is on the list.

SEVERE QUAKE FELT

QUEBEC, March 21.—An earthquake of such intensity as to set buildings trembling and frightening the populace, visited the region where the more severe quake of three weeks ago is believed to have had origin. It occurred between 10:24 and 10:25 a. m., and lasted only a few seconds.

LENTEN TALKS THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST JOHN

by Rev. ERNEST H. SHANKS, Pastor of the First Baptist Church

MARCH 22, 1925

John 11:1-44. "The Bethany Home." News of Lazarus' sickness. 1-16. Jesus comes to the grief-stricken home. 17-25. Lazarus is raised from the grave. 36,44. Key: "I am the resurrection." Memory verses: 3, 14, 16, 21, 25, 26.

"LORD, he whom thou lovest!" What a fine thing to have said about one. To be sure He loves the world. Loved enough to save it at tremendous cost. But there is something different here. His love for the saints, for his redeemed ones, is different. How shall we describe its difference? More intense? More fervent? More demonstrative? Having greater measure of love? It would be difficult to describe it. But one can truly feel it the moment he surrenders to that love and confesses his faith. Jesus delayed his answer to their appeal. Why does He delay answer to prayer? Perhaps that He may bring a greater blessing, or that we may be the better prepared to receive it. This is the lesson we should learn for the raising of Lazarus. We can always appeal to Him in time of trouble, and the greater the need the more urgent the appeal. "He is touched with the feeling of our infirmities." And "so He is our Saviour."

3. His sisters sent unto him (Jesus) saying, "Lord he whom Thou lovest is sick."
14. Jesus said unto them, "Lazarus is dead."
16. Then said Thomas, "Let us go, that we may die with him."
21. Then said Martha, "Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother had not died."
25. Jesus said unto her, "I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."
26. "Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

I'm but a stranger here,
Heaven is my home;
Earth is a desert dress,
Heaven is my home;
Dangers and sorrows stand
Round me on every hand,
Heaven is my Father-land,
Heaven is my home.

What though the tempest rage,
Heaven is my home;
Short is the pilgrimage,
Heaven is my home;
Time's cold and wintry blast
Soon will be overpast;
I shall reach home at last—
Heaven is my home.

There at my Saviour's side—
Heaven is my home;
I shall be glorified—
Heaven is my home;
There are the good and blest,
Those I loved most and best,
And there, I too, shall rest,
Heaven is my home.

Alaska Company Proposes To Operate Air Limousine

JUNEAU, Alaska, March 14.—Incorporation papers for Alaska's first aerial company, filed at the territorial capitol here in February revealed that Fairbanks Co., intends to purchase a $30,000 air limousine to carry eight passengers comfortably to points in the interior.

The company was capitalized for $50,000. The incorporators were R. C. Wood, president of the First National Bank, J. Fred Struthers, and James A. Rodebaugh, pioneer airplane owner of the north, all of Fairbanks. The company successfully operated three planes to mining camps last summer from Fairbanks. One of the planes was offered to Ray S. Darling, former navy aviator, and Ralph P. Mackie, of Alaska, an employe of the Alaska Railroad, to make a proposed flight to Nome, 320 miles from Fairbanks, with a consignment of diphtheria antitoxin, but was not used because dogs were well on the way to Nome before the weather permitted aviation.

Hickman at Seattle—
President E. C. Hickman of the Kimball School of Theology, will remain in Seattle an additional week to continue a revival service that has been started there. The services have been under way for seven days.
