FANATICISM HELD GREAT BEFUDDLER

Highway of Holiness Topic Selected By Rev. Charles S. Poling Last Night

Long haired and wild eyed fanaticism has befuddled a great many good people in our churches...

It is possible to have heard thousands of sermons on holiness by so-called holiness preachers...

Whatever holiness anyone ever may have, he must receive it from God Himself...

The only thing in the world that you need to be afraid of is sin...

You are a mighty poor Christian if you are not a happy one...

How can you get on this Highway? What does it mean to have a clean heart?

Tonight's subject will be, "A Question and The Answer..."

SMELT-FISHING ENJOYED SUNDAY

Smelt fishing in the Sandy river attracted Arthur Edwards, and Russel Smalley, pressmen...

Edwards has the reputation of being quite a fisherman, but Sovereign is chucking over an occurrence during the trip...

The nets were filled so full that it was necessary to dump some of the fish back into the river...

very interesting at the present time; indeed, at any time.

There are probably a million and a quarter worker bees bringing in their stores from field and garden and forest at the present time...

A New Industry Here Bee keeping as Mr. Mead is carrying it on is a new industry in the Salem district.

He is more a breeder of bees and of queens than a keeper of bees for their work of bringing in honey...

They Do Not Swarm Mr. Mead does not allow his bees to swarm. He divides them into colonies and gives each colony a young and vigorous queen...

Mr. Mead sells bees by the pound and by the colony with their queens and broods...

The new colony with 15,000 worker bees and 15,000 more in the larva stage...

Mr. Mead has been feeding his bees, in order to have the greatest possible number of vigorous workers when the maple blossoms come...

Mr. Mead can furnish about 400 queens this year; more, if he has orders in time...

Another thing, the writer knows Mr. Mead to be absolutely dependable and on the square...
