During the study period some of the most popular authors were reviewed, after which Mrs. E. Manning gave a short life sketch of James Whitcomb Riley, following it with one of her readings, "Hoosiers' Romance." Later Mrs. Bentley conducted an arithmetic contest in decimals which proved very instructive. Mrs. George Trott was announced as the winner. During the social hour Mrs. E. Bentley had charge of a Hebrew puzzle, which caused much fun and which gave honors to Mrs. Eyre and Mrs. Charles Schwartz, who tied. Mrs. Pattison assisted the hostess for a special St. Patrick's day feature. The next meeting will be with Mrs. George Trott when she and Mrs. Brown will have charge of the program.

PNEUMONIA
USUALLY STARTS FROM COLDS

Physicians warn against neglecting coughs and colds and tell of the serious lung complications that may result. Leading physicians now prescribe BALSAMEA for all bronchial affections. BALSAMEA is a pure vegetable preparation made from a newly discovered plant. Dr. Benj. F. Crabtree, Anderson, Mo., writes: "I use it exclusively for my practice and my family. It is quick, sure and safe in its action like nothing else."

Toward the end of the influenza epidemic a government physician noticed that a tribe of Indians in Nevada, by the use of oils from a native plant were immune from the ravages of influenza. He used these oils among his white patients and there in a hospital overflowing with "death" cases. News of the results swept the world and for some time it was not possible to supply the demand.

BALSAMEA has now been standardized and gives uniformly miraculous results in four ways: 1. It soothes the inflamed membrane and relieves irritation. 2. It increases secretion of mucous and permits easy expectoration. 3. It stimulates pores of the skin in throwing off body poisons and 4. It strikes at the cause, checking germ action immediately.

Do not confuse it with ordinary balsam cough syrups that are only soothing syrups and do not go to the base of the trouble. Unlike other cough remedies BALSAMEA is free from coal tar and other harmful narcotics. Pleasant to take and absolutely safe to give to children. Be sure you get BALSAMEA with the picture of the Indian on the package. Guaranteed to relieve any cough, no matter from what cause, or your money back.

REVIVAL SESSION NOW UNDER WAY

Service at Jason Lee Church Supplied Without Outside Assistance

The revival which has been working within the hearts of the people of Jason Lee church gathered force and began in a more definite way last Sunday evening. The campaign is being launched without the assistance of an outside evangelist. The singing is being led by Rev. Mr. Miles, with the help of the choir. Music is being supplied by the church orchestra. The evangelistic zeal of the pastor is meeting with hearty cooperation from the entire membership. The church was well filled Sunday evening when the pastor delivered a searching message to Christian folks, mentioning some of the things which must be removed from the life of one who would hear the Living Message.

Monday night was very encouraging with a spirit-filled meeting attended by almost 80 people. The burden of the message was to Christians, touching upon the opposing forces of good and evil in the life of every individual, concluding by a warm evangelistic appeal.

This week is set apart for a revival among the church membership, with the slogan—every member a worker. For those under 16 years of age a hearty invitation is extended to attend the Junior church services every afternoon at 4:15 o'clock.

The Poetry of Dress

by Irene Castle
America's Best Dressed Woman

"My Love in her attire doth show her wit, It doth so well become her: For every season she hath dressings fit, For Winter, Spring, and Summer."

"So sang an English poet as far back as the 16th Century. And I think he must have been inspired to write the pretty verse in a lovely Springtime when, even as today, all the smart world was discarding its "winter garments of repentance"—its peltries and heavy woolen stuffs—to don the more alluring, more ethereal, wardrobe of the sunny vernal season.

"Can a Frock really be witty? Yes, indeed. But the designer that can instill the quality of wit into Dress must be himself witty and of an exploring mind—not contented with the merely pretty and the picturesque that are so much easier to achieve."

CORTICELLI FASHIONS

A lovely little straight-line Frock of Crepe Tremaine with discreet touches of richly metallized embroidery. "So very careful," says Irene Castle, "to tie the Cherish cravat very primly, very demurely, very sweetly—and in a word—just so!"
