DEMPSEY IS OUSTED BY BOXING COUNCIL

N. Y. Commission Places Heavyweight Champion on Ineligible List

NEW YORK, March 24.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight boxing champion, today was placed on the New York state athletic commission's ineligible list.

The boxing board further decreed no licensed club matchmaker, nor "any official connected with a licensed club in this state shall enter into a contract with or have any negotiations for a match with any boxer suspended or declared ineligible."

The action against Dempsey was taken because of the champion's failure to make a satisfactory reply to the commission's ultimatum of March 6, giving him 15 days in which to accept challenges for a title match submitted by Harry Wills, the negro heavyweight.

A recent letter addressed to the commission by Jack Kearns, manager for Dempsey, said Wills' challenge of three years ago had been accepted by the champion but that the commission had ultimately refused to sanction the bout, was deemed an insufficient reply. As Dempsey was not suspended, it was said, because he does not hold any license; hence the declaration of his ineligibility to box in this state was the only legal action the board could take against him. Before the commission met there were rumors it would declare the heavyweight title vacant, but such a step, it was learned, was not considered.

James A. Farley, chairman of the commission, voted with William Muldoon, another member, to discipline Dempsey in this manner. George F. Brower, the third commissioner, was not present.

Gilroy, Squeaky Harris and Jew Omand, all of which were terminated by the KO route. Others met were Shirley Dempsey, Billy Morrow, Joe Richmond, Soldier LaCombe, Ben Gilroy, Johnny Mack George Hutzler, Sailor Wilson and Johnny Hughes.

The inter-mountain championship was won at Butte by beating Buster Brandon. He also has fought an 8-round draw with Lundy, in Salt Lake and won two 20-round matches with Jimmy Carlson, in Wallace, Idaho, where he last fought, with Hughes.

In addition to the main event, Bill Hunt husky Salem fireman, will meet Chan Butler, of Portland in six 3-minute rounds. As a special event, Babe McCormick, of Oregon City, meets Billy Robbins, of Portland, while two fast preliminaries will be offered by Matchmaker Plant.

The fights start promptly at 8:30 o'clock and are under the sanction of the Salem boxing commission.

Harry Seclar, an electrician, last night defeated C. W. Brant, of the typographical union, by the narrow margin of three votes and was installed as president of the Central Trades and Labor Council. Clarence Townsend, a barber, was unanimously elected secretary. As Mr. Townsend was a member of the board of trustees it was necessary to elect a man to fill the vacancy. This was given to W. H. Chase, former business agent and a painter, who won out by a one point margin in a three corner race against Taylor and Burke. The election was necessary to fill the vacancies created by the resignation of George Beatty, president and J. E. Mock, secretary, P. H. Baker, streetcar man and vice-president, presided.

George P. M. Bowns, of the labor section of the San Francisco labor council, was a visitor at the council and gave a spirited address, in which he stressed the fact that union money should be spent for union goods. He was in Salem about a year ago. Praise for the general harmony evident at the meeting and the manner in which it was conducted was given by Mr. Bowns.

Third Meeting of Revival Work at Jason Lee Church Shows Interest

The third meeting of revival work at Jason Lee Methodist church last night showed that a keener interest was awakening on the part of the church membership. The turnout was well over a hundred, which is very encouraging. Rev. Atcheson took as his topic "The Sins of the Elder Brother," as taken from the scene of the prodigal son. The application of this condition in the lives of the Christian people was heart searching, if not to say uncomfortable. The burden upon the heart of the pastor as revealed through the parable was the privilege of a son of God and his responsibilities. How do we feel toward the brother who has gone down? How should we feel? How did the father feel?

The task before the active church membership this week is to repair its ranks in such a way as to meet every need during the two following weeks in presenting the gospel as a living force in life and a force which can save and sustain. Each worker must be a living example if the work is to be a success.

The Ladies' Aid was in charge with the help of the choir and orchestra. A hearty invitation is extended to all who can attend.

TWO MORE TRACK ARTISTS REPORT

Weight Man and Distance Runner at Willamette Turn Out Tuesday

Two more men reported for the Willamette university track squad yesterday afternoon. George Adams, star weight man of last years team and Robert Kutch, distance runner.

Adams had no experience last year but despite this handicap was able to defeat several veteran men in the discus throw and shot put. Adams will start the regular training grind early next week.

Kutch is a new man at Willamette although he has had two years of track experience at Salem High, where he earned his letter in the distance runs last year. Kutch put on a suit yesterday and will train through the week so as to be in good shape for the regular squad work to begin soon.

No definite schedule of meets has been given out although it is almost certain that Pacific university, traditional track rivals of Willamette, will be included.

The baseball squad went through a light work out under the direction of Buck Towner, veteran catcher.

MASTER CROOK TRIED
HARTFORD, Conn., March 24. The debonair Gerald Chapman today went on trial in superior court for the murder of Patrolman J. J. Skelly in New Britain last October 12. Eighty-six talesmen were examined but only five of them were chosen in the two court sessions aggregating five and a half hours. It was only after Chapman had nodded his head affirmatively that each of the five was accepted by his counsel.

National guard officers presented to President Coolidge their argument favoring federal expenditures for guard drill pay.

Townsend Named Secretary and Chase Trustee at Meeting Last Night

The financial report of the Associated Student Body and the High School Machine shop were considered at the meeting of the school board held last night.

The financial standings of student activities are as follows: Baseball $100.75; Basketball $148.63. This figure does not include the expense of the trip to Chicago but was taken at the end of the season here.

Football showed a small deficiency that must be covered from the extra basketball receipts.

Debate $ 68.25
Track 148.75

The general fund shows a balance of $1563.74, from this but $138.57 must be taken to meet deficiencies although the spring activities are expected to show further deficiencies.

The report of the high school machine shop, taken from February 1 to March 14, shows a profit of $25.71. The account is as follows:

Work done $32.50
Shop Supplies 6.79
Earnings 25.71

With 14 charter members, a Gyro club, one of the service organizations, has been organized in Salem and the first meeting will be held Saturday, April 4, with a banquet at the Marion hotel. A preliminary will be held at the hotel Thursday noon.

Officers elected are John H. Brady, of Oregon Electric, president; Ernest P. Thom, first vice-president; Daryl Procter, second vice-president; Charles Elrey, secretary; R. W. Niles, treasurer; Walter H. Zozel, sergeant-at-arms and C. Lester Newman, Clarence J. Gray and J. H. Adams, directors.

Membership in the Salem club is limited to 25 and all must be under 35 years of age. In this manner it differs from the three other service clubs in the city. Only one man in each line of business is admitted.

Including the Salem club, there are now 82 Gyro clubs in the United States and a total membership of 5090 is reported. The two other clubs in Oregon are in Portland and Astoria. It is an international organization with headquarters in Cleveland, Ohio. It was organized in 1916.

and not deeply concerned about it, he doesn't know how distressing his condition is. Sin puts a man in a bad fix. Like a man sinking in quick sand is the fellow who forgets Christ through his own sin. You can't save yourself any more than a man can pull himself out of quicksand. If you don't do that Jesus Christ tells you, you never can be saved," continued Mr. Poling.

"You are badly fooled if you think you don't need to be saved by the power of Christ. There never was a man so good that he would get to heaven without Jesus Christ, nor a man so low down but what Jesus Christ could and would save him."

He said Mr. Poling related a most touching incident in his past evangelistic work of a man who thought God never could forgive him. The man had thought himself a most impenitent and hopeless sinner. He evidently had diagnosed his case correctly, lent this man who in his past life had been a useless human wreck, found forgiveness through Jesus Christ and became a most valuable man in the church as a soul winner for Christ.

Despite the fact that Mr. Poling is comparatively a young man, his wide experience as an able preacher throughout America and as a chaplain overseas in the late war, furnishes him with many striking and gripping illustrations. His large audiences indicate that his sermons are full of live truth.

Tonight, the answer to "What must I do to be saved?" will be continued at the First Presbyterian church. The 3 o'clock afternoon service will be held at the First Evangelical church at Center and Liberty.

says that if the whole field averages with what he is now training he expects to have possibly a two-thirds crop.

Excitement began to brew in Brooks Thursday evening when Mrs. Fred Batchelor informed the neighbors that she had run into a burglar in the James Fruit house where she had gone to investigate a tip phoned from Mr. Fruit, who lives in Salem. A number of men went to investigate. The place had been ransacked, but no one was found until later when Ed Kennedy and Merle Fruit, who had arrived from Salem and made a thorough search of the premises. They found C. Reilly hiding in the barn, and also found a lot of the plunder taken from the Fruit home, with some other that was probably taken elsewhere. Later Reilly confessed to the robbery. Reilly was taken to the county jail. He is said to have been formerly confined in a California insane hospital and will be examined as to his sanity.

Fred and Hubert Moisan of Salem and Allie Moisan of Portland were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Moisan, on Sunday.

BUS REFERENDUM TITLES COMPLETE

Stage and Truck Associations Take Another Step in Fight on Act

Ballot title for a referendum on HB No. 413, known as the motor bus and truck bill, has been completed by the Oregon Motor Stage association, with headquarters in Portland, and the Auto Freight Transportation association of Oregon and Washington.

The bill, according to the referendum, has as its purpose the levy of taxes upon the use of motor vehicles in transporting persons and property for compensation upon the public highways of the state, and appropriating a portion to the payment of expenses heretofore or hereafter incurred for construction, maintenance, repair and reconstruction of highways; providing for the supervision, regulation and control of such motor vehicle transportation; conferring jurisdiction over the same upon the public service commission and providing for the enforcement and penalties for violations of the act.

Officers of the Oregon Motor stage association are A. Jaloff, president; J. M. Hutson, secretary; Max H. Clark, treasurer. Officers of the Auto Freight Transportation association of Oregon and Washington are George V. Bishop, president; Oscar W. Horne, secretary-treasurer.

in the district according to Dr. W. T. MacVey of Carbondale, in charge of relief work and distribution for the southern Illinois tornado victims.

In an address before the Carbondale Rotary club today, Dr. MacVey declared that there are 4000 homeless persons in the district who must be fed for weeks and hundreds of them will have to be sheltered and fed for months.

"The relaxation following the passing of the first crisis has brought about a second crisis," he declared. "The food and clothing supplies are not being sent in as they were in the beginning, apparently due to the fact that the people outside the stricken area believe that they are no longer required."

"Such is not the case. We will need both food and clothing or the money with which to buy them for many months to come."

Nelson T. Hartson, resigned solicitor of the internal revenue bureau, and A. W. Gregg of Texas was selected to succeed him.

BROOKS NEWS

BROOKS, March 23.—Rev. Mr. Simpson received word from Albany of the death of his brother-in-law, Robert Heron, of that city. He left for Albany Wednesday night.

Mrs. Mathews of Gervais and Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Pringle of Fairfield visited Mrs. John Dunlavy Wednesday evening.

Brooks has been the distributing point the past week for five carloads of chemical fertilizer. Nowhere does the value of this commodity return as quickly as with the intensive or truck farmer, and none know this better than our neighbors who brought the knowledge from a harder school beyond the Pacific.
