A LREADY THIRTY-EIGHT persons have signed up for the interesting course in extension art work under Prof. N. B. Zane of the University of Oregon which, through the efforts of Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, will introduce a splendid field of endeavor in Salem. The class opens a week from this evening.

The following are those who have registered for the work, for which college credit may be had if desired: Mrs. J. H. Hathaway, Miss Loretta Ford, Miss Sarah Lansing, Miss Maimi Victor, Dr. Mary Rowland, Miss Helen Moore, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. Chester Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo S. White, Mrs. S. B. Laughlin, Mrs. E. T. Givan, Miss Violet Hoover, Mrs. Charles Barker, Mrs. Frank Rusebraugh, Miss Helen Arpke, Miss Ruth Heineck, Miss Evangeline Heineck, Mr. George R. Moorhead, Mrs. Breyman Boise, Miss Vivian Hargrove, Mrs. John J. Rottle, Miss Madge Reid, Miss Bernice Mulvey, Miss Louise Pierson, Mrs. M. D. Collin, Mrs. U. S. Rider, Miss Florence Cartwright, Miss Mildred Herwig, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Delferna Kelo, Miss Myrtle Smith, Miss Winifred Gamble, Miss Winifred Paden, Miss Maxine Buren and Mrs. H. B. Trover.

Any others interested may leave their names with Mrs. Monroe Gilbert at the Gilbert studio, upstairs over Weller's store on North Commercial street.

Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn is a guest for a part of the week in Portland.

Miss Bernice Roberts was hostess on Tuesday night for an enjoyable meeting of the Grax club, which took the interesting form of a cobweb party. The feature diversion was the tracing of intricate strings that revealed, at the end, a cleverly written fortune applying to each guest. At the business meeting the group planned a newspaper letter to send to Miss Marian Wyman, former secretary of the Salem YWCA.

In the group on Tuesday evening were Miss Mary Erickson, Miss Myrtle Smith, Miss Ruth Stover, Miss Valleda Ohmart, Miss Bernice Mulvey, Miss Erma Meeks, Miss Imogene Gardner, Miss Erma Richards, Miss Lillian Rowe, Miss Loretta Varley, and the hostess, Miss Bernice Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus motored to San Francisco the first of the week to spend a short time.

The aid society of the Woman's Relief corps will meet for an all-day sewing today in their building at the fairgrounds. All GAR members are cordially invited.

Mrs. Allan Carson is a guest in Corvallis at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Attorney and Mrs. Arthur Clarke. A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarke on Monday.

The M. F. bridge club met this week with Mrs. Lou Grote for a springtime meeting. Mrs. D. A. Elkins, a special guest of the club, won the prize of the afternoon. Mrs. E. W. Peterson gained the consolation award. Those playing were: Mrs. D. A. Elkins, Mrs. E.

W. Peterson, Mrs. I. W. Follis, Mrs. Ira Darby, Mrs. Ed Pratt, Mrs. Al H. Steiner, Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. William Marshall and the hostess, Mrs. Albert Smith.

Mrs. W. H. Lytle has returned to her home after a recuperative fortnight at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland.

The Past Matrons' association will meet on Friday evening at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Ida Godfrey, 405 North Liberty street. The hostesses will be Josephine La Fore, Mrs. Smith and Marian Derby.

The Mother's class of the First Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. M. S. Oaks, 922 N. Sixteenth street, as hostess assisted by Mesdames Hlat, Barquist, Bennett and Murray. Mrs. Durkheimer will lead the devotional.

Miss Margaret Breitenstein, a student at the Oregon Agricultural college is spending the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Breitenstein.

The members of the Kensington club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. F. S. Amunson, 1110 North Capitol street.

Eugene society is welcoming Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McCammon who are moving to this city to make their home from Salem. Mrs. McCammon will be remembered as Esther Carson. She is a former university student and a member of the Oregon chapter of Gamma Phi Beta. Mr. McCammon is district manager of the Associated Oil company here—Eugene Guard.

The two great republics of the world, France and America, are being brought together through the medium of art, and of all the arts music is the most potent messenger. Germaine Schnitzer, the distinguished French pianist, who gives a recital here on March 30, has won her way into the hearts of the American people through her wonderful playing. Commenting on her first appearance in Philadelphia, the Evening Bulletin of that city said: "Billed as one of the really great artists of the day, Germaine Schnitzer demonstrated at the beginning that her recital, in many respects, would be epoch-making. The numbers were played in such a superlative manner it would be very difficult to select any particular one for special mention." Mme. Schnitzer's program here includes several of the numbers in which she has won great fame. The Schnitzer recital will be given at the Grand theater.

Miss Hulda Hagman and Miss Margaret Mades, students at Willamette university, are spending the spring vacation as the guests of friends in Corvallis.

The Woman's Evangelistic Prayer league will meet at 9 o'clock this morning at the home of Mrs. C. A. Clark, 638 N. Church street. Mrs. Rosell will be the leader.

The quarterly tea of the Women's society of the First Baptist church will be held at the home of Mrs. T. W. Davies, 941 N. Cottage street on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

There will be election of officers at this time. Mrs. Harry E. White will lead the devotions. A piano solo will be rendered by Mrs. C. V. Huber and Miss Naomi Phelps will favor the society with a group of songs. The pastor, Dr. E. H. Shanks, will also have a part in the program.

A social hour will follow, and Mrs. D. D. Sociolofsky, Mrs. Rose Gamble, Mrs. George King, Mrs. E. L. Buchanan and Mrs. James Smithers will assist in serving refreshments. All ladies of the congregation are cordially invited.

The Chinese room of the Gray Belle was the scene last evening of a charmingly appointed dinner party when Mrs. Frank Meredith entertained for the members of the Capitol bridge club and their husbands.

Members of press committees of women's clubs throughout Oregon and the entire nation are manifesting great interest in the $50 prize contest now being conducted under the auspices of the department of press and publicity of the General Federation of Women's clubs for the best advance news story on some club project, the prize to be awarded at the biennial council of the general federation to be held in West Baden, Indiana, in June.

The story must deal with some event which is about to occur in the state from which the contestant enters, it must not contain less than 300 and not more than 700 words. Proof of publication in the form of a clipping, with the name four of the vice chairmen of the department of press and publicity of the GFWC and Ida Clyde Clarke, president of the woman's news service, will act as final judge and announce the winner at the West Baden council.

This contest was inaugurated last year, the winner, who came from a small town in Michigan, being announced at the biennial convention in Los Angeles. So much interest was shown and the project was found to be so helpful in better journalism among club women, that it was decided to continue the contest. All stories entered in the contest must be mailed not later than May 1 to Miss Vella Winner, Oregon Journal, Portland, Oregon—Portland Journal.

One of the festive affairs of the week was the dancing party last evening at Derby hall when Mrs. R. L. White entertained for the 30 members of the senior ballet class and their invited guests.

LLOYD GEORGE IS GUARDED LONDON, March 25.—Although no longer in office, former Prime Minister Lloyd George is still attended by a detective, says the Evening Standard. More than once he has asked to be relieved of this supervision, but the government, mindful of what happened to Sir Henry Wilson immediately after police protection was withdrawn, has been unwilling to take the risk.

BRILLIANT OPERA WILL PLAY HERE

"The Chocolate Soldier," Famous Shaw Comedy, Opens at the Grand

The story of the Chocolate Soldier, which plays at the Grand Saturday night, is based on George Bernard Shaw's brilliant satirical comedy, "Arms and the Man," closely follows the incidents, situations and structure of the original story. The only changes made are for the lyrics. State and patent to the reader of the original. The scene of the opera is laid near Dragoman Pass, Bulgaria, 1885. Servia and Bulgaria are at war. The family of Colonel Popoff, of the Bulgarian army, consisting of the daughter Nadina, her cousin, Mascha, and mother Aurelia, are ensconced in their home, fearful of the approaching engagement of the conflicting armies. Nadina, a romantic Madiant, is in love with Alexius, a youth Bulgarian who has become a hero amongst his countrymen for his brilliant cavalry charge against the Servians. This young officer is idealized by Nadina, and she is filled with complete admiration for his conquests.

Luit, Bumeril, a young swiss officer, attached to the commissary department of the Servian forces, is attacked by the patrol whom he eludes by climbing into Nadina's boudoir. His suave manner, compelling arguments and quick wit under his difficulties forces Nadina to conceal him against her will, and he is saved by the three women who greatly admire his youthful mein and carriage. Later, Bumeril, who has engaged in a flirtation with Nadina to save his life, falls in love with her, and she almost against her will, yields her affections to the business like, scientific Swiss Soldier, who shows the half savage Bulgarians what training and education accomplish against their bombast and mock heroics.

The sentiment of the "Chocolate Soldier" is evolved by the love affairs of Bumeril and Nadina, Mascha and Alexius. The comedy situations are furnished by Colonel Popoff's house coat which is delivered to Bumeril in order to make his escape, it's return and the fact that the photographs of the three women are hidden in the coat, make unusually funny scenes when the participants are thrown together during the succeeding scenes and situations.

Folks accustomed to modern flats find it quite easy to dress in an upper berth.

Spaulding lumber makes better homes

Modern logging methods, modern machinery in our sawmills, the best raw material available, and the highest class of workmen in our planing mills are responsible for the uniformly high quality of Spaulding products.

We manufacture all kinds of interior finish, doors, flooring, cabinet work, and built-in fixtures for the home. We keep a large supply of these on hand for quick delivery.

DOCTORS SAY: DON'T NEGLECT COUGH OR COLD

Physicians warn against neglecting coughs and colds and tell of the serious lung complications that may result. Leading physicians now prescribe BAL-SA-ME-A for all bronchial affections. BAL-SA-ME-A is a pure vegetable preparation made from a newly discovered plant, Dr. J. C. F. Grabner, Anderson, Mo., writes: "I use it exclusively for my practice and my family. It is quick, sure and safe in all cases like nothing else."
