Junk Shops in Limerlight—Hereafter junk shop operators will have to make application to the city council for permission to operate their business, in addition to paying a fixed fee of $10 per year. Heretofore, the operators have had the privilege of getting their licenses twice each year from the city officials, instead of the city council. The city attorney, in looking over the city ordinance, discovered the manner in which the junk men were escaping action by the council.

Moved—The O. J. Hull Auto Top and Paint company are now located in alley back of the fire department, city hall. Now exclusive Salem authorized Duco refinishing station. m29

Dogs Causes Action—Complaint of citizens about dogs that have made themselves nuisances will be answered hereafter by a rigid enforcement of the dog ordinance, according to statements of Police Chief Minto and Mayor Giesy. The owner of the dog, which is causing the trouble, will be given the jail sentence, instead of the dog, as has been the case heretofore. The new ordinance gives the police the choice of two courses—to impound the animals or to arrest the owners. The latter case is more effective and is being followed out.
