THE SALEM BRANCH OF THE American Legion of Women are introducing an interesting plan of study among different local clubs. An organizing committee named to help with this work includes: Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, and Mrs. E. J. Huffman, with Mrs. Fisher as chairman. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. W. F. Fargo introduced the new text book among the High-land women who elected Mrs. C. M. Oglesby as their president, and Mrs. William McCarroll as secretary-treasurer.

Other groups, having taken up, or who plan to take up the class work are the Etokta club, the Salem Heights Community club, the Spanish American auxiliary, the WCTU, the Daughters of Isabella, and Fairmount avenue, and Summer street groups.

Miss Mabel Marcus, whose marriage to Mr. Earl Cooley, a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college, will be an event of the summer, was the inspiration for a charming miscellaneous shower on Wednesday at which Miss Lucille Moore was hostess. Daffodils were used in the springtime motif about the rooms.

In the group for the evening were: Miss Leah Ross, Miss Miriam Lovell, Miss Lois Nye, Miss Lola Millard, Miss Helen Marcus, Miss Ada Ross, Miss Florence Young, Miss Jennie Vandevort, Miss Mary Gilbert, Miss Helen Corey, Miss Margaret Stolz, the guest of honor, Miss Mabel Marcus, and the hostess Miss Lucille Moore.

The Senior King's Heralds of the First Methodist church will meet from 2 to 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee 1515 State street.

The meeting this afternoon of the Salem Women's club promises to be one of the most interesting of the year when Barry Cert, head of the English Literature department of Reed college will give the program.

The afternoon social committee will include Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mrs. H. H. Ollinger, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, Miss Margaret Cosper, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Leigh McIntire, Mrs. F. W. Durbin, and Mrs. John Caughill.

Mr. and Mrs. David Talmadge are being felicitated upon the birth of an eight-pound daughter on Friday, March 27.

Thirty girls were bidden to the lovely tea on Wednesday afternoon at which alumnae members of the Alpha Xi Delta sorority were hostesses from 4 to 5:30 o'clock at the Colonial Dame Tea

Shoppe. Golden spring flowers in tall art baskets were used about the rooms. A bowl of jonquils centered the tea table, where Mrs. V. Kenney poured, and Mrs. A. W. Stoin cut the ice. In the receiving line were Miss Datta Robbins, Miss Verna Keppinger, and Miss Myrtle Pelker.

Little Joan Newcomb, daughter of Beatrice Crawford Newcomb, daintily in white organdy, presided at the door.

Miss Rovena Eyre and Miss Vivian Elker will be guests today in Portland at a luncheon given by the Alpha Sigma chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority at the University club.

The Mid-week bridge club members were delightfully entertained on Wednesday as the guests of Mrs. Raymond McDevitt. The Easter motif was suggested about the rooms, where bridge in two tables were in play. Mrs. W. A. Shafer, Jr. won the high score of the evening, with the consolation award going to Mrs. Victor McKenzie. A special guest for the afternoon was Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Jr.

Playing at the tables were: Mrs. Eckerlin, Mrs. K. W. Heinlein, Mrs. V. Mackenzie, Mrs. Richard O'Leary, Mrs. Lester Schlosberg, Mrs. Al Krause, Mrs. W. A. Shafer Jr., and the hostess, Mrs. McDevitt.

Frank Patterson of the Oregon Agricultural college is spending his spring vacation with Salem friends and relatives.

The Sons of Veterans auxiliary had a splendid time at their meeting on Tuesday evening. A drill team is being organized to put on work at the convention to be held in Oregon City in June.

The Division president Norma Terwilliger, is directing the work. After the regular business meeting a program and social time was had. Norma Terwilliger gave one of her splendid readings. This one, "Aunt Tilda's Morning Call" produced much laughter, by "Aunt Tilda's Old Fashioned Talk. Agnes Cosenbery sang "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," which was much appreciated.

The male quartet of the "Sons" sang a couple of selections, after which a dainty lunch was served.

The friends of Mrs. James Sykes will be glad to know of a successful convalescence following a major operation performed on Thursday. Mrs. Sykes is under professional care at the Salem hospital.

A delightful hostess of the week was Mrs. F. S. Anupson, who entertained on Thursday for members, and a group of guests, of the Kensington club. A profusion of spring blossoms in yellow were used about the rooms. Special guests for an enjoyable afternoon included Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mrs. A. I. Eoff, Mrs. T. I. Harris, Mrs. Guy Rathbun, and Mrs. T. A. Mundt of Marinette, Wis.

At the tea hour Mrs. Anupson was assisted by her daughters, Jean and Ruth.

Mrs. George Thompson gave a charming tea at her pleasant home on North Fifth street Wednesday afternoon, honoring her mother, Mrs. M. J. Cross, it being the 90th anniversary of her birth. Numerous gifts were received by Mrs. Cross. One of rare value and highly appreciated by her was a huge basket of beautiful spring flowers, sent to her by the teachers and pupils of the Highland school, showing the high esteem in which she is held by her many friends.

Mrs. Cross made a very lovely picture in a gown of black silk with a lace cap. And to all appearances she will enjoy many more happy birthday anniversaries. Assisting Mrs. Thompson at tea were Miss Nora Ritchey of Salem and Mrs. W. I. Powers of Quincy. Guests calling on Mrs. Cross, honored guest, during the day, were: Mrs. Agnes Nairn, Mrs. C. E. Whitney, Mrs. Sam Owens, Mrs. W. I. Powers, Mrs. Howard, Miss Mabel Murray, Mrs. I. H. White, Miss LuVera Horn, Miss Nora Ritchie, Master Max Perkins, Miss Frances Berger, Miss Bartlett, and Mrs. G. W. Thompson.

The Ladies of the Grand Army will meet this afternoon at the home of Lorena Pratt, 300 South Fourteenth street.

All patriotic orders in the county are anticipating with considerable interest the first all-day Marion County Veterans' association of the year on next Thursday, April 2, in Woodburn. The program and the camp fire will be but two of the many features.

The association holds three meetings a year, the second one to come the first Thursday of August in Silverton, and the third in Salem, the first Thursday of December.

Miss Marie Churchill will be the guest over the week-end of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Churchill. Miss Churchill came down from Portland last evening.

Mrs. Lena Hansen, and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evason of Portland called yesterday on S. M. Olsen at the Old People's home.

Miss Lena Belle Tartar and Miss Gretchen Kraemer were among the Salem musical folk hearing Madame Maria Jeritz in Portland Thursday night at the Municipal auditorium.

Mrs. W. H. Byrd has been a visitor this week in Portland.

Mrs. Guy L. Rathbun has as her house guest her sister, Mrs. T. A. Mundt of Marinette, Wis. Mrs. Mundt plans to leave for her home early next week.

The Senior Standard Bearers of the First Methodist church will meet at 7:30 o'clock on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. F. A. Legge. Miss Grace Allen will have charge of the lesson hour. Cedric Chang will give a talk at the close of the evening.

Laura Grant Churchill presented a group of piano pupils in recital for the pleasure of the mothers at the tea hour on Thursday. Daffodils were attractive about the rooms of the Churchill home at 783 North Cottage street where each pupil played in a creditable manner without notes.

Appearing on the program were Williamette Blakesley, Doris Kemp, Lucy Klein, Max Blodgett, Frances Laws, Kenneth Klein, Irene Ritner, Robert Cannon and Dorothy Cannon.

Especially attractive musical numbers will be heard at the March meeting of the Salem Women's club this afternoon when Miss Helen Poling, daughter of Rev. D. V. Poling, will be the soloist. Miss Poling's accompaniments will be played by Miss Helen Caples of Portland, who spent the past summer in piano study in Fontainebleau, France, under Phillip, the master under whom Franklin B. Launer is studying. In a recent recital given by Miss Caples at the meeting of the Albany MacDowell club at the home of Mrs. E. A. Young, it was said that several numbers, all of which she played in recital at Fontainebleau had never been heard before west of New York city. Miss Poling, a gifted soloist, is associated with the school of music at Albany college.

A. L. Keeny enjoys the distinction of going through the budding development. Simultaneously, the Retail Merchants' association ceased to exist after an uninterrupted activity of more than a decade. The change, for such it is, is very largely in name. The chamber of commerce has taken up the burdens of the association with the same membership and were it not for the fact that the meeting marked the close of a year for the association, there

Pains

That are needless
Relieve at once

Rheumatic pains, lameness, soreness—pains you can end at once should be stopped. The means should always be on call.

The modern relief is Red Pepper Rub. It so exceeds the old ways that there is no comparison. It is saving eons of pain.

Nothing else creates such concentrated, such penetrating heat. And heat that doesn't hurt.

Apply Red Pepper Rub and the tingling heat is instantly apparent. In three minutes that heat seems to reach the depths. Then the pain and soreness disappear.

At first the results seem like magic. No other method ever brought them. Then you come to rely on them. You come to know that most pain is easily avoided.

But these troubles often appear at night. That means hours of suffering. A jar of Red Pepper Rub on your shelf would prevent them.

So many people suffer needless pains—pains that this method can end in three minutes. That is a pity. Get this Rub today and have it ready to end every such pain at once.
