

SENATORS MAY HOLD LIGHT WORKOUT AT OXFORD PARK TODAY

DEPENDS UPON FAIR WEATHER

Rain Will Call Off Practice; Old Line-Up to Be Seen Back in Uniform

Frisco Edwards, field manager of the Salem Senators has called for a workout on the Oxford field this afternoon, providing weather conditions permit. The practice is called for 2 o'clock.

The Salem team will have about the same lineup as last year and the new players that have been secured cause the team to be as formidable as it was during the past season.

Proctor, second baseman; Mike Miller, cracker-jack shortstop and running mate for Proctor, will be on hand. Bill Steers, Joe Barr, Chic Shackman, Ashby and Wayne Barham are some of the Senators for this year.

Barham and Ashby will comprise the pitching staff of the organization and from the reports that have been put out, the boys can do their stuff. It is expected that this trick, with Keene no first and Blanchard on third base, a mighty combination can be secured.

Midgets Defeat Mutes In Early Ball Game
In one of the first baseball games of the season the Salem Midgets defeated a team from the mute school by a score of 15 to 3. Home runs by Todd and Suing of the Midgets were features of the game.

Millet, Suing, H. Gross, Teske, Carmickel, Schaeffer, East, Todd, A. Cross, and Alley played on the Midget team.

If they were attempting to eliminate gambling I would have nothing to say, but gambling is going on in our best clubs. They play dominoes and cards for chips. I can't see why they should legislate against a slot machine that gives one something for his money."

DAWSON-LEWIS BOUT ARRANGED APRIL 10

Frankie Lewis

Contracts are being made out by Matchmaker Harry Plant for what promises to be one of the best fight cards held in Salem this season to be staged Friday night, April 10, at the armory following word from Charlie Dawson, of Eugene, Saturday that he was willing to meet Frankie Lewis of Salem, in a ten 3-minute main event. Lewis was one of the three fighters who stepped into the ring last Friday night to challenge the winner of the Dawson-Goggins fight. Dawson put his opponent on the canvass early in the fourth round.

Lewis has the reputation of being a clever and willing fighter and is known up and down the coast, having appeared in many fights in California and Oregon. He weighs 140 pounds but will be able to make 138 pounds with ease by the time of the fight with Dawson, who enters the ring at 138 pounds.

Dawson and Lewis met once before at Reedsport, the Indian lad proving a little too much for the Eugene scrapper, taking a decision in the match which went the full 10 rounds. Lewis also fought a no decision 10-round fight with Bill Gardeau.

Lewis is working out at the armory every night at 7:30 o'clock. He is not a stranger in the community and is anxious to meet his old friends. Any of the fight fans who so desire will receive a cordial welcome at the armory from Matchmaker Plant and Lewis. An open invitation is extended to all to come and "look 'em over."

SPRING ATHLETES WORKOUT MONDAY

Many Track and Baseball Men Are Returning to Willamette Campus

With the return to school of a number of men who were out of town last week, both the track and baseball squads of Willamette university will start work in earnest next Monday. The field is still in very poor shape as no work has been done on it since football season and the track is cut up by hauling so it cannot be used at all by the squad until they are near mid-season condition for fear of pulling ligaments or spraining an ankle.

Several veteran men have already reported for both squads, and several more will have reported by Monday afternoon. In baseball, Buck Towner, catcher, and Francis Ellis, pitcher, have been working hard all last week to be in condition for the first day of squad practice. This will insure a good battery at least. A number of other men have been working out, although it is still too early in the season to judge the caliber of their brand of ball.

The prospects in the middle-distance and distance runs are good in track as three experienced men, including one letterman, have reported. There are several other men who will report soon, including one veteran. The runners who have reported are Aubrey Fletcher, middle distance; Lee Crawford, distance, and Robert Kutch, middle distance. George Adams, veteran weight man of last year, has reported, although he will not start to train till Monday.

No schedule of meets or games

Salem people, but this has been declared void by the decision of Judge McMahan.

Visitors Are Entertained By Hal Hibbard Post Here

The Hal Hibbard camp of the Spanish War veterans met last night with visitors from Albany and Portland. The party of 25 from Albany were reinforced by the 20 people from Portland, which included the state general staff, which was on a tour of inspection.

Songs, speech making and a general good time was had by the veterans at their meeting. The local post has about a hundred members.

Already Hal Hibbard camp has visited the Hillsboro organization and are planning to visit the Albany and Eugene camps at some future time.

The local auxiliary assisted in serving the refreshments.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 28—Mrs. Hazel Heater, 27, who was attacked in her apartment here today by an unidentified man and beaten with a piece of gas pipe, died at 11 o'clock tonight. Jack Hall, 27, a logger who discovered the body and then disappeared was arrested early in the night when he returned to the apartment.

RADIO

By F. S. BARTON
KFWA is a new visitor on the air. A test program was given Friday evening from KFWA that came through in fine shape without interference, according to reports from Salem fans. The new station is operated by Browning Bros. Co. of Ogden, Utah, and will be on the air with a regular program within a few days.

EUGENE WINS TOURNEY HERE

Six Teams Are Entered in Inter-City Event; Will Hold Event Next Year

The intercity basketball tournament of the Comrade and Pioneer clubs of Salem, Eugene and Portland was brought to a successful close yesterday afternoon with Eugene winning the tournament. Both Eugene teams were victorious.

Six teams were entered in all, two from Salem, two from Eugene and two from Portland. Division of the players was made by weight with the lighter teams matched against each other.

This is the first tournament of the series and it is expected that a larger one will be held next year, due to the enthusiasm shown to the playing of this year.

In the preliminary games at the Salem high school gymnasium the Eugene Koala Comrades defeated the Jason Lee team by a 11 to 25 score.

In the second game of the series the Portland Comrades defeated the Salem Hi-Y by a score of 11 to 7. This was one of the closest games of the series. Up to the last minute of the playing the score was tied, but the added spurt of the Portland players and their exceptionally well placed long shots.

In the afternoon playing at the Willamette university gymnasium, the Portland Junior Comrades were defeated by the Eugene Comrade club by a score of 16 to 13. In a second game the Portland Senior Comrades were defeated by the Eugene Senior Comrades by a decisive score.

This left both Eugene teams victorious during the tournament. Their excellent playing was the sole cause.

The Eugene Comrade Junior team was formed by Brown, Wirth, Bessonette, Rubenstein and Horner.

The Senior Comrade team was formed by Elkins, Hiestand, Eberhart, Towne and Ogelsby.

Although this is a small tournament, great interest was shown in it and as a result efforts are to be made in securing the intercity tournament for the coming year. Bob Boardman, physical director of the Salem YMCA was referee and Charles Hageman scorekeeper.

More Than 5600 Names In New Telephone Book

Containing a total of 5600, the new Pacific Telephone and Telegraph book for the six months beginning April 1, was distributed Saturday. This is approximately 250 names more than the number listed in the book issued last October, according to W. H. Dancy, manager.

Of the total number, nearly all, or approximately 5300 are names of Salem subscribers. The remainder are divided between Woodburn and Hubbard, about 240 in the former list and 60 in the latter.
