CHICAGO, April 1.—Hamlets and large cities remained equally in the running in early eliminations in the second round play in the University of Chicago national interscholastic invitation basketball tourney here today. Pives from all parts of the country were numbered among the victors.

All of the 42 quintets in the tournament had gone into action tonight as ten teams which survived the first round of the meet yesterday prepared for the five contests which would conclude the second round tonight.

Sixteen teams will remain in the running. Salem, S. D., high school fell before Franklin high, Portland, Ore., 23 to 27, in the first bracket of consolation play in the national interscholastic invitation basketball tourney at the University of Chicago today.

It was a rough game with the Pacific coast quintet penalized by 12 personal fouls to six for Salem. Inability of the South Dakotans to make good on free throws cost them the game.

Likewise they were unable to curb the careening Scallon, star Franklin forward, who charged through to the goal time and again singlehanded, scoring nine goals, the highest of any man in the tournament thus far.

If any person has asked a question and we have not answered it please ask again, we aim to treat all the same.—World Crest.

DAWSON SIGNS FOR NEXT CARD

Match With Frankie Lewis Assured; Ringside Ticket Prices Reduced

Charlie Dawson, of Eugene, Wednesday night signed a contract to meet Frankie Lewis, of Salem, in the main event of a 10-round match at the armory April 10. Matchmaker Plant announced last night. Dawson stipulates that Lewis must weigh 138 pounds. As the Indian fighter weighs but 140 at present, he will be able to meet this requirement with ease.

Billy Gardeau, of Portland, who has not been fighting for several weeks on account of the recent death of his mother, has advised Matchmaker Plant that he will be on hand to challenge the winner of the Dawson-Lewis match.

In the semi-finals Kid McCormick, 105, of Oregon City, will meet Billy Robbins, 107, of Portland, in six three-minute rounds. Robbins won from Babe McCormick at the last smoker, but according to all reports "The Kid" is better than his brother and is anxious to retrieve family honors. Two snappy preliminaries will also be offered.

Tickets were placed on sale yesterday, a further reduction in first floor and ringside seats being made. The best seats in the house will cost but $1.65. Formerly the price was $2.20, but a few matches back Matchmaker Plant cut the price to $1.90.

Frankie Lewis is working out nightly at 7:30 o'clock, and has a big crowd of fight fans present to watch him do his stuff.

BEARCAT TRACK WORK IS ENDED

Athletic Council at Willamette Centers on Baseball This Season

Despite the fact that the number of veterans returning this year makes Willamette university's track prospects the best that they have been for a number of years, the athletic council voted last night to eliminate track as a spring sport for this season, giving as their reason that there is not sufficient money on hand to finance both track and baseball.

It is commonly understood that Leslie Sparks, track coach, already has a contract with the student body to coach the sport this year and will consequently receive his pay whether the sport is held or not. Another member of the council reports that Coach Sparks and one other member voted to eliminate the sport.

The action of the council will be reviewed by the executive committee of the university some time today and may be rescinded.

DEVIL NOT FOOL IF OTHERS ARE

(Continued from page 1) The old Book full of facts and statements that declare the reality of the devil. For this purpose was the Son of God manifested that He might destroy the works of the devil. Jesus never doubted the reality of sin and the devil.

Mr. Polling compared the strategy of the devil to that of a good orthodox book agent. They both gain their ends by stealth. Although the subject of Mr. Polling's sermon was the Devil, nevertheless the audience was given a new appreciation of the saving and keeping power of Jesus Christ.

"Home" will be Mr. Polling's subject tonight. He asks that people should come by families, for he will have some plain things to say for all. "What Men Get" is the subject for the sermon at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the First Evangelical church. The evening sermon will be delivered in the First Presbyterian church.

FEDERAL JUDGE CASE IS ENDED

(Continued from page 1) of tyrannical and oppressive conduct and irregular handling of the finances of the office of his appointee as referee in bankruptcy, C. B. Thomas, the chief charges against him, but in many instances sought to explain or justify his actions and in others pleaded ignorance.

In the alleged mishandling of funds of the referee's office, Judge English claimed lack of knowledge of conditions, including the recent interest from the Union Trust company of East St. Louis on bankruptcy deposits.

Paris English, one of the last defense witnesses today, told the committee he had kept the information from his father because he feared the judge would not sanction the arrangement.

The committee and attorneys for both sides refused to summon Thomas as a witness although there was an hour's discussion of the step just before final adjournment.

MOVIES PLANNED FOR SALEM YMCA

Movies are to be in order at the Salem YMCA building for members of the boys' department, according to plans released yesterday by Clarence Oliver, secretary. For the first program three thrilling reels of pictures have been arranged. They will be shown Friday night at 7:30 o'clock.

"The Luck of Roaring Camp," a Bret Harte story, is the first reel to be shown. It will be followed by a scenic from the Yellowstone national park, and the final reels will be a dog picture, which promises to have a kick.

Every boy member of the YMCA is to be on hand for the occasion and his opinion is wanted. If the pictures are not liked they will not be shown, but if they prove popular, efforts will be made to have them continued.

TWENTY CARLOADS OF POLES ARRIVE

Twenty carloads of poles to be used in the construction of the Newberg-Salem high power electric transmission lines, arrived in the city yesterday. The poles are to be distributed along the route chosen for the line. In addition several carloads of materials and poles will be delivered from the Newberg branch.

The poles are being hauled to where they are to be placed by trucks, and the process will take several days.

In the same train four carloads of wire and material to be strung upon the poles were brought in, and these, too will be distributed. It is expected the high power line will be finished within a few weeks and Salem will be served by another extension line.

Operations are being directed here by D. A. Wright of Salem, superintendent of distribution.

BYRD WINNER IN HEXATHLON

Score of 501 Points Made in Six Tests; Many Boys Compete for Weeks

The boy's hexathlon contests which have been running at the YMCA for several weeks came to a close with Anderson Byrd, aged 13, winner of the silver medal. He was credited with 501 points.

The contests have been conducted nationwide for boys between the ages of 12 and 17 years and included six tests for all around ability. These tests included short distance potato race, long distance potato race, running high jump, standing broadjump, the fence vault and the shot put.

Each test was designed to bring into play certain abilities that were not dominant in the other tests. Quickness of eye, alertness of the candidate, and the coordination between the muscles and the eye were brought into play.

To get a high score in the contest meant that the candidate must be an all around athlete and able to adapt himself to the varying changes and needs in the six tests.

Edwin Marr was runner up to Byrd with a total of 464 points. He will be awarded a bronze medal of the second class. Byrd was the only winner in the first group.

In the 110-pound class John Sills captured honors with 450 points and as a result won a bronze medal, which will be sent to him from New York city.

John Schaeffer with 465 points; Clyde Worden with 433; Charles Simpson, 418, and C. Miller with 401 were in the 125-pound class.

In the unlimited weights Dwight Adams and Don Bernard captured honors with scores of 418 and 416 points respectively. Twenty of the best records are to be sent to the New York National committee in competition with boys from other sections of the United States. From all indications Anderson Byrd is to compare favorably with national contenders.

Torrington Team Comes From City Salem's Size

The Torrington, Conn., high school quintet, who crashed their way to a victory over the Salem high school players, has quite a bit of interesting information back of them. Torrington is a manufacturing center of about 20,000 inhabitants, with several gold, silver and nickel plating establishments as the main industries.

The city is 35 miles north of New Haven, another large manufacturing center for clocks and watches. There are three newspapers, one of which is published in the Italian language.

The high school boys have probably been coached by some of Yale's stars, because Torrington is just a few miles from the college city.

The following officers were installed: YMCA—Ann Silver, president; Genevieve Thompson, vice president; Mildred Miles, secretary; Helen Baird, treasurer, and Hollis Velen, undergraduate representative.

YWCA—Ross Anderson, president; Herbert Jasper, vice president; Wayne Crow, secretary, and Charles Swan, treasurer.

GIBBONS-TUNEY SIGN FOR MATCH

De Forest, Matchmaker, Declares Fight Will be for Championship

NEW YORK, April 1.—Tommy Gibbons, veteran St. Paul boxer, and Gene Tunney, American light heavyweight champion, today were signed for a 15-round decision bout at the Polo grounds on the night of June 12. Since they will fight at catch weights Tunney's title will not be at stake.

Matchmaker Jimmy De Forest of the Polo Grounds Athletic club, who will promote the battle, said the match would be for the "world's heavyweight championship." Gibbons, he said, had made this stipulation in view of the New York State athletic commission's action in returning his $2500 forfeit for a meeting with Dempsey.

"Tom is the logical champion of the world because Jack Dempsey refused to meet him after he had challenged," said Eddie Kane, Gibbons' manager, who with Billy Gibson, Tunney's representative, signed the articles for the bout. "Tom will defend his title against all comers. Dempsey, we believe, has retired, or will retire."

Gibson asserted that Tunney had "just as much right to claim the heavyweight title as Gibbons," and that he contested Tom's claim. "If there is going to be a scramble for the heavyweight title we will fight Gibbons for it, and will defend it against anybody else, or fight Jack Dempsey to prove our claim," he said.

LOS ANGELES, April 1.—The coming bout between Tommy Gibbons and Gene Tunney for the heavyweight championship of the world was described here late today by Jack Dempsey as a laughing proposition.

As he prepared to enter the ring to do a few rounds of exhibition boxing and wrestling at a naval field day program, the champion scoffed at Gibbons' claim to the title, terming it advertising.

The New York commission also came in for a verbal jab.

The war department announced additional rivers and harbors allotments aggregating $30,000,000.
