Horse Is Victorious—A horse kicked Harold Nation square in the face Wednesday morning and as a result he was brought to a Salem hospital. The injury is not considered serious.

Death Reported—W. E. Tripp, assistant pressman in the Capital Journal, received news yesterday that his father, A. B. Tripp, had died at his Portland home following an attack of heart leakage and Bright's disease. Mr. Tripp had lived in Portland 25 years and 9 years in Eugene, where he was well known. He was an expert cabinet maker and carpenter.

Celebrate Anniversary—Fifteen years ago G. E. Terwilliger of New York came to Salem and opened up undertaking parlors in this city. Tuesday evening friends gathered at Cottage and Chemeketa for a surprise party in honor of the occasion.

Dr. Marshall, Osteopathic—Physician and surgeon.

Sailor Visits Here—H. J. Perkins, sailor on the USS Moody, is visiting in Salem and vicinity during his 15-day furlough. Perkins, a former student at the Grant school, was on the destroyer Nichols when she went on the rocks in September, 1923. He claims the honor of being the only Salem man to be in the convoy when it hit the breakers, due to some error in directions given by the leaders. The USS Moody is at Bremerton at present undergoing repairs for a four months' cruise to Australia. He is the son of Mrs. W. O. Powers of Quincy.

Cadets' Contest Ends—The Bees of the Salem cadets won the the Otters in a contest which closed yesterday by securing 13 more points than the defeated team. The contest, which covered a series of activities, made it possible for the victors to secure a possible 200 points. However, the Otters kept such a close pace to the Bees that it was only possible to secure a score of 137 points. The award was based upon attendance, athletic events and other club interests.

Hi-Y to Meet—Dr. Charles S. Poling will address the Salem Hi-Y club at their regular meeting at the YMCA building Friday night. Each week the club meets for a feed and to hear a talk or lecture from some speakers they have selected.

Announcement—Harrington Reversible Sharpner Co., factory, Tacoma, Wn., distributing office for Pacific coast, 381 State street, Salem, Oregon. Mrs. C. M. (Ted) Stewart, general agent.

Beall Takes Trip—Arthur Beall, student at OAC who is a resident of this city, was one of the score of students who made the annual inspection tour with the civil engineering class during the spring vacation. The party visited projects at Klamath Falls, the Savage Rapids dam at Grants Pass, the California-Oregon Power company's project in the Siskiyou mountains near Medford, and the headwaters of the Portland water supply in the Bull Run country.

Speeders Are Fined—Two men, C. E. Sisson of Salem, and Charles F. Hanson of Enunclaw, Wash., were fined $10 each in the justice court yesterday on a charge of speeding at 45 miles an hour. The arrests were made by State Officer O. O. Nichols.

Numbers Are Drawn—The drawing of numbers for the radio set and electric lamp was completed at the Salem Electric company yesterday. Number 683 won the radio set, and 1284 the electric lamp. Those retaining the proper numbers may receive the prizes on presentation of the slip.

Grand Jury Convened—The Marion county grand jury met yesterday for the regular session to dispose of a number of cases that have been pending. Only routine matters were considered for the first day, but it is expected the C. W. Thompson case will be reported late Thursday or Friday afternoon. Thompson, a former cashier of the state treasurer's office, is alleged to have appropriated several thousand dollars from the state, the operations covering a number of years.

Boys' Chorus to Meet—The Salem Boys' Chorus is to have an extra rehearsal tonight at the YMCA, in preparation for their formal appearance before Salem music lovers. The boys have been putting in several hours each week getting ready for this event, and the surprise they have in store is not a small one. Dr. H. C. Epler with the assistance of O. J. Hull and several others have been drilling the chorus and preparing them. Starting with the simple melodies the boys have been able to show results on more complicated pieces.

Hike Is Arranged—The boys of the YMCA who are over 12 years of age are to take a hike Saturday morning to some objective that will be selected before they leave the building at 9 o'clock. Each fellow is to bring his lunch for the hike which will be over before the sun goes down.

Seed to be Tested—Salem farmers will have an opportunity to test out the production of sugar beets in this section, according to the amount of seed received at the Salem Chamber of Commerce. Arrangements completed between the local organization and J. W. Simpson, manager of the Idaho-Utah Sugar Manufacturing company of Bellingham, Wash. A total of 75 pounds of seed is to be distributed; the beets matured, tested, and a full report made to the factory manager and the local organization.

Killer Causes Trouble—The problem of sheep killing dogs is causing trouble to County Clerk Boyer. Already 69 claims for sheep that have been killed by dogs has been filed. Arthur Forette, Marion county rancher, has sent a letter to Mr. Boyer stating that he had paid Joe Hendricks as reimbursement for a lamb killed by Forette's dog. He desired to know if the county was to add any reimbursement. County Clerk Boyer states that the law is specific of that point, and dog owners are liable for all damages that may accrue from assaults by dogs on sheep.

Lions Secure Speaker—Dr. Walter H. Brown, director of the Marion county child health demonstration, will address the Salem Lions club at its regular meeting Friday noon at the Marion hotel. He will discuss "Oregon's Most Valuable Crop."

Canners Get Pool—The entire Estacada loganberry crop went for 5 cents, according to word received here. Libby, McNeil & Libby are reported as having secured the crop of 100 tons, making the first important sale of the season. The Estacada growers were holding out for 6 cents, but the arguments of the cannery won them over. The buyers truck the berries to The Dalles, this making the second season for the Estacada contracts. Other blocks of logans have gone for 5 cents, but usually with other fruits. Growers are determined to get a 6-cent rate for their berries, but canners are offering but 5 cents. The reports of the winter freeze are stiffening the stand of the growers, according to reports.

Army Discharge Filed—Emil L. Grant has filed his army discharge with the county clerk. He returned to the United States after serving a year overseas with Company 14 of the 20th engineers.

Governor Returns—Governor Pierce returned to his office Wednesday after being absent from the city since last Friday. He has been spending the time in eastern Oregon, where he gave several law enforcement addresses.
