THE HOME OF MAYOR and Mrs. John B. Giesy was the scene on Tuesday of one of the loveliest dinner parties of the week when they entertained for their daughter Madalene on the occasion of her eighteenth birthday at a seven-thirty o'clock dinner. Since Miss Madalene had the distinction of being born on an Easter Sunday, the entire table scheme was appropriate to the Easter season, with pink and white predominating in all the appointments. Sprays of spirea centered the table, while pink candles were used in crystal holders. Little cupid place cards and dainty pink nut-baskets carried out the attractive color scheme. During the evening the group enjoyed music and dancing in rooms festive with pink and white streamers. Covers at the birthday dinner were placed for: Miss Madalene Giesy, the guest of honor, Miss Opal Budions, Miss Ivy Bowden, Miss Violet Bowden, Miss Vernice Barlow Kenneth Shellburg, Earnest Aegerief, William Ireland, Merrill Ash, Virgil Young, and the hosts, Mayor and Mrs. John B. Giesy.

Mrs. M. N. Chapman, Mrs. Kitty Graver, and Miss Oda Chapman are spending the first April days at the Fry cottage at Nesko-win.

On Sunday, "Palm Sunday"—St. Paul's church will celebrate the second year of occupying the new church. Two years ago the move was made from the old church to the new. It was hoped that the full payment of the indebtedness might also be celebrated at this time, but a small portion of the amount necessary still remains to be raised.

There will be a procession of palms and the church will be decorated with palms also.

A musical program will be given by the vested choir under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Emory Riddle. The soloists will be Mr. T. L. Williams and Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn. The musical program is as follows:

Processional—"All Glory Laud and Honor" by Tichner; Vinita by Robinson; Benediction by Brown; "Go to Dark Gethsemane" by Redhead; Anthem, "Behold Thy King Dreweth Nigh" by Parker; Amens by Stainer; Recessional, "Ride On, Ride On" by Dykes.

Mrs. D. H. Craven has returned from Eugene after several days visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Allison.

J. F. Macy of Pendleton, Oregon, arrived in town yesterday morning to be present for the celebration of the sixtieth wedding anniversary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Macy. Mr. Macy is the third of seven children born to the union, all of whom are living. The four sons and the three daughters will arrive for the reunion dinner tomorrow.

The first class in Professor N. B. Zane's University of Oregon art extension course was a successful event of Thursday evening at the public library where the group gathered from 7 to 9 o'clock spending the first hour, while the second hour was devoted to the lecture. Professor Zane emphasized the university of the design impulse in all peoples in every corner of the earth, explaining that the reason it wasn't now more apparent was because a thousand other interests have crushed it over. It is the purpose of the course to break this crust and educate those interested along lines really fine.

Names added to the earlier group of those signing for the course include: Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. William Walton, Alpha Rose-enquest, Ruth Roblin, Edith May eJunks, Myrtle Dobson, Marie Briggs, Hermine Klaus and W. S. Elgin. In addition to these the class includes: Mrs. J. H. Hathaway, Miss Loretta Ford, Miss Sarah Lansing, Miss Maimi Victor, Dr. Mary Rowland, Miss Helen Moore, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. Chester Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo S. White, Mrs. C. B. Laughlin, Mrs. E. T. Givan, Miss Violet Hoover, Mrs. Charles Barker, Mrs. Frank Rosenbraugh, Miss Helen Arpke, Miss Ruth Helms, Miss Evangeline Heingck, George R. Rider, Miss Florence Cartwright, Miss Mildred Herwig, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Delferna Kelso, Miss Myrtle Smith, Miss Winifred Gamble, Miss Winifred Paden, Miss Maxine Buren and Mrs. H. B. Trover.

For the first lesson Professor Zane illustrated his talk with a large variety of interesting slides.

The cooked food sale announced for today by the St. Vincent du Altar society has been postponed for some weeks.

The girls of the Sacajawea Camp Fire group enjoyed a hike to Painters' Woods on Wednesday evening. Camp fire songs and recitations added pleasure to the day. Interesting bird lore was learned through the use of the field glasses. Weiners and marshmallows were enjoyed around the camp fire. Those in the group for the first day of April evening were: Mrs. R. M. T. Hester, the guardian, Edith Clements, Margy Lenz, Thelma Davis, Frances Laws, and Doris Godsey.

The Jason Lee King's Heralds will meet in the parlors of the Jason Lee church at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The first April meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club took the form of a pot-luck dinner, business meeting and program at the Chamber of Commerce.

A group of Salem matrons had an enjoyable time on Wednesday when they had an old-time straw ride to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Calder in Polk county. The guests were met at the bridge by Mr. Calder in a wagon made comfortable for the five-mile ride.

The quest of honor on this occasion was Mrs. John Marr, whose birthday was celebrated by the group. Mrs. Marr received numerous lovely gifts, among them being two gaily decorated cakes, one alight with candles and one inscribed with Mrs. Marr's name and birthplace—Aberdeen, Scotland.

The Scotch members of the group enjoyed square dances to the bagpipes played by John Charge. Later Mr. Calder and Mr. Charge, dressed in white aprons and hats, served refreshments to the guests.

Birch, John Charge, Bill Blachly, George Meier, Myrtle Meier and Mr. and Mrs. Calder.

The Easter pageant, "The Dawning," which will be given at the First Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening is being anticipated with much interest, and a large crowd will doubtless be in attendance. So favored has this pageant become that its presentation in the east has become almost traditional. An ably trained cast of 24 persons, directed by Miss Mary Findley, will be assisted by the choir. The public will be cordially welcome.

Salem Parent-Teacher groups are interested primarily today in the Marion county convention in Silverton which will open in the Eugene Field auditorium at 10 o'clock. While only circles having paid-up standing with state and national associations are entitled to vote, every one interested in community welfare is welcome. Music by the Silverton high school orchestra will open the morning session, with business, reports of delegates and election of officers following.

Luncheon will be served at noon in the lunch room of the auditorium, each visiting organization to furnish something. Silverton circles will furnish the hot dishes; Salem Heights and Highland associations, salads, and all others cake and sandwiches, especially sandwiches.

Round table talks on subjects of interest will be conducted during this time.

A series of drills, folk dances, etc., by Silverton pupils will open the afternoon session.

Dr. Frank Brown, of the Marion county health bureau, and J. L. Brady will deliver the main addresses. Vocal solos will be given by Mrs. S. E. Richardson, and the Silverton orchestra will furnish additional numbers.

The Dailies, Or., April 3.—The Misses Elizabeth and Anne M. Lang, the latter vice president general of the National Daughters of the American Revolution, both residents of this city, were named chief beneficiaries in the will of the late Malcolm A. Moody, representative in congress from eastern Oregon, who died March 19 in a Portland hospital. The will has been admitted to probate with the Misses Lang named joint executrices. Zenas A. and William H. Moody of Washington, D. C., and Ashland, Or., respectively, will receive $2500, as will Lucy W. Stoughton, address not stated.

William H. Moody, also named a beneficiary to the extent of $2,500, died after the will was drawn in 1917, although the will was never altered. All of the remainder of the estate goes to the Misses Lang, share and share alike. They are relieved from paying of other bequests, as executrices, if, in their belief, the payments would result in a sacrifice to the estate. The will does not mention the value of the estate, which is variously estimated from $50,000 to $100,000.

The young women of the Loyal Daughters' class of the First Christian church have organized a week-day luncheon club. It is for business girls between the ages of 18 and 28. They meet Thursdays at noon. The purpose is better acquaintanceship, social enjoyment and for furthering their service as employees. The membership will not be limited to members of the class but will be directed by a committee from the class, with Miss Vivian G. Whisler, church assistant, as chairman and supervisor. The membership is now 14, but will be enlarged as the plans are more fully developed. The club has chosen as its name the "Ecclesia Luncheon club."
