Twenty members of Rhododendron chapter of the Eastern Star of Falls City were guests last night of Chadwick chapter for the first April stated communication. A group of one hundred and fifty was present for the evening, from within and without the vicinity, the Falls City group coming particularly to witness the ceremonies of an order of which they have recently become a unit.

The most impressive hour of the evening was that given to the memorial service honoring Miriam Burnett and S. Z. Culver. Although the passing of Mrs. Burnett occurred nearly a year ago, the memorial service was held on Tuesday evening, the day following Mrs. Burnett's birthday. It was on her birthday that Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star was first organized, and it was and Easter favors, carried out a seasonal scheme. The social committee of the evening was headed by Mrs. Jennie Utley with her assistants including: Jennie Crawford, Emma McCarter, Virginia Maruny, Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. Peeteys, and Mr. Marusy.

The next meeting of the chapter on the occasion of the anniversary dinner, will be one of the most interesting of the year. Mrs. Alice Coolidge and Mrs. Josephine Vass will be in charge.

The Town and Gown club, formerly Lausanne Hall Guild, will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Lausanne Hall.

The new committees for the year of Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood have been named as follows:

Program committee—Mrs. E. J. Huffman, chairman; Mrs. W. M. Smith and Mrs. A. C. Parr.

Social committee—Mrs. E. K. Logan, chairman; Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz and Mrs. William Hughes.

Philanthropic committee—Mrs. C. B. McCullough and Mrs. O. E. Price.

Flower committee—Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr. and Mrs. F. W. Seale.

Visiting committee—Each member. Journalist, Mrs. G. W. Laffar. Pianist, Mrs. W. W. Moore.

In order that the new programs may be out by convention time—May 26-28—it will be necessary for Mrs. Huffman's committee to start in work immediately. The other committees will assume responsibilities in September, at the beginning of the new calendar year.

The Kensington club will meet today with Mrs. I. M. Doughton, 1465 State street.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Miles are entertaining at their house guest Mr. George C. Turner, superintendent of the Boys' Aid in San Francisco, who will spend the Easter season in Salem. Over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Miles and Mr. Turner were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Knight in Portland, adding to the pleasure of the time with a scenic trip up the Columbia River highway. Mr. Turner was a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Miles in Eldora, Iowa, when Mr. Miles was superintendent of the institution there, and Mr. Turner was engaged in a field of work similar to that to which he is devoting his time in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark H. Savage are in Lewiston, Idaho, to spend a fortnight with a brother of Mr. Savage, Bert F. Savage.

Members of the Thursday club will not meet today on account of Holy week. Hostesses at the meeting next week will be Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. H. B. Thielsen and Mrs. Russell Catlin, members meeting at the E. C. Cross home.

The home of Mrs. Claudius Thayer was the scene on Tuesday evening of an interesting meeting of the Writers' club with Mrs. Eleanor T. MacMillan, president of the Northwest Poetry society, as a special guest. Miss Genevieve Junk received the guests at the door.

The program opened with a humorous prose article, "Observations," by Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith. Two poems, a sonnet, "Ally's Fires," and a five-stanza lyric, "Such a Very Little Thing," were given by Mrs. John M. Clifford. Miss Marie Roberts read a short story, "An Ancestor in Default." Mrs. Blanche M. Jones contributed both prose and verse, in the form of an essay and a poem, "Then I Will Be Content."

Prof. Morton E. Peck read a poem, "I Saw an Aged Woman On the Shore," and Gertrude Robinson Ross a poem, "To Thank God for Sorrow." Mrs. F. S. Barton read "The Call," a human document of monologue form. An original poem by Miss Renska Swart was given under the title, "Tuning in With the Infinite."

Mrs. W. F. Fargo read "I Swept My House of Life"; Mrs. Charles J. Lisle, "God's Garden" and "Through Life Besides"; and Mrs. Elizabeth Sherwood, "You Have Not Seen the West." Charles J. Lisle read "Tres in My Garden of Dreams," while the honor guest delighted the group with two poems, "Hypocrisy" and "Motherhood."

During the social hour Robert Paulus exhibited a group of autochromes. An interesting additional contribution was the reading of a letter from the illustrator of Anne Shannon Monroe's new book, by Miss Maude Covington. The club was delighted with the news of a brochure on Stevenson which Mrs. F. G. Franklin will soon have published. Attention was also called to a progressive new Salem publication, "Our Baby and Mother Magazine."

The vintage of 18 joyous dances gone by will sparkle again at the annual Junior Guild dance announced after many weeks of eager waiting for Friday, April 24. Through all the years the Junior Guild of St. Paul's church has sponsored these outstanding social affairs it has been the custom of the committee to choose the harvest season for the annual dance festival. This year the post-Lenten weeks have been chosen.

Those who remember the first dance of the guild will smile with happy reminiscences at Steude Meyer's orchestra, with Billy Skinner and Lily Stege playing, and the governor meeting with the group for the unforgettable jollification. For eight years the Marion hotel was the scene of these gatherings that included all Salem in the invitational list. For the next decade the Marion hotel, unable to accommodate the throngs that came, gave way to the Armory, but the new dance palace, the Crystal Gardens, will be the scene of the gathering. This season, as in the seasons before, from the time the group centered about a little nucleus of the hopmen, a large out-of-town patronage from Portland, Woodburn and Albany, and other towns of the vicinity will motor in for the evening.

Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, after seasons of successful experience, will again take charge of the dance festival. Her assistants will this year include Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. J. R. Luper and Mrs. Clifford Farmer. Mrs. William Walton will have charge of the ticket sale. The president of this active organization of 30 of St. Paul's church women is Mrs. E. H. Kennedy.

The University of Oregon art extension class will meet at 7 o'clock this evening in the public library, the practical hour coming from 7 to 8 o'clock, and the lecture hour from 8 to 9. "The Origin of the Design Impulse" will be Professor Zane's lecture topic. The work from the first meeting of the class will be criticized at this time. It is very important that those who have not paid their tuition feed, do so to Mrs. Monroe Gilbert at once.

The Women's Evangelical prayer league will meet at 9 o'clock this morning with Mrs. C. A. Clark, 638 North Church street. Mrs. George Seiser will be the leader.

Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger will be hostess this afternoon for the meeting of the Rapherian club.

The ONS club of Salem met at the Bates' home, 930 North Summer street, Tuesday night for an enjoyable gathering. Those present were Cathryn Bates, Laura Eaton, Anne Tow, Marjory Brown, Naomi Swink, Lily Pollard, Greta Ann Brumage, Myrtle Mortenson, Agnes Booth, Gladys Paul, Signe Paulson, Dorothy Taylor, Ann Johnson, Elsa Egans, Lois Reed, Ruth Purdy, Lillian Schroeder and Mildred Severson.

All those present were enrolled in two contests. Chairman of the entertainment committee was Ann Johnson. The frolic culminated in a waffle supper.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCall entertained at their dinner guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herriott and children, Delbert and Marjorie.

The interior decoration section of the Salem Arts league will meet at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening at the Gilbert studio after which the members will go to the home of Miss Sarah Lansing for a study of Georgian period and Colonial furniture.

On Saturday evening, April 4, Mrs. H. A. Keene entertained in honor of her husband's birthday at their home on State street.

The rooms were attractive with spring flowers and potted plants. At 12 o'clock a bounteous supper was served by the hostess. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. A.

Blivins, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Herren, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stegmund, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Keene, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. James Herren, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd G. Keene, Miss Elva Estes, Miss La Velle Keene, and the honor guest and hostess.

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Keene at Shaw was the scene of a very jolly 7:30 o'clock dinner party Monday evening, April 6. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gilbert, Howard Gilbert and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Keene.

One of the most attractive affairs of Easter morning will be the Alpha Chi Omega breakfast at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe. Miss Malmi Victor and Miss Grace Holt will be the hostesses of the occasion.

Mrs. John W. Orr entertained the Wednesday Bridge club of Dallas at her home Wednesday with Mrs. H. H. Belt, Mrs. Charles Rump, Mrs. H. W. Chadwick, Mrs. J. R. Allgood and Mrs. John S. Wellney as special guests.

The club members are Mrs. Chalmers Kirkpatrick, Mrs. R. L. Chapman, Mrs. C. E. Staats, Mrs. Tracy Staats, Mrs. W. L. Osbelen, Mrs. Harry Woods, Mrs. U. S. Laughary, Mrs. R. Craven and Mrs. L. D. Brown of Dallas; Mrs. A. B. Robinson, Independence; Mrs. William Fohsion and Mrs. Ott of Salem.

Mrs. Richard Slater will be hostess at her home, 241 North High street, this evening, for Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae.

Mrs. W. A. Cummings invited the members of the Past Noble Grands club to her home Thursday evening and after a short business session the ladies chatted and played games until the arrival of their husbands, who had been hidden to the refreshments. Mrs. Ella Lenox and Mrs. Gertrude Hatfield assisted the hostess in serving the dainty luncheon at tables attractive with yellow daffodils.—Roseburg News-Review.

A vocal concert of more than ordinary interest will be heard on Tuesday evening at the First Christian church when Miss Naomi Phelps, soprano, assisted by Mrs. Carrie Chase, reader, and Mrs. Guy Pritch Phelps, pianist, will sing. A program of unusual attractiveness has been arranged for the evening. Miss Phelps has had excellent training in both New York and in Washington, D. C., and many in Salem have already had the opportunity of hearing her at the theaters during the song campaign for the benefit of the blind.

An enjoyable program was given at the April meeting of the Brush College grange, the opening number being a piano duet by Delbert and Marjorie Herriott. A piano solo was given by Miss Margaret Steiner, followed with a reading by Miss Virginia Page. Mrs. Frank Crawford gave a piano solo, and Miss Virginia Page and Miss Margaret Steiner a pleasing skit. An unusually helpful talk was given by Mrs. C. C. Page, a graduate nurse, on "Danger Signals for Children." Irene Olsen closed the program with "Arbor Day March," a piano solo.

The members met for a 6:30 o'clock dinner for which partners were secured in a clever manner by numbers. Mrs. J. H. Wright was at the head of the social committee.

Thirty-five women of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. O. Goltra, 725 Court street, for a pre-Easter meeting. Mrs. M. C. Halverson gave the Easter lesson while Mrs. R. L. Farmer completed the presentation of the material in the study book on China. At the next meeting South America will be studied. A business meeting occupied a portion of the afternoon. The hymns chosen were appropriate to Easter week.

Seaplanes to be Used to Patrol Salmon Grounds

SEATTLE, April 8.—Two large Douglas seaplanes, similar to those flown by the United States army last year in flying around the world, will be used in the summer to patrol salmon grounds in Bristol bay and provide air mail to towns in southeastern Alaska, Frank Wright, president of the Carlisle Packing company, announced here today on learning from Delegate Len Sutherland of Alaska that plans had been approved.

Paulhamus Condition is Declared Grave; Hope Held

TACOMA, Wash., April 8.—The condition of W. H. Paulhamus is "very grave," but death is not a matter of hours, declared his physician, Dr. W. B. Mitchell of Sumner, tonight in denying reports published in Seattle which quoted Dr. Mitchell as saying that Mr. Paulhamus would not live through the night.

Dempsey Injures Hand in Screen Fight; Hits Door

LOS ANGELES, April 8.—Jack Dempsey was hurt in a fight here today. It was at a motion picture studio and the script called for the heavyweight actor to "swing" at one of the villains of the piece. Just as he swung, a door on the set flew open and took the blow with wooden indifference, badly bruising the champion's fist.

Benefit Concert Planned For Associated Charities

A benefit concert is to be staged at the Armory April 18 to secure funds for the Associated Charities of the city, which are badly in need of funds.

The cadet band of the Oregon Agricultural college has been secured for the occasion, and the entire net proceeds will be turned over to the local organization.

Following the concert, the balance of the evening will be devoted to dancing, with a picked orchestra from the cadet band.

A partial reorganization of the agriculture department's personnel was announced.

Are You Planning to Borrow?

There are two main points to consider when borrowing money. First, are repayment privileges so arranged as to be suited to your requirements? Secondly, is the interest cost the lowest that can be obtained?

Here at Hawkins & Roberts, you can secure a mortgage loan which can be paid back in predetermined amounts over a period of 142 or 200 months. Moreover, the cost for the use of the money borrowed is remarkably low.

Whether borrowing or investing, come to financial headquarters.
