

Weather OREGON
Cloudy with moderate temperature followed by rains by night near the coast; moderate variable winds. Max. 65; Min. 47; River 3.2 rising; Rainfall .19; Atmosphere part cloudy; Wind South.

The Oregon Statesman

Part One—Pages 1 to 8
Twenty-Two Pages

SEVENTY-FIFTH YEAR

SALEM, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1925

PRICE FIVE CENTS

THOMPSON IS SENTENCED TO 3 YEAR TERM

Former Teller in State Treasurer's Office Pleads Guilty to Charge of Diverting Funds

PAROLE IS REVOKED BY JUDGE; TERM STARTED

Arsenic Found, Leads to Uncovering of Train of Circumstances

Clarence W. Thompson, former teller in the state treasurer's office, glimpsed his last view of the business and residence section of Salem about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon as he was taken to the state penitentiary to begin serving the nine year sentence imposed upon him at 10 o'clock Saturday morning by Judge Percy R. Kelly for larceny of approximately $4,000 of state funds. He was dressed in and given No. 9232.

OLDER GIRLS GATHER HERE

Thirteenth Annual Conference Will Be Held April 17 to 19 Inclusive

FRENCH OFFICE IS STILL OPEN

Successor to Herriot Not Selected; Result of Crisis in Doubt

RETIRE PASTOR CALLED BY DEATH

Funeral Services for Rev. Richard Hocking Will Be Held Monday

DR. DONEY WILL RETURN MAY 9TH

President of Willamette University Regains Health in Last Year

MECOY NOW IN PRISON

Biggest Thing for Sale

HOOPER FORSEES INDUSTRY CHANGE

Nomination of Von Hindenburg Said to Presage Revival of Interest

WAR PREVENTION MEANS DISCUSSED

W. A. Uren Proposes Amendment to Constitution to Ban Western Wars

OLD NEWSPAPERS DISPLAYED; REBEL SENTIMENT SHOWN

Paper Published During Civil War Gives Keen Insight of Spirit of Times

SILVERTON, Ore., April 11.—(Special)—Three newspapers one date on Saturday, January 4, 1860, a second one dated August 9, 1862, and a third one July 2, 1863, are on display at the Coolidge and McClintock bank at Silvertown. The oldest of the three is a reproduced copy, the other two are the originals. All three papers are in a remarkably well preserved condition.

INSURANCE COLLECTED OVER TWO THOUSAND

Prisoner Near Collapse as Circuit Judge Kelly Pronounces Sentence

CHICAGO, April 11.—Mrs. Anna Cunningham, 49, of Gary, Ind., fainted tonight when questioned concerning the five deaths in her family during the last six years, and the condition of her son, David, who is in a critical condition in a Chicago hospital from poisoning.

SHEPHERD HAS NEW ACCUSER; STATE PROBE

Old Friend of Alleged Poisoner of Millionaire Ward, Appears Before Court in Deposition

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

GERM DISEASES AND POISONS DISCUSSED

New Interest is Injected in Case by Testimony of Architect

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

OREGON GETS WAR TROPHIES

First Steps Taken Looking Forward to 40 Tons of Captured German Stores

First steps toward securing Oregon's share of captured German cannon and other war trophies, recently allotted to the states by congress, was taken Saturday by Governor Pierce in designating Brigadier General Geo. A. White as representative of the state for this purpose.

HOOPER FORSEES INDUSTRY CHANGE

New Relationship Between Workers and Manufacturers Seen by Speaker

NEW YORK, April 11.—A definitely new relationship in the whole setting of industry is in prospect, Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce told the national industrial round table conference here today.

BIGGEST THING FOR SALE

Salem is going to put over the proposition for a second linen mill for this city—And that will be the biggest thing ever done for Salem—And the quicker the bigger.

BOURGEOISE PARTY ATTEMPTING COUP

Nomination of Von Hindenburg Said to Presage Revival of Interest

WAR PREVENTION MEANS DISCUSSED

W. A. Uren Proposes Amendment to Constitution to Ban Western Wars

PORTLAND, Or., April 11.—Oregon electors may take the first step toward amending the federal constitution so that the United States can prevent future war in the western hemisphere, it became known here today. The proposed amendment was drafted by W. A. Uren, of Portland, and in the opinion of Mr. Uren and those with whom he has consulted, the amendment would be an effective bar against war.

INVESTIGATION OF DEATHS TO BE AUTHORIZED

Woman is Held by Officials, Suspected of Poisoning Five Members of Family; One Now Ill

INSURANCE COLLECTED OVER TWO THOUSAND

Prisoner Near Collapse as Circuit Judge Kelly Pronounces Sentence

CHICAGO, April 11.—Mrs. Anna Cunningham, 49, of Gary, Ind., fainted tonight when questioned concerning the five deaths in her family during the last six years, and the condition of her son, David, who is in a critical condition in a Chicago hospital from poisoning.

SHEPHERD HAS NEW ACCUSER; STATE PROBE

Old Friend of Alleged Poisoner of Millionaire Ward, Appears Before Court in Deposition

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

GERM DISEASES AND POISONS DISCUSSED

New Interest is Injected in Case by Testimony of Architect

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

OREGON GETS WAR TROPHIES

First Steps Taken Looking Forward to 40 Tons of Captured German Stores

First steps toward securing Oregon's share of captured German cannon and other war trophies, recently allotted to the states by congress, was taken Saturday by Governor Pierce in designating Brigadier General Geo. A. White as representative of the state for this purpose.

HOOPER FORSEES INDUSTRY CHANGE

New Relationship Between Workers and Manufacturers Seen by Speaker

NEW YORK, April 11.—A definitely new relationship in the whole setting of industry is in prospect, Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce told the national industrial round table conference here today.

BIGGEST THING FOR SALE

Salem is going to put over the proposition for a second linen mill for this city—And that will be the biggest thing ever done for Salem—And the quicker the bigger.

BOURGEOISE PARTY ATTEMPTING COUP

Nomination of Von Hindenburg Said to Presage Revival of Interest

WAR PREVENTION MEANS DISCUSSED

W. A. Uren Proposes Amendment to Constitution to Ban Western Wars

PORTLAND, Or., April 11.—Oregon electors may take the first step toward amending the federal constitution so that the United States can prevent future war in the western hemisphere, it became known here today. The proposed amendment was drafted by W. A. Uren, of Portland, and in the opinion of Mr. Uren and those with whom he has consulted, the amendment would be an effective bar against war.

INVESTIGATION OF DEATHS TO BE AUTHORIZED

Woman is Held by Officials, Suspected of Poisoning Five Members of Family; One Now Ill

INSURANCE COLLECTED OVER TWO THOUSAND

Prisoner Near Collapse as Circuit Judge Kelly Pronounces Sentence

CHICAGO, April 11.—Mrs. Anna Cunningham, 49, of Gary, Ind., fainted tonight when questioned concerning the five deaths in her family during the last six years, and the condition of her son, David, who is in a critical condition in a Chicago hospital from poisoning.

SHEPHERD HAS NEW ACCUSER; STATE PROBE

Old Friend of Alleged Poisoner of Millionaire Ward, Appears Before Court in Deposition

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

GERM DISEASES AND POISONS DISCUSSED

New Interest is Injected in Case by Testimony of Architect

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

OREGON GETS WAR TROPHIES

First Steps Taken Looking Forward to 40 Tons of Captured German Stores

First steps toward securing Oregon's share of captured German cannon and other war trophies, recently allotted to the states by congress, was taken Saturday by Governor Pierce in designating Brigadier General Geo. A. White as representative of the state for this purpose.

HOOPER FORSEES INDUSTRY CHANGE

New Relationship Between Workers and Manufacturers Seen by Speaker

NEW YORK, April 11.—A definitely new relationship in the whole setting of industry is in prospect, Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce told the national industrial round table conference here today.

BIGGEST THING FOR SALE

Salem is going to put over the proposition for a second linen mill for this city—And that will be the biggest thing ever done for Salem—And the quicker the bigger.

BOURGEOISE PARTY ATTEMPTING COUP

Nomination of Von Hindenburg Said to Presage Revival of Interest

WAR PREVENTION MEANS DISCUSSED

W. A. Uren Proposes Amendment to Constitution to Ban Western Wars

PORTLAND, Or., April 11.—Oregon electors may take the first step toward amending the federal constitution so that the United States can prevent future war in the western hemisphere, it became known here today. The proposed amendment was drafted by W. A. Uren, of Portland, and in the opinion of Mr. Uren and those with whom he has consulted, the amendment would be an effective bar against war.

OREGON GETS WAR TROPHIES

First Steps Taken Looking Forward to 40 Tons of Captured German Stores

BOURGEOISE PARTY ATTEMPTING COUP

Nomination of Von Hindenburg Said to Presage Revival of Interest

WAR PREVENTION MEANS DISCUSSED

W. A. Uren Proposes Amendment to Constitution to Ban Western Wars

EXPEDITION TO EAST STARTED BY ROOSEVELT

Theodore and Kermit Sail on Long Trip to Orient in Search of Rare Specimens of Fauna

SCENE OF KIPLING'S POEMS TO BE SOUGHT

"Ovis Polus" Large Mountain Goat is Prime Object of Journey

PAROLE IS REVOKED BY JUDGE; TERM STARTED

Former Teller in State Treasurer's Office Pleads Guilty to Charge of Diverting Funds

OLDER GIRLS GATHER HERE

Thirteenth Annual Conference Will Be Held April 17 to 19 Inclusive

FRENCH OFFICE IS STILL OPEN

Successor to Herriot Not Selected; Result of Crisis in Doubt

RETIRE PASTOR CALLED BY DEATH

Funeral Services for Rev. Richard Hocking Will Be Held Monday

DR. DONEY WILL RETURN MAY 9TH

President of Willamette University Regains Health in Last Year

OLD NEWSPAPERS DISPLAYED; REBEL SENTIMENT SHOWN

Paper Published During Civil War Gives Keen Insight of Spirit of Times

SILVERTON, Ore., April 11.—(Special)—Three newspapers one date on Saturday, January 4, 1860, a second one dated August 9, 1862, and a third one July 2, 1863, are on display at the Coolidge and McClintock bank at Silvertown. The oldest of the three is a reproduced copy, the other two are the originals. All three papers are in a remarkably well preserved condition.

INSURANCE COLLECTED OVER TWO THOUSAND

Prisoner Near Collapse as Circuit Judge Kelly Pronounces Sentence

CHICAGO, April 11.—Mrs. Anna Cunningham, 49, of Gary, Ind., fainted tonight when questioned concerning the five deaths in her family during the last six years, and the condition of her son, David, who is in a critical condition in a Chicago hospital from poisoning.

SHEPHERD HAS NEW ACCUSER; STATE PROBE

Old Friend of Alleged Poisoner of Millionaire Ward, Appears Before Court in Deposition

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

GERM DISEASES AND POISONS DISCUSSED

New Interest is Injected in Case by Testimony of Architect

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

OREGON GETS WAR TROPHIES

First Steps Taken Looking Forward to 40 Tons of Captured German Stores

First steps toward securing Oregon's share of captured German cannon and other war trophies, recently allotted to the states by congress, was taken Saturday by Governor Pierce in designating Brigadier General Geo. A. White as representative of the state for this purpose.

HOOPER FORSEES INDUSTRY CHANGE

New Relationship Between Workers and Manufacturers Seen by Speaker

NEW YORK, April 11.—A definitely new relationship in the whole setting of industry is in prospect, Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce told the national industrial round table conference here today.

BIGGEST THING FOR SALE

Salem is going to put over the proposition for a second linen mill for this city—And that will be the biggest thing ever done for Salem—And the quicker the bigger.

BOURGEOISE PARTY ATTEMPTING COUP

Nomination of Von Hindenburg Said to Presage Revival of Interest

WAR PREVENTION MEANS DISCUSSED

W. A. Uren Proposes Amendment to Constitution to Ban Western Wars

PORTLAND, Or., April 11.—Oregon electors may take the first step toward amending the federal constitution so that the United States can prevent future war in the western hemisphere, it became known here today. The proposed amendment was drafted by W. A. Uren, of Portland, and in the opinion of Mr. Uren and those with whom he has consulted, the amendment would be an effective bar against war.

EXPEDITION TO EAST STARTED BY ROOSEVELT

Theodore and Kermit Sail on Long Trip to Orient in Search of Rare Specimens of Fauna

NEW YORK, April 11.—Theodore Roosevelt and Kermit Roosevelt sailed on the Lovatian today prepared to make trouble for the ovis polus and his fellows of the fast-flung Tian Chan mountains in east Turkistan which Kipling has called the "world" white roof tree, where "the miles stand on end."

SCENE OF KIPLING'S POEMS TO BE SOUGHT

"Ovis Polus" Large Mountain Goat is Prime Object of Journey

NEW YORK, April 11.—Theodore Roosevelt and Kermit Roosevelt sailed on the Lovatian today prepared to make trouble for the ovis polus and his fellows of the fast-flung Tian Chan mountains in east Turkistan which Kipling has called the "world" white roof tree, where "the miles stand on end."

PAROLE IS REVOKED BY JUDGE; TERM STARTED

Former Teller in State Treasurer's Office Pleads Guilty to Charge of Diverting Funds

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

OLDER GIRLS GATHER HERE

Thirteenth Annual Conference Will Be Held April 17 to 19 Inclusive

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

FRENCH OFFICE IS STILL OPEN

Successor to Herriot Not Selected; Result of Crisis in Doubt

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

RETIRE PASTOR CALLED BY DEATH

Funeral Services for Rev. Richard Hocking Will Be Held Monday

NEW YORK, April 11.—A definitely new relationship in the whole setting of industry is in prospect, Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce told the national industrial round table conference here today.

DR. DONEY WILL RETURN MAY 9TH

President of Willamette University Regains Health in Last Year

BOURGEOISE PARTY ATTEMPTING COUP

Nomination of Von Hindenburg Said to Presage Revival of Interest

WAR PREVENTION MEANS DISCUSSED

W. A. Uren Proposes Amendment to Constitution to Ban Western Wars

PORTLAND, Or., April 11.—Oregon electors may take the first step toward amending the federal constitution so that the United States can prevent future war in the western hemisphere, it became known here today. The proposed amendment was drafted by W. A. Uren, of Portland, and in the opinion of Mr. Uren and those with whom he has consulted, the amendment would be an effective bar against war.

EXPEDITION TO EAST STARTED BY ROOSEVELT

Theodore and Kermit Sail on Long Trip to Orient in Search of Rare Specimens of Fauna

NEW YORK, April 11.—Theodore Roosevelt and Kermit Roosevelt sailed on the Lovatian today prepared to make trouble for the ovis polus and his fellows of the fast-flung Tian Chan mountains in east Turkistan which Kipling has called the "world" white roof tree, where "the miles stand on end."

SCENE OF KIPLING'S POEMS TO BE SOUGHT

"Ovis Polus" Large Mountain Goat is Prime Object of Journey

NEW YORK, April 11.—Theodore Roosevelt and Kermit Roosevelt sailed on the Lovatian today prepared to make trouble for the ovis polus and his fellows of the fast-flung Tian Chan mountains in east Turkistan which Kipling has called the "world" white roof tree, where "the miles stand on end."

PAROLE IS REVOKED BY JUDGE; TERM STARTED

Former Teller in State Treasurer's Office Pleads Guilty to Charge of Diverting Funds

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

OLDER GIRLS GATHER HERE

Thirteenth Annual Conference Will Be Held April 17 to 19 Inclusive

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

FRENCH OFFICE IS STILL OPEN

Successor to Herriot Not Selected; Result of Crisis in Doubt

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

RETIRE PASTOR CALLED BY DEATH

Funeral Services for Rev. Richard Hocking Will Be Held Monday

NEW YORK, April 11.—A definitely new relationship in the whole setting of industry is in prospect, Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce told the national industrial round table conference here today.

DR. DONEY WILL RETURN MAY 9TH

President of Willamette University Regains Health in Last Year

BOURGEOISE PARTY ATTEMPTING COUP

Nomination of Von Hindenburg Said to Presage Revival of Interest

WAR PREVENTION MEANS DISCUSSED

W. A. Uren Proposes Amendment to Constitution to Ban Western Wars

PORTLAND, Or., April 11.—Oregon electors may take the first step toward amending the federal constitution so that the United States can prevent future war in the western hemisphere, it became known here today. The proposed amendment was drafted by W. A. Uren, of Portland, and in the opinion of Mr. Uren and those with whom he has consulted, the amendment would be an effective bar against war.

EXPEDITION TO EAST STARTED BY ROOSEVELT

Theodore and Kermit Sail on Long Trip to Orient in Search of Rare Specimens of Fauna

NEW YORK, April 11.—Theodore Roosevelt and Kermit Roosevelt sailed on the Lovatian today prepared to make trouble for the ovis polus and his fellows of the fast-flung Tian Chan mountains in east Turkistan which Kipling has called the "world" white roof tree, where "the miles stand on end."

SCENE OF KIPLING'S POEMS TO BE SOUGHT

"Ovis Polus" Large Mountain Goat is Prime Object of Journey

NEW YORK, April 11.—Theodore Roosevelt and Kermit Roosevelt sailed on the Lovatian today prepared to make trouble for the ovis polus and his fellows of the fast-flung Tian Chan mountains in east Turkistan which Kipling has called the "world" white roof tree, where "the miles stand on end."

PAROLE IS REVOKED BY JUDGE; TERM STARTED

Former Teller in State Treasurer's Office Pleads Guilty to Charge of Diverting Funds

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

OLDER GIRLS GATHER HERE

Thirteenth Annual Conference Will Be Held April 17 to 19 Inclusive

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

FRENCH OFFICE IS STILL OPEN

Successor to Herriot Not Selected; Result of Crisis in Doubt

CHICAGO, April 11.—Another witness against William D. Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his millionaire ward, William N. McClintock, appeared today, as Chief Justice Olson of the municipal court prepared to ask a second indictment.

RETIRE PASTOR CALLED BY DEATH

Funeral Services for Rev. Richard Hocking Will Be Held Monday

NEW YORK, April 11.—A definitely new relationship in the whole setting of industry is in prospect, Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce told the national industrial round table conference here today.

DR. DONEY WILL RETURN MAY 9TH