ONE OF THE loveliest of Easter day's social events was the 9 o'clock breakfast of the Alpha Chi Omega alumnae association at which Miss Grace Holt and Miss Maimi Victor were the hostesses, entertaining at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe. The pastel tints of springtime flowers predominated in the attractive appointments. Miss Virginia Holt greeted the guests and presented each with an Easter favor in the form of a corsage of pastel-shaded blossoms. Mrs. Monroe Gilbert and Mrs. Martin Peresethian pleased the guests with their groups of musical numbers. Three members of the association, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. J. P. Smart and Miss Louise Williamson were unable to be present.

It was at the breakfast hour that the guests received the news of the arrival of a little "sorority niece," Lorah Kate Griffith.

Covers at the prettily appointed table were placed for Mrs. Neva Anderson of Albany, Miss Ger-

FASHIONS & FOIBLES

by Shirley Sharon

Dark blue cashmere suit with the frock and lining of flat crepe in a quilt-like check of red and navy are made for a young girl's ensemble costume.

However, for the afternoon frock and evening dress may go in the matter of circular bouffant, hem flares and the like, the ensemble coat and its own particular frock keep strictly within the bounds of narrow sheath lines. In many cases both the coat and frock have straight lower edges so that they can be made from the new wide bordered silks or woolsens. The coat, if you are a slim girl of what movie folk call "a little lady" can be made with an underarm seam. Brown is smart over a frock of deep cream bordered in brown and lined with the same bordered silk.

Alfred, and the hosts, Professor and Mrs. Williston.

The Etokta club will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fisher, 515 Market street. The group will continue with the study of "Know Your Town" as outlined by the National League of Women Voters.

A little daughter was welcomed into each of two prominent Salem homes on Easter Sunday, with both little Easter lily-ladies receiving the names their grandmothers have borne.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, Lorah Kate, weighing nine pounds, arrived at 7:23 o'clock in the morning. The occasion, as well as being Easter Sunday, was also the birthday of Mr. Griffith. Mrs. Griffith, before her marriage, was Ila Spaulding.

At 11:30 o'clock, also Easter morning, a little daughter was born at the Bungalow maternity home to Rev. and Mrs. Ward Willis Long, of the Presbyterian manse. Little Emelyse Wardine, as she will be known, weighed 7 1/2 pounds. The first name, Emelyse, is a modification of the names of the two grandmothers, the maternal grandmother being Emily, and Mr. Long's mother, Eliza, while the second name is a derivation honoring the little lady's father. It was an interesting coincidence that Emelyse Wardine was born at the very hour her father was baptizing 10 small youngsters at the morning Easter service. Emelyse Wardine came to help welcome her a charming little sister, Lois Evangeline.

Covers were placed for ten at the Grax club Easter luncheon on Sunday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. An Easter devotional hour preceded the luncheon, with Miss Jenelle Vandevort giving a talk appropriate to the occasion. Spring blossoms centered the table where refreshments of salad, tea, and sandwiches were served.

In the group were Miss Inge-gard Gardner, Miss Jenelle Vandevort, Miss Myrtle Smith, Miss Bernice Mulvey, Miss Bernice Roberts, Miss Mary Erickson, Miss Loretta Varley, Miss Lillian Rowe, Miss Erma Meeks and Miss Ruth Stover.

One of the charming club parties of the past week was that on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel: Tulips, with a dominant motif of the American Beauty shade, and primroses, were used attractively about the rooms. Iva Golding Charette, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Townsend, and John Watts were special guests for the evening. The playing prize went to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Phillips.

In the club group present were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Orling, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel.

The ladies of the Scandinavian church are planning a cooked food sale for Saturday at the S. P. office on North Liberty street.

Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn and Mrs. Donald W. Riddle motored to Albany for the Easter vesper service at the First Presbyterian church. Later in the evening they attended the sacred cantata, "The Last Seven Words of Christ," (Theodore Dubois) at the First Presbyterian church in Corvallis.

One of the outstanding of the early post-Lenten affairs will be the Business and Professional Women's club dance this evening in the Crystal Gardens, with three prizes announced for the most distinctive costumes. While a costume dance, the guests are not asked to wear special costumes unless desired.

The committee in charge in itself suggests that the affair will be a distinct success.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Mee, 320 North Front street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Pearl Alene, to Mr. John Aloysius Horgan. The announcement of the wedding date will be made later.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel entertained as their house guests over Easter week-end Iva Golding Charette, John Watts and Virginia Charette of Portland.

The first post-Lenten musicale and one that will be of especial delight will be that at 8:15 o'clock this evening at the First Christian church when Miss Naomi Phelps, soprano, assisted by Carrie M. Chase, pianist, and Mrs. Guy Fitch Phelps, accompanist, will appear in concert. Of particular interest will be the old fashioned group which Miss Phelps will sing in whimsical costume.

The program is announced for the evening as follows:

Professional and Business Women Plan Costume Dance

Several firms of the city have purchased blocks of tickets to the costume benefit dance of the Professional and Business Women's club, which is to be staged tonight at the Crystal Gardens.

The dance is held for the purpose of securing funds towards the erection of a building for the organization. The club has been divided into nine different committees, and each one is endeavoring to secure a portion of the needed fund.

The committee of Miss Sylvia Woods' is sponsoring the dance. They have secured the Oregon Aggravators, one of the best known dance orchestras on the Aggie campus.

Bits For Breakfast

This is the week—
Linen week in Salem—
The most important week thus far in the history of Salem.
Speed to the help of the loyal hustlers on the committee. It is as much your work as theirs.
It would be a glorious thing if the stock could be over subscribed. That would be an encouraging sign for the third mill.
And hurrah for Silverton and Albany and the rest of the valley towns that are going to help. They are good neighbors to Salem.

Why is Battle creek Battle creek? Why is it called Battle creek? Was a battle fought there? This question is asked of The Statesman. Who can answer it? Referring to the Battle creek a few miles south of Salem. It is a little creek (most of the year,) with a big name. The man asking the question says he has heard that the name was given on account of an Indian battle on that creek in the pioneer days. Who can tell about this?

THE FLAVOR L-A-S-T-S!!!

The plant of the Turner Flax Fiber company will likely be increased in capacity. It can now handle annually about 250 tons of flax, getting out the seed and turning the straw into fiber. It is proposed to increase the capacity to 600 to 1000 tons. D. F. Eastburn and wife and Leo and Arthur DeMyt are the stockholders of the company now. They have $10,000 capital. It is their idea that with $25,000 capital they could make the necessary expansion. A lot of such threshing, retting and scutching plants will have to be established and enlarged, and these people are experienced and practical and hard working. They have the elements of success.

"Crime urge" is a very common complaint among crooks; yet no one ever before heard of it being offered as a mitigation of punishment for murder.

Itching Stops instantly

Itching skin, broken, pimply or inflamed skin—you will never suffer troubles like that when you know.

Modern science, by decades of study, has learned how to deal with such troubles. How to relieve instantly, how to start healing at once. And how to bring complete results so quickly they amaze.

The basis, of course, is sulphur. We can never hope to find a factor which so quickly destroys skin parasites. But men have found new ways to give it multiplied effects.

The new-day method is called Mentho-Sulphur. It combines the best all science has developed. To countless people it has shown the way to avoid all skin afflictions.

Ask your druggist for a jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur. Then you are doing the utmost, and that utmost will amaze you. We believe that never again will you let a skin trouble annoy you for a day.

Refined, Delicate Skin Secured by Absorption

No complexion can be considered beautiful if the skin is coarse in texture. This trouble can be overcome by thoroughly cleansing the pores, removing the dirt and impurities which make the skin rough. For this purpose there's nothing better than Mergol. The wax compound it absorbs the rough, muddy or discolored outer skin and unclogs the pores. The fresh, young skin underneath, free by evidence, is completely delicate, refined and beautiful. And it is kept so, as the pores now freely expel their matter and drink in the life-giving oxygen.

Mergolized wax, because of its wonderful absorption power, is fast supplanting other treatments for coarse, pimply, yellow, freckled or blotchy skin. It is applied at night like cold cream and washed off next morning. Harmless of course, and can be used at any drug store (as once will do), safe.
