FIFTEEN MEMBERS OF Chapter G of the PEO sisterhood met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. Smith for a study of Oregon art and literature. The paper of the afternoon, written by Mrs. W. B. Burt, who is ill in Portland, was read by Mrs. C. K. Logan. Lavender lilacs and deronium were arranged attractively in the rooms.

In the group yesterday were: Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Frank Churchill, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. Harwood Hall, Mrs. W. T. Hickey, Miss Alice Hollister, Mrs. W. M. Hughes, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. A. C. Parr, Mrs. F. W. Selee, Mrs. A. T. Woolpert, and the hostess, Mrs. W. M. Smith.

The ladies of the Central Congregational church will hold a cooked food sale tomorrow at Epley's store, Nineteenth and State streets.

Miss Rita Claggett was hostess Tuesday at one of the most enjoyable meetings of the year of the TFD club and a group of invited guests. Red tulips were lovely about the rooms where sewing, cards and music gave diversion to the evening. The high playing score for the five hundred went to Miss Ruth Edwards, Emma Seigmund winning the consolation award.

Special guests invited for the evening were Miss Gladys Curry, Miss Lisie Victor, Miss Hattie Brown, Miss Hester Hilpot, Miss Aldene Hilpot, Miss Irene Martin, Miss Catherine Vincent, Miss Miriam Lovell, Miss Carrie Bowney, Miss Ruth Edwards, Florence McKelip, Miss Florence Howe, Miss Winifred Reinhardt and Miss Maxine Abst.

Club members invited to participate in the evening's pleasure were Emma Seigmund, Miss Irene Boje, Miss Edna Warden, Miss Elsie Hoynton, Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Pauline Patterson, Miss Frances Plov, Miss Doris Bowden, Miss Bertha Mills, Miss Marlowe Miller, and the hostess, Miss Rita Claggett.

With sweet peas as the chosen flower for Mother's day, which falls on May 9 this year, the following announcement from the OAC Barometer will be of interest:

Anne Shannon Monroe, well-known Oregon writer and author of the "Making of a Business Woman" and "Happy Valley," will speak on "Great Mothers" at the convocation Mothers' day, May 9, according to an announcement made at the meeting of committee chairmen in the college tea room Monday noon.

"The college girls have always been very dear to me—dearest of all," she writes. "I have a very special love for OAC girls, having seen their worth during the fair year in San Francisco."

All girls are urged to have their mothers with them on the weekend of Mothers' day. If their own mothers cannot come they are asked to adopt some "mother" or faculty member for the day. Registration of mothers in the office of the dean of women on Saturday morning, May 9, is considered very important. Each mother will be presented with a flower.

The registration book will be kept from year to year to record the names of the mothers who visit OAC on Mothers' day.

Mrs. H. A. Cupper, Mrs. E. Cross, Mr. S. Lord and Mrs. W. H. Steusloff have been spending a few days at the Steusloff cottage on Pacific City.

The Grax club met for the April business meeting on Tuesday evening at the YWCA with a potluck supper at 6:30 o'clock. After the business of the evening the girls enjoyed a social time together.

In the group were Miss Irene Brethaupt, Miss Jennelle Vandevort, adviser, Miss Clementine Charles, Miss Imogene Gardner, Miss Myrtle Smith, Miss Loreta Varley, Miss Lillian Rowe, Miss Erma Meeks, Miss Ruth Stover and Miss Bernice Roberts.

Mrs. U. G. Shipley will entertain this afternoon for members of the woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church, at her home, 975 E street.

Always a welcome musical event in Salem is the annual concert of the Willamette university men's glee club. The concert this year will be given at 8:15 o'clock this evening at Waller hall, the men having returned from a successful concert tour at West Lynn, Portland, Vancouver, Mill Plain, Washington, Raymond, Aberdeen, Olympia, Bremerton, Seattle, and Astoria; Mr. Vernon Eellingham, Renton and Chehalis, with two radio appearances—one at Seattle and one at Portland—to their credit.

It will be remembered that the club last year won second place in the Northwest Glee club meet, and many agree that the club is even better this year than last.

As the folders say: "The first Willamette university glee club was organized in the winter of 1906 under the direction of Prof. Francisco Seley, who was dean of the school of music."

Within two or three years the club had started on regular concert tours and since that time Willamette glee clubs have appeared in practically every city and town of the Pacific northwest, their concerts having always been characterized by their particular excellence.

The past few years the club has been especially fortunate in having as its director Prof. E. W. Hobson, the character of whose work may be seen in the result of the Northwest Glee club meet in Portland last year, at which the Willamette club participated so successfully.

This year the club offers a program including classic and popular numbers of the highest grade, instrumental and vocal solos, quartet numbers, impersonations and readings, and college songs and stunts.

The complete program will be as follows:

Jolly Students Mendenhall Glee club.

The Old Road Scott Glee club.

The Highwayman Treharne Lloyd Thompson.

Volga Boat Song Arr. by Gaul Glee club.

Reading Selected Lloyd Waltz.

Cradle Song McFaydn Donald Heath.

The Coppah Moon Shelley Varsity quartet.

Goin' Home DeVorak

Honey Chills Strickland Glee club.

Piano solo Selected Parker Whitaker.

A Wee Bit o' Scotch Joe Noe, alias Harry Lauder Skit Messrs. Deal and Trueblood.

Shadow March Protheroe Sweet Canaan Reddick Duna McGill

The Blind Ploughman Clark Old Historic Temple. Mendenhall Glee club.

The personnel of the Willamette university glee club includes: First tenors: Milton Gralapp, Joe Lane, Harold Mumford, Dan Schriber, Mark Weidenspel, Clare Geddes, Donald Heath, Walter Huff, Earl Pemberton, Parker Whitaker, Manning Bros. Daryl Chapin, Willis Hathaway, Percy Hammond, Lloyd Thompson, Paul Trueblood, Oliver Gill, Shannon Hogue, George Moorhead and Joe Nee.

Hostesses for the J. S. club on Wednesday evening were Mrs. Verne Compton and Mrs. T. W. Davies who entertained for the club members and a group of special guests at the Davies home. Lilies and narcissi were used in the rooms where five hundred was the diversion of the evening. The high score went to Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, and low to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene. At the refreshment hour the hostesses were assisted by the daughter of Mrs. Davies, Mrs. G. H. Taylor of Kelso, Washington.

Special guests in the group were: Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Miss La Velle Keene, Miss Mildred Spong, Miss Wilma Coursey, Mrs. G. H. Taylor and Paul Davies.

In the club are: Mr. and Mrs. John Spong, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Coursey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Busey, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinzer, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Compton, and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies.

In two weeks Mrs. Busey and Mrs. Spong will entertain the club at the Busey home.

The Willing Workers' class of the First Christian church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Will May, the teacher, at 445 South Capitol street.

The Leisure Hour club met for a delightful afternoon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John H. Scott when Mrs. Scott and Mrs. John H. Albert entertained jointly for the members and for a special guest, Mrs. F. G. Hopkins. Deronium, iris, and honeysuckle gave an artistic floral note in the rooms.

One of the greatest of dietary experts has spoiled his reputation with the rising generation by the emphatic assertion that school children should never be permitted to eat pies, cake, puddings, candy or other sweets. To his thinking it is a crime to establish confectionery shops in school districts. They might be permitted to dole out fruits and vegetables, but nothing else. Pastries should be positively forbidden. They provide no exercise for the jaws and teeth and merely pamper the appetite. It is all right for a child to take as much as three ounces of butter in a day. It will both fatten and strengthen where the sweets will do positive harm. This authority can hardly expect any delegation of youngsters to wax enthusiastic over his program.

Mrs. J. W. Welch was hostess to the club and had her home on Coolidge street decorated in Japanese flowers for the occasion. Iris, cherry blossoms and narcissi were used. At the lunch table were served red bean rice, rice and tea cakes, and tea which had been sent to Mrs. Welch by her sister, who is in the Orient.

SILVERTON SOCIETY

Election of officers occupied the first part of the meeting of the Silverton Woman's club Monday afternoon. Those elected were Mrs. Jay Morley, president; Mrs. G. B. Benson, vice president; Mrs. H. B. Latham, secretary, and Mrs. A. J. Richardson treasurer.

Following the business meeting the study of Japanese music was taken up. Mrs. G. B. Benson read a paper on Japanese music, which was followed by the story of "Madam Butterfly," told by Mrs. H. M. Simms. Two selections of "Madam Butterfly" were played on the phonograph.

Mrs. J. W. Welch was hostess to the club and had her home on Coolidge street decorated in Japanese flowers for the occasion. Iris, cherry blossoms and narcissi were used. At the lunch table were served red bean rice, rice and tea cakes, and tea which had been sent to Mrs. Welch by her sister, who is in the Orient.

Bits For Breakfast

Make it snappy—
Strike while the iron is hot—
Don't let the linen mill proposition drop. Let Salem make up her quota, and Portland and the valley towns will make up theirs.

And then there are a lot of other projects Salem must get busy on: not the least of these being a beet sugar factory. Flax and beets will be good succession crops. Flax will do well on any beet sugar land here.

Counsel For Chapman Are Granted Time For Appeal

HARTFORD, Conn., April 16.—Gerald Chapman's counsel have been granted an extension of 10 days by Judge Newell Jennings for the filing of the request for a finding by the judge and the submission of a draft for the proposed finding, which are the next steps in Chapman's appeal to the supreme court from the conviction in the superior court.

Chapman was found guilty of murder and was sentenced to hang on June 25.

Under the law the last day for the filing of the papers was today.
