

HAYESVILLE IS HOST TO CLUBS

Marion County Community Federation Is Offered Splendid Program

The Hayesville Community club was host to the Marion County Federation of Community clubs Thursday evening at the Hayesville school and was featured by a packed house which enjoyed an excellent program, followed by a light lunch served by the ladies of the local club.

The program was opened with a number of community songs, led by E. J. Kimber, and which was entered into heartily by the audience.

The "rube monologue," by Leo Du Bois, was a decided hit and would be a credit to any vaudeville circuit.

Jon Foley, assisted by Miss Margaret Langren at the piano, next favored the audience with a vocal solo and encore.

The address, "The Boy" by E. J. Kimber, Marion county YMCA secretary, was delivered in a masterly manner and was brimming full of humor and pathos.

Mrs. C. Z. Ashbaugh concluded the local program by singing an old-time melody which was heartily applauded.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Fulkerson, president of the federated clubs, who opened the meeting with the roll call, followed by a short address on the aspirations and practical benefits of the federation.

The lecture, "The Benefits of Community Organization," by Miss Mozelle Hare of the University of Oregon, was both entertaining and highly instructive.

Dr. Brown, of the child health commission for Marion county, briefly outlined the methods which the commission would use in carrying on their work.

This completed the program, which was followed by an appetizing lunch served by the ladies.

Faculty Censorship Held Entirely Too One-Sided

A motion was brought before the Willamette university student body yesterday to re-petition the faculty to incorporate a combined student and faculty censorship board in place of the present faculty censorship plan.

During the discussion it was pointed out that the faculty censor had not limited their activities to cutting slanderous articles which have no place in a college publication but have censored a large number of student thought articles which were in order.

The matter of presenting another petition was dropped before definite action could be taken due to the lateness of the hour.

Damages For False Arrest Is Refused in Jury Trial

SEATTLE, April 16. — Matt Starwich, sheriff of King county, and Thomas J. McNamara, one of his deputies, won a victory in superior court here today in a $25,000 damage suit brought against them by Harrison Coles, a Seattle laborer, for false arrest.

Coles had been awarded $14,000 damages in a previous trial. Coles was arrested April 16, 1923, by McNamara, who said Coles and a brother, Alvin, broke bottles on a street while intoxicated.

TWO SALEM GIRLS CONTEST WINNERS

Over 100 Essays Are Written For American Chemical Society

Two Salem high school students won first prizes in the state contest conducted by the American Chemical society. It was announced Friday by J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction. A total of 102 essays were written upon six different subjects.

Dorothy M. Baker of Salem won first and Essie Henriksen of Molalla high school, second, with essays on "The Relation of Chemistry to Health and Disease." Nellie E. Tibbits of Salem was first and Herbert Harrison of Jefferson high, Portland, second with essays on "The Relation of Chemistry to the Enrichment of Life."

Other prize winners and the subjects were Douglas Kirk, Jefferson high, Portland, first, and Clifford Parr, MacLoughlin high.

Milton, second on "Relation of Chemistry to Agriculture or Forestry"; Clare Hume, Molalla high, first; Ernest Woods, Dunbar high, second, on "Relation of Chemistry to National Defense"; Evelyn M. Moyer, St. Helens hall, Portland, first, and Clyde Robertson, Baker high, second, on "Relation of Chemistry to the Home," and Garnie Cranor, Union high, West Linn, first, and Harland H. Young, Jr., Jefferson high, Portland, second, on "Relation of Chemistry to the Development of an Industry or a Resource of the United States."

First prizes in the contest are $20 in gold, while second places carry certificates of honorable mention. The winning essays will be forwarded to the national committee to compete in the national contest, which include six four-year scholarships to Yale or Vassar, providing tuition fees and $500 annually.

Judges for the contest were Dr. Leo Riehn, Portland; Richard W. Montague, Portland; Dr. Harold R. Myers, extension division, University of Oregon; Prof. H. G. Tanner, University of Oregon; Albert Hawkins, Oregonian, and F. A. Olmsted, Hood River.

Amity Hi Baseball Team May Play Salem Today

Weather permitting, the Salem high school baseball team will meet Amity high school on Oxford park grounds this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, according to Dennis Heenan, manager. This may be the opening game of the season for the locals.

Two games have been slated with Chemawa, but both were called on account of rain. An effort will be made to play this game on the Chemawa grounds Wednesday afternoon.

LABISH CENTER'S PROGRAM IS FINE

Parent-Teachers' Association Holds Successful Meeting On Tuesday

BROOKS, April 17.—The meeting of the Labish Center Parent-Teacher association was held on Tuesday evening in the schoolhouse. After the regular business which included appointing a committee to buy some needed equipment and for changing the name of the organization to the Labish Center Community club, the following program was given:

America, by all.
Flag salute and American creed, led by school.

Juvenile reading, Clyde Boehm, Bobbie De Gross, Annabell Bennett, Raymond Bibby and Homer Dunn.

Vocal duet, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Ashbaugh, accompanied by Mrs. Mathes.
Musical reading, Mrs. Bibby, accompanied by Willard Hornschuch.

Instrumental solo, Mrs. Wenger. Mixed quartet, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Miller and Mr. Marsden, accompanied by Mrs. Ramp. Community songs with words memorized at the time, were led by Mr. Hornschuch and much enjoyed. A novel feature was a contest of guessing names of the different parts of the human body from definitions placed upon the blackboard. None made a perfect score although there were three ties. The rest of the evening was spent enjoying cake and coffee and in a social get-together.

Wheeler Is Calm As Oil Trial Proceeds; Graft Charge

"Did you hear Worthheimer say in effect that Senator Wheeler was there and that everything was all right?" Mr. Slattery asked.

Senator Walsh's objection was overruled, but Cooper was unable to recall hearing anything of the kind.

Under cross examination Cooper stated he never heard Wheeler say he would represent Campbell before the interior department.

The greater part of the afternoon session was taken up with the introduction of documents by which the government expects to trace various oil prosecuting prospecting permits that were granted originally to individuals and later came into Campbell's possession.
