

The Season's Best

When you see the beautiful new color combinations in our Spring Suitings, we're sure you'll be pleased with them.

Lookers and Buyers Are Showering Us With Many Compliments

Our garments are tailored with so much talent and skill that they adapt themselves to the figure with a grace and ease that indicates the clothes belong to the wearer

Suits $18 to $45

G. W. JOHNSON & CO.

469 State St.

BEN SEZ:

It's better to invest the greater part of your money in the new Linen Mill. Buy one of our used cars this year and when the Linen Mill gets to going we can all ride in new cars.

Hurray for the Linen Mill!

VICK BROS.

is in advance of the educational attainments he would have received in the public school.

Large Garage Bldg. for Lease—
9,000 sq. feet, cement floors; quick possession. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg. a21tf

Portable Phonograph—
$1 down and $1 a week. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. a22

Committee Meets—
Lou Lunsford, John W. Orr and H. R. White met with a district committee at Corvallis to draw up plans for the program at the International Lions district convention to be held at Longview on May 28, 29 and 30. Practically every club in Oregon had delegates at the committee meeting.

Business Course? Summer School?
Inquire at 428 Oregon Bldg. Finish in three months. Book-keeping, typewriting, shorthand. a22

Plans Are Ready—
The finished plans for the new YMCA building are ready, according to the announcement made last night. Kenneth Legge, local architect, who has been employed on the plans, arrived with them in time to meet with contractors this morning. This marks another step taken in the direction of a new YMCA building, and it is expected actual construction will be started on the building within a month.

Six Cylinder Coupe, 1920 Model—
A-1 condition. Cheap cash sale, Barrett Bros. Garage 1999 N. Capitol. a23

Have Substitute Leader—
Due to the illness of C. T. McCroskey, teacher of the salesmanship class of the YMCA, C. P. Bishop filled the vacancy last night. At the last meeting Allan Kafoury presided. Mr. Bishop gave a delightful talk to the class on many of his experiences as a salesman, and presented many highlights of a successful business life.

Boxing, Salem Armory—
Frankie Lewis vs. Billy Gardeau, 10 three-minute rounds. Bill Hunt vs. Speed Murphy, six 3-minute rounds. Two snappy preliminaries, Friday, April 24. Ladies free with gentlemen on the lower floor. a24

Building Permit Issued—
H. H. Harms is to build a dwelling at 1150 Madison street, which is to cost $3200, according to the permit issued by the city recorder.

Shrine Dance—Elite Hall—
April 22nd. Informal. Wear your fez. Shriners come. a22

Card Party—
By St. Monica's Altar society. Wednesday night, St. Joseph's hall. Prizes, refreshments. Admission, 35c. a22

Address Planned—
I. L. Patterson is to give an address on "Community Spirit" at Eola Friday night at 8 o'clock. Mr. Patterson is a prominent fruit grower of Polk county and republican leader.

Teachers Hold Meeting—
Teachers of the Salem schools heard reports of the three representatives to the Inland Empire Educational association convention at Spokane recently. George W. Hug, superintendent of city schools, Miss Carlotta Crowley and E. A. Miller, principal of the Grant school, made the addresses. New officers for the ensuing year were elected, with Miss Leila Reed, of McKinley high school, as president.

A Lecture Will be Given—
On the Principles of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, at the Odd-fellow's temple, Thursday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited. Admission free. a23

Truancy Case Settled—
A doctor's certificate showing the physical disability of the son of Tom Watts, Salem heights rancher, settled the truancy case of that district yesterday when it was presented to County Superintendent Mary Fulkerson. She has granted written permission for the child to be taught at home. The boy, nine years of age, has been receiving instruction at home under a plan advanced by an eastern institution. The mother, an experienced teacher, declares the lad

High Grade Auction Sale—
Don't miss the modern furniture auction on Thursday at 702 N. 14th St. 1:30 p. m. Woodry says it's a good sale. See adv. a22

Hoodoo Holds Jail—
The county jail has 13 residents at present, the number being reduced. Carrol Wright, Joe Polley, James Williams, Lawrence Montgomery and Thomas Traeen were released from the jail after being held on liquor charges.

A Lecture Will be Given—
On the Principles of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, at the Odd-fellow's temple, Thursday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited. Admission free. a23

Truancy Case Settled—
A doctor's certificate showing the physical disability of the son of Tom Watts, Salem heights rancher, settled the truancy case of that district yesterday when it was presented to County Superintendent Mary Fulkerson. She has granted written permission for the child to be taught at home. The boy, nine years of age, has been receiving instruction at home under a plan advanced by an eastern institution. The mother, an experienced teacher, declares the lad

High Grade Auction Sale—
Don't miss the modern furniture auction on Thursday at 702 N. 14th St. 1:30 p. m. Woodry says it's a good sale. See adv. a22

Hoodoo Holds Jail—
The county jail has 13 residents at present, the number being reduced. Carrol Wright, Joe Polley, James Williams, Lawrence Montgomery and Thomas Traeen were released from the jail after being held on liquor charges.

A Lecture Will be Given—
On the Principles of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, at the Odd-fellow's temple, Thursday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited. Admission free. a23

Truancy Case Settled—
A doctor's certificate showing the physical disability of the son of Tom Watts, Salem heights rancher, settled the truancy case of that district yesterday when it was presented to County Superintendent Mary Fulkerson. She has granted written permission for the child to be taught at home. The boy, nine years of age, has been receiving instruction at home under a plan advanced by an eastern institution. The mother, an experienced teacher, declares the lad

High Grade Auction Sale—
Don't miss the modern furniture auction on Thursday at 702 N. 14th St. 1:30 p. m. Woodry says it's a good sale. See adv. a22

Hoodoo Holds Jail—
The county jail has 13 residents at present, the number being reduced. Carrol Wright, Joe Polley, James Williams, Lawrence Montgomery and Thomas Traeen were released from the jail after being held on liquor charges.

A Lecture Will be Given—
On the Principles of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, at the Odd-fellow's temple, Thursday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited. Admission free. a23

Truancy Case Settled—
A doctor's certificate showing the physical disability of the son of Tom Watts, Salem heights rancher, settled the truancy case of that district yesterday when it was presented to County Superintendent Mary Fulkerson. She has granted written permission for the child to be taught at home. The boy, nine years of age, has been receiving instruction at home under a plan advanced by an eastern institution. The mother, an experienced teacher, declares the lad

High Grade Auction Sale—
Don't miss the modern furniture auction on Thursday at 702 N. 14th St. 1:30 p. m. Woodry says it's a good sale. See adv. a22

Hoodoo Holds Jail—
The county jail has 13 residents at present, the number being reduced. Carrol Wright, Joe Polley, James Williams, Lawrence Montgomery and Thomas Traeen were released from the jail after being held on liquor charges.

A Lecture Will be Given—
On the Principles of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, at the Odd-fellow's temple, Thursday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited. Admission free. a23

Truancy Case Settled—
A doctor's certificate showing the physical disability of the son of Tom Watts, Salem heights rancher, settled the truancy case of that district yesterday when it was presented to County Superintendent Mary Fulkerson. She has granted written permission for the child to be taught at home. The boy, nine years of age, has been receiving instruction at home under a plan advanced by an eastern institution. The mother, an experienced teacher, declares the lad

High Grade Auction Sale—
Don't miss the modern furniture auction on Thursday at 702 N. 14th St. 1:30 p. m. Woodry says it's a good sale. See adv. a22

Hoodoo Holds Jail—
The county jail has 13 residents at present, the number being reduced. Carrol Wright, Joe Polley, James Williams, Lawrence Montgomery and Thomas Traeen were released from the jail after being held on liquor charges.

A Lecture Will be Given—
On the Principles of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, at the Odd-fellow's temple, Thursday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited. Admission free. a23

Truancy Case Settled—
A doctor's certificate showing the physical disability of the son of Tom Watts, Salem heights rancher, settled the truancy case of that district yesterday when it was presented to County Superintendent Mary Fulkerson. She has granted written permission for the child to be taught at home. The boy, nine years of age, has been receiving instruction at home under a plan advanced by an eastern institution. The mother, an experienced teacher, declares the lad

High Grade Auction Sale—
Don't miss the modern furniture auction on Thursday at 702 N. 14th St. 1:30 p. m. Woodry says it's a good sale. See adv. a22

A Bargain in Kerchiefs

Miller's Basement Store

Today and Tomorrow in Bargain Square

Hundreds of Kerchiefs

Men's Women's and Children's

at Wonderfully Low Prices

5c to 39c each

which represents

A Saving of

1/3 to 1/2

just another Anniversary Sale Bargain

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

AT THE THEATERS TODAY

Oregon—Theodore Roberts in "40 Winks."
Liberty—Mrs. Wallace Reid in "Broken Laws."
High—Murdock, and "Roaring Halls."

Pic Social Planned

The Hazel Green Parent-Teacher association will give a picnic social and entertainment at the Hazel Green school Friday night at 8 o'clock, featuring E. McCroskey with his musical handsaw; E. Cooke Patton, the magician, and Joe Foley in a black face sketch. F. N. Woodry will auction the pies.

Dance Tonight

Cole McClroy's orchestra, Crystal Gardens. a22

Has Unique Honor

Jack Spong, senior at the Salem high school, claims the distinction to be the only male member to have attended the Willamette university co-ed carnival this year. It is claimed that he was dressed as a girl and was brought into the affair to offer "legerdemain" before the participants in the carnival. He claims to have been frightened for fear his identity would be discovered. Harold Fearing, a senior at Willamette, was admitted after the carnival was completed in order to take a flashlight photograph of the gathering.

OAC Symphony Orchestra—
Sat. eve, April 25, Waller hall. a25

Births Reported

Almira Endora Anderson is the name given to the baby daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Knute Anderson on April 9. Robert Eugene Delim is the name given to the baby son born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Delim on April 17, according to certificates filed with the city health officer.

Business Course? Summer School?
Inquire at 428 Oregon Bldg. Finish in three months. Book-keeping, typewriting, shorthand. a22

Visits High Schools

Benjamin J. Kimber, Marion county YMCA secretary, spoke at the high schools in Woodburn, Gervais, Hubbard and Silverton yesterday and led the singing at Woodburn and Silverton. He plans to speak at the high schools of Turner, Aumsville, Stayton and Jefferson in the interest of the Older Boys' conference to be held in Salem the last of this week. Secretary Kimber plans to visit Polk and Linn counties before the conference is held here.

OAC Symphony Orchestra—
Sat. eve, April 25, Waller hall. a25

Odd Silk Taffetta Cushions—
Extra special $4.95. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. a22

Suffers Slight Injury

Marie Patton, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Patton, is suffering from a fractured knee cap which was received recently. At the present time she is confined to her home after undergoing an operation for tonsillitis.

Cut Flowers, Floral Pieces

Adams, Florist, 453 Court. a22

McCullough Recovers

C. B. McCullough, state bridge engineer who recently underwent a major operation, is able to be up and around at his home. It is expected that he will be at his office within a few days.

Bail Is Furnished

George C. Lyttel, arrested on a charge of non-support, was released from the county jail yesterday after having furnished bail of $250.

For Rent—Eight Houses

Two flats, $22.50 to $45. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. bldg. a21tf

Player Music Rolls

59c. Large selection. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. a22

Patient Escapes

Thomas Kinson, a parole patient of the state hospital, eloped from that institution last night and has not yet been caught. Kinson was committed from Multnomah county in 1924. He is about 35 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches tall, and weighs about 168 pounds. He has brown hair and eyes and was dressed in a dark suit, with an overcoat and light hat.

High Grade Auction Sale

Don't miss the modern furniture auction on Thursday at 702 N. 14th St. 1:30 p. m. Woodry says it's a good sale. See adv. a22

Hoodoo Holds Jail

The county jail has 13 residents at present, the number being reduced. Carrol Wright, Joe Polley, James Williams, Lawrence Montgomery and Thomas Traeen were released from the jail after being held on liquor charges.

A Lecture Will be Given

On the Principles of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, at the Odd-fellow's temple, Thursday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited. Admission free. a23

Truancy Case Settled

A doctor's certificate showing the physical disability of the son of Tom Watts, Salem heights rancher, settled the truancy case of that district yesterday when it was presented to County Superintendent Mary Fulkerson. She has granted written permission for the child to be taught at home. The boy, nine years of age, has been receiving instruction at home under a plan advanced by an eastern institution. The mother, an experienced teacher, declares the lad

REDUCED SUMMER RATES TO CALIFORNIA BY PICKWICK STAGES

San Francisco, one way, $15.50 Round Trip, $30.00
Los Angeles, one way, $27.35 Round Trip, $50.00

Special Rates to Parties of Eight or More
For Information and Reservations phone 686, or call at CENTRAL STAGE TERMINAL Salem, Oregon

Play Popular Music in 12 Lessons

Free Demonstration. Waterman Piano School, McCornack Bldg. a23

Ships Goods to Congo

Manager Jarman of the J. C. Penny store has shipped goods to Belgian Congo in Africa in answer for service from Mrs. B. E. Schaffner for curtain goods. The goods are to be shipped to Elizabethville, in the Belgian Congo. Parcel post is being used.

Deputies Are Active
Will Moore, state insurance commissioner and fire marshal, is greatly impressed with the recent tragedy at Marshfield in which five lives were lost in a conflagration. He has placed four deputies in Marshfield in an educational and investigating capacity in order to prevent, if possible, a repetition in other cities.

Gardner Touring Car
Driven only 1200 miles, at the Certified Public Motor Car Market for half the new price. Car has been in careful hands and will give some one the same good service that a new automobile would. a25

Inter-Insurers Barred
Inter-insurers cannot write liability insurance, according to an opinion handed down Tuesday by I. H. Van Winkle, attorney general. Lack of proper protection from special bonds is the basis for the opinion. The opinion was asked by the public service commission covering insurance on automobiles. A similar opinion was handed down about two years ago.

Card Party
By St. Monica's Altar society. Wednesday night, St. Joseph's hall. Prizes, refreshments. Admission, 35c. a22

Will Entertain Delegates
The Salem Kiwanis are to entertain visiting delegates to the Older Boys' conference to be staged here during the latter part of this week. Kiwanians have promised to luncheon Saturday noon and discuss vocational problems with him. The plan of the officials of the conference was to secure the co-operation of the business men of the city to take one of the Marion-Polk county delegates and bring him into contact with the business life of the city.

For Sale—Nearly New 1924—
Ford coupe, Newton Chevrolet Co. a18tf

Lecture on the Klan
Keith Allen will deliver a free lecture on the principles of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan at Odd Fellow's temple, Salem, on Thursday, April 23, at 8 p. m. The public generally is invited.

Eagles Stage Social
One of the first open meetings and social evenings to be staged by the Salem Eagles will be held tonight. A special program has been arranged and refreshments will be served. The evening will be closed with a dance. Eagles and their friends are invited to come and bring their wives.

Red and Black Depart
An Indian and a negro boy escaped from the boys' training school while they were employed in the potato field, according to reports filed at the police station. Elgin Taylor, aged 18, negro lad, five feet 11 inches in height, weight 160 pounds was committed from Wallowa county. Sam Frank, the Indian was sent up from Umatilla county. He is five feet and five inches in height and weighs 140 pounds.

Released on Bond
Chet Ridgeway was released on $100 bail Tuesday after he had been lodged in the police station on a possession of liquor charge. John Painter, who faces a vagrancy charge in addition to the possession charge was released on $120 bail. Monk Wagoner, who's real name is alleged to be Ralph Vern, was released by order of Judge Poulsen. Vern, alias Wagoner, was involved in an alleged drunken driver scrape at Dallas some time ago, which created wide attention.

Police Court News
Leamon L. Lane of Willamina, deposited $10 bail when he was arrested for speeding yesterday. Kenneth S. Reed forfeited $10; G. V. Penjuite, P. Klseman, Ray

De Merritt, E. W. Covett, and L. L. Lane forfeited $10 each, which had been deposited for their appearance in court.

Special Showing of
Davenport's, H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. a22

Plans Undecided
Plans for the high school commencement are still unsettled. The students cannot use the Armory on June 12, as it is already taken. If the weather allows the exercises will be held in the open, but if not other arrangements will be made. The stadium at the

(Continued on page 6)

on a possession of liquor charge. John Painter, who faces a vagrancy charge in addition to the possession charge was released on $120 bail. Monk Wagoner, who's real name is alleged to be Ralph Vern, was released by order of Judge Poulsen. Vern, alias Wagoner, was involved in an alleged drunken driver scrape at Dallas some time ago, which created wide attention.

Police Court News
Leamon L. Lane of Willamina, deposited $10 bail when he was arrested for speeding yesterday. Kenneth S. Reed forfeited $10; G. V. Penjuite, P. Klseman, Ray

De Merritt, E. W. Covett, and L. L. Lane forfeited $10 each, which had been deposited for their appearance in court.

Special Showing of
Davenport's, H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. a22

Plans Undecided
Plans for the high school commencement are still unsettled. The students cannot use the Armory on June 12, as it is already taken. If the weather allows the exercises will be held in the open, but if not other arrangements will be made. The stadium at the

(Continued on page 6)

High Grade Modern Furniture

Auction Sale

THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1:30

702 North Fourteenth Street

Oak cabinet; Cheney phonograph and records, like new; over-stuffed tapestry davenport and chair, extra good; mahogany davenport; table and 4 mahogany chairs, the kind you like; mahogany day bed upholstered in blue velour; mahogany dining room suite consisting of Queen Anne extension table, 4 blue leather seated diners and very fine buffet—long style; mahogany rockers; oak rockers; oak library table; drop head Singer sewing machine; 2 large all leather chairs; Wilton and Axminster rugs; brown Reed chair upholstered in tapestry; Oliver typewriter; white chair, green velour lounge; very old clock; Universal 6-hole range; 2 good heaters; kitchen treasure; round oak stand table; beds, springs and mattresses; roll seated rocker; sewing rocker; a lot of good books; square oak extension table and chairs; fruit jars, boiler, tubs, dishes, axe, hoe, lawn mower, stair carpet, ash dresser, chest, drawers, commode, pictures and lots of other articles. Be on time—1:30 p. m. sharp.

Terms cash.
NOTICE: Goods on inspection on day of sale only.

MRS. C. E. MORTON F. N. WOODRY
Owner, 702 N. Fourteenth St. Auctioneer, Phone 311

"Woodry Buys Furniture for Cash or Sells on Commission"

When You Are Ready To Move

Call on us, for we have padded Vans and Fleece-lined covers for your furniture and piano. First class piano and furniture movers.

We also handle Brooder Stoves, Furnace Coals and Diamond Briquettes

Larmer Transfer & Storage Co.

Phone 930

Cold Spring Rains

Results in Coughs and Colds

Use

Schaefer's Herbal Cough Cure

to prevent serious sickness

It Will Break Up Your Cough

SCHAEFER'S DRUG STORE
"The Yellow Front"

135 North Commercial

Phone 197

The Pendar Store

Modern

THE SEDAN TYPE funeral car that we place at the disposal of those who call upon us is the modern version of the old-fashioned hearse.

It is less conspicuous, and has far more dignity and beauty. In every way this piece of modern equipment serves better and more satisfactorily.

WEBB'S FUNERAL PARLORS
"Superior Funeral Service"
205 So Church Street
Phone 120

