TWENTY-ONE tables of bridge were in play yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Russell Catlin, marking one of the largest benefit affairs planned for the season by Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Purple and white lilacs were used in profusion about the rooms. The high scores were won by Mrs. Phil Newmyer and Mrs. E. E. Bragg. Tea was served to the guests at the small tables.

Those who made reservations for the afternoon, inviting guests from Albany, Dallas and Jefferson, as well as many local women, were: Mrs. John Eakin, Mrs. George A. White, Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. Homer Gouley, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Miss Esther Morris, Mrs. Alton Hurley, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. Elmo S. White, Mrs. Harry M. Styles, Mrs. E. M. Hoffmell, Miss Rita Looney, Mrs. Romeo Gouley and Mrs. James Helzel.

Always, in the years past, one of the most gala events of the entire social year has been the dance sponsored by the members of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church. And this year's dance on Friday evening at the Crystal gardens, bids fair to maintain the same standard.

A large number of Salem people are actively promoting the success of this affair, the group including those who have been interested in every similar dance that has been a high-light in the city's gayety. Aside from raising funds for the church, the committee is intent on giving to every guest who comes the utmost in enjoyment. Arrangements have already been made for splendid music for the evening.

In the group of those actively sponsoring one of the leading affairs in a full week are: Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs.

Edwin L. Baker, Mrs. H. D. Chambers, Mrs. Chester Cox, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. J. D. Caughill, Mrs. Allan Carbin, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Miss Mary Chadwick, Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mrs. B. L. Darby, Mrs. Frederick Deckebach, Mrs. Frank Durbin, Mrs. Homer Egan, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Miss Mildred Goin, Mrs. P. M. Gregory, Mrs. L. S. Geer, Mrs. Alton Hurley, Mrs. Chilton Irwin, Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. J. R. Luper, Mrs. J. E. Lau, Miss Sarah Lansing, Mrs. Victor MacKenzie, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. A. C. Perry, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. Hal Patton, Mrs. D. C. Roberts, Mrs. F. J. Rupert, Mrs. J. J. Rottle, Mrs. Amos Strong, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. E. F. Slade, Mrs. Rex Sanford, Mrs. Frank Spears, the Gray Belle, Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger, Mrs. Frederick Thielson, Miss Ellen Thielson, Mrs. Willam S. Walton, Mrs. W. L. West, Mrs. G. L. Williams, Mrs. George A. White and Miss Maimi Victor.

The Kensington club will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Pratt, 340 N. Liberty street.

The Past Matrons' association will meet on Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Godfrey. The hostess of the evening will be Mrs. Vass, Mrs. Gillette, and Mrs. Ida Babcock.

Mrs. Russell Catlin is entertaining as her house guest, Mrs. Charles Fearl of Springfield, Mo.

At the meeting on Monday evening of Hal Hubbard camp and auxiliary plans were made for a joint meeting the first Monday in May with the Veterans in Woodburn.

A reception will be held Friday evening, April 24, at 7:30 o'clock, at the First Methodist church, honoring Rev. and Mrs. Fred C. Taylor with members of the Ladies' Aid society of the church as hostesses. A general invitation is extended to all those interested to meet Rev. and Mrs. Taylor at this time.

The public is cordially invited to hear Ex-Senator Isaac Lee Patterson on Friday evening at the Eola schoolhouse when he will talk on Community thrift, under the auspices of the Eola Community club.

"DIAMOND DYE" IT A BEAUTIFUL COLOR

Perfect home dyeing and tinting is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes. Just dip in cold water to tint soft, delicate shades, or boil to give rich, permanent colors. Each 15-cent package contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint lingerie, silks, ribbons, skirts, waists, dresses, coats, stockings, sweaters, draperies, coverings, hangings, everything new.

Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—and tell your druggist whether the material you wish to color is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods.—Adv.

The fact, itself, that Superintendent J. A. Churchill is to be the speaker assures a splendid attendance for the meeting of the Salem branch of the National League of Women Voters at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the city library. Mr. Churchill, a most agreeable speaker, will center his talk on "The School System of Oregon."

Mrs. John W. Roland is entertaining as her house guest Mrs. Horace D. Ramsdel of Portland.

The Faculty Women's club of Willamette university will meet on Thursday afternoon at Lausanne hall as the guests of Miss Frances M. Richards and Mrs. G. L. Rathbun.

The regular business meeting of the American Legion auxiliary was held on Monday evening in McCornack hall. Plans were made for a supper to be held in the near future for the raising of funds to send delegates to Prineville to the convention there. After the business meeting the members went to the Armory to view the educational picture being shown under the auspices of the game commission, coming back to McCornack hall for a banquet given by the legion.

At the next meeting, on May 11, the social committee will include Mrs. Miles McKee, Mrs. Willis Vinson, Mrs. Libby, Mrs. Brazier Small and Mrs. J. R. George.

In the five hundred the prizes went to Othoe White and Garnet Harra. At the refreshment hour the hostess, Mrs. T. W. Davies, was assisted by Mrs. C. E. Barbour and Mrs. John Spong.

The guests of the evening included: Miss Bernice Kirkwood, Miss Mildred Spong, Miss Gladys Rafferty, Miss Dorothy Hines, Miss Genevieve Barbour, Mrs. G. H. Taylor of Kelso, Wash., Othoe White, Paul Davies, Floyd Kinzer, Garnet Harra, Loyal White and La Doty Davies.

STAYTON NEWS

Worth Smith who left Stayton a few weeks ago for St. Helens, where he embarked in business, was here over the week-end visiting with hom folks. "Beau" as his friends call him, is apparently well pleased with his new location.

H. J. Rowe, manager for the Mountain States Power company plant at this place was out of town Monday looking after outside business, driving to Albany and return.

George Davis and daughter, Miss Viva Davis and Mrs. Cora Barrett, drove over to Lyons Sunday where they spent the day visiting with Mrs. Barrett's relatives.

Through the agency of Mrs. O. V. White, many Stayton people contributed to the sinking fund for the Old Peoples' home in Salem during the drive which was on the past week.

Mrs. Dennis Brickner left last week for Long View, Wash., where she was summoned by telegram announcing the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Fred Bopp; and other members of the Bopp family, all of whom are suffering of pneumonia.

Fisher & Sons' store room in the Roy building is in the hands of an interior decorator this week undergoing a complete renovation, the walls are being refinished and other improvements made. W. O. Cooper is doing the work.

Mrs. W. W. Crabtree made a trip to Salem Saturday where she spent the day with relatives. Her small nephew, Billy Powell, returned with her for a fortnight's stay.

Mrs. Peter Barkmeyer was an incoming passenger on the evening stage from Salem Saturday, having spent the day in the capital city on a shopping expedition.

The J. M. Mielki family who spent the week end in Portland, where they were guests at the home of their son, George E. Mielki, returned home Sunday afternoon.

Ivan McDonald was absent from business at the Pastime pool hall several days last week, while attending to outside business in the vicinity of Tillamook.

B. A. Schaefer, proprietor of the Stayton Variety store on Third street, has been confined to his home for a number of days with an aggravated case of flu. Miss Mary Kaser, a high school student has been looking after the store during his illness.

Mrs. A. J. Richards is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Ella Bargefeldt of Spokane, at her home here. Mrs. Bargefeldt arrived during the week for an extended stay at the Richards home.

Regardless of the drizzling rain and a wet field, Stayton played good ball Friday afternoon when the local high school team defeated the Lebanon nine 13 to a goose egg. The game was played on the home diamond, and is the second game of the season.

Francis Hoereth of McMinnville was here during the week visiting old friends about town. A few years ago Mr. Hoereth was employed at the electric plant here; and had many friends among the younger set.

Quite a number of Stayton's young people drove over to Sublimity on Friday evening where they attended the dancing party held in the COF hall. A very enjoyable time was had by those in attendance.

Frank Rauscher of Sublimity was here Saturday making arrangements for the wiring of the new service station which he is rushing to completion in the neighboring town.

Halfway Mark is Reached In Kimball Financial Drive

The financial campaign put on by the Kimball College of Theology passed the halfway mark Tuesday and the total reports were around $1200. The drive is put on to secure $2000 to apply on the current budget for the year. The teams report that they have met with favorable response in most places and that conditions are favorable for securing the entire amount in a short time.

Cracked Toes Sore, Tender Feet

Irritating acid perspiration from the foot pores produce and aggravates cracked toes, itching between toes, rawness and tender, aching, swollen feet.

The moment you apply "Phillips Milk of Magnesia," all this soreness, itching and tiredness disappears. Just pat it on, it dries instantly. Nothing else stops foot odors, relieves foot soreness and foot weariness so promptly as this harmless antacid.

Insist upon genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia." All drug stores sell 25-cent bottles.—adv.
