Frye cure perfects
natural quality

The natural quality that is the result of using only the choicest young, grain-fed porkers in the preparation of Frye's 'Delicious' Hams and Bacon is perfected by the very mild curing process which keeps in every ounce of natural goodness, adds an unusual piquancy and makes par-boiling unnecessary.

These sweet flavory products come to you FRESH from the great Frye Establishment with the least possible delay—one more reason why you should ask at grocery or market for Frye's "Delicious" Brand.

THREE WILLAMETTE ARTISTS GIVE CONCERT

Liebling of Chicago. After both groups of numbers Miss Melton was deluged with baskets and bouquets (Schubert-Wilhelmij) and "Liesbestreud" (Kreisler) as closing numbers, with the Gavotte as an encore.

The two accompanists of the evening, Miss Jean Hobson and Mrs. Norris B. Stone, supported their respective artists with distinctive piano art.

The stage was an effective background for the appearing artists with innumerable red tulips massing vividly in wicker and brass bowls and baskets on pedestals.

Senator Clark Selected Head For Blind Bureau

Resignation of Mrs. Ella Goodin, acting superintendent of the Oregon employment institution for blind, Portland, was accepted

Wednesday by the board of control and W. J. H. Clark, state senator of Portland, elected as superintendent. Mrs. Clark will act as matron. The combined salary of the two will be $2500 a year.

In her resignation Mrs. Goodin requested the board to give her employment as matron in some other state institution where the responsibility is not so great. This will be done if a place can be found, it was indicated at the meeting.

Tell your eastern friends about the progressive spirit of the City of Salem. We want more people here, not only to share the city with us, but to help us build it.

WAR BRIDE HAS GIRL BABY TWINS

Now comes a pair of twins born to a French war bride and living right here in Salem, where they have been overlooked in the Statesman census and in a class all by themselves. Mrs. B. L. Stanton, 489 North Twenty-third, the mother, wants to know if there are any other French war brides in the county.

The two twins are girls, Jeanna and Jeannette, and are three years old. One is darker than the other and both are sturdy little youngsters.

Another set of girl twins was also reported Wednesday. These are the Misses Ruth and Ruby Starr, 21 years old, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Starr, of route 9.

OREGON JEWELERS TO MEET IN CITY

The Oregon State Jewelers' association will meet here May 11 and 12 and the Salem jewelers are making extensive preparations for their entertainment. A. A. Keene is president of the association and over 150 delegates will attend the conference here, with the headquarters at the Marion hotel. The first day of the meeting will be devoted to registration and general organization, with several short addresses scheduled for the afternoon.

A banquet is scheduled for the second day of the meeting. Committees who will care for the visitors are as follows: Reception: O. A. Hartman, chairman; H. T. Love, C. C. Moon and C. A. Luthy. Entertainment: H. T. Love, chairman; C. T. Pomeroy and U. S. Miller.

Boost for the linen mill. It will bring prosperity to Salem and to the entire Willamette valley.
