THE HOME OF Prof. and Mrs. W. F. Fargo was the scene on Tuesday evening of an unusually delightful meeting of the Salem Writers' club. Grace Elizabeth Smith presided as chairman of the evening. The rooms of the Fargo home were attractive with bowls of lavender and white lilies.

Prof. F. G. Franklin opened the program with a study from his book on "Naturalization Between 1775-1795," a publication of the American Historical society. Charles J. Lisle gave an admirably written story of western life, while Perry Reigelman's story, "The End of the Years," was the source of considerable interesting comment. Robert Paulus reported a number of changes which he has made in his play, "The Alabaster Box," and showed a group of color photographs. Miss Edna Garfield, who is making quite a name for herself as a writer of occasional verse, read a poem which she composed for the Oregon City home products dinner. Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, one of the club's newest members, read "My Prayer," while "Ephraim" was the name of a poem read by Mrs. F. S. Barton, who will be hostess for the next meeting of the group on the first Tuesday in May.

Mrs. Claudius Thayer was made an honorary member of the club. At the refreshment hour Mrs. Fargo was assisted by Mrs. J. M. Clifford and Miss Marie Roberts.

A number of prominent Salem matrons are motoring to Aurora today to attend the county federation of Women's clubs.

The Tillicum club members met on an enjoyable spring season dance Tuesday evening in Derby hall which was converted into a garden of flowers and butterflies.

For the new club year the president of the group will be P. E. Fullerton, with Roma C. Hunter as secretary. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Holmes were special guests for the gala dance.

The club personnel includes Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Mishler, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mar-nach, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Demaris, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Day, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. White, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Huckestein, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kapphahn, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rafferty, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Carey F. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. White, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dams, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McElvain, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lester, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mr. and Mrs. Hackway, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Carper, and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin.

A pupil of Miss Elizabeth Levy, Miss Alice Skinner of Independence, had the distinction of winning second place among the solo violinists in the musical tournament last week-end at Forest Grove. Miss Skinner, who is a sophomore in high school, has had all of her musical training under Miss Levy.

Successful as it was enjoyable was the anniversary dinner Tuesday of Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star, with covers arranged for 165. Distinct credit for the management of all the details goes to Mrs. Alice Coolidge and Mrs. Amos Vass, who were ably assisted by Mrs. Rachel Reeder, Mrs. Sarah Oliver, Mrs. Grace Gil-noon will be given to reports and general business of the convention, and the afternoon to a memorial for deceased members of the past year. A discussion of papers on the work of the union will be held.

Mrs. Ada Jolly of Portland, state corresponding secretary, will be present. Special music and noon luncheon will be provided by the Woodburn women.

The Willamette University Faculty Women's club will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Lausanne hall as guests of Miss Frances M. Richards and Mrs. G. L. Rathbun.

Miss Arvilla Conn, who formerly lived in Salem, was a recent guest from Portland at the home of Miss Gussie Niles. Miss Conn's many friends will be pleased to learn of the announcement of her engagement to Mr. Adrian C. Hercock of Wenatchee, Wash. An early date in May has been set for the time of the wedding. Miss Conn has recently been employed in the Portland office of the Oregon state industrial commission.

The Kensington club will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Pratt, 340 N. Liberty street.

The ladies of the GAR will meet with Mrs. George Smith, 965 N. Fifth street on next Saturday. A program celebrating General U. S. Grant's birthday and Appomattox day will be given, followed by a social hour. Courades are invited.

"Little Women," Louisa M. Alcott's famous story book for boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 10, will be depicted by the Gervais high school dramatic club Friday, April 24, in St. Joseph's auditorium, corner of Chemeketa and Wimper streets.

The players have been selected with infinite care, each character portraying the one in the book to a most satisfying idealism. A number of Salem residents motored to Gervais last week when the play was presented Thursday and Friday to a large audience in the Gervais opera house. The play was so well rendered a request was made by the Salem patrons to repeat the four-act comedy in Salem, which is one of the most outstanding pieces of high school dramatic work which has been presented in the entire country.

"A Perplexing Situation," a comedy in two acts, will be given at the Central Howell school on Friday evening, April 24, by the young people of that community. A basket social will be held following the play, which is being coached by Miss Richardson of Silverton. Admission fee will be 35 and 15c, the proceeds to be used for school improvement.

The cast is as follows: Mrs. Middleton, Frances Kirsh; Mr. Middleton, Francis Liechty; Uncle Ep, Lowell Lambert; Sue Middleton, Mabel Werner; Jessie Middleton, Zella De Sart; Maud, Hulda Roth; Lucy Fair, Edith Liechty; Mr. Wilson, Ernest Roth;

Salem friends of Judge and Mrs. Charles H. Carey of Portland will be interested in the trip they are taking to California.

"Janice Meredith," the drama of the American Revolution, is one of the attractive films of the season, and will show on April 25, 26 and 27 at the Oregon theater under the sponsorship of the American Association of University Women.

Presidents of the club who are endorsing the film are asked to be present, with two representatives from their club, for the previewing at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning at the Oregon theater.

The Marion county WCTU convention will convene in Woodburn Wednesday, April 29. The fore-ridge-Taylor, the musical presentation of Longfellow's famous poem. Mr. Jue is a popular Chinese tenor and has appeared at leading playhouses all along the coast from Seattle to Los Angeles. It will be an opportunity to hear Mr. Jue at his best, as his solo is the most difficult number on the program.

Roy Bryson of Eugene, who was enthusiastically received at the glee clubs' combined concert at the woman's building last Thursday, being called back for three encores. He will be the only other soloist to appear on the program.

The program will contain only classical music. As the clubs have been working on the numbers since October, they have developed exquisite shading and fine tonal colors. This is the only university in the northwest to have its glee clubs render a program composed of classical music entirely.

John Stark Evans, assistant dean of music, is director of the glee clubs.
