On Friday afternoon at 2:30 the women of the First Christian church will be hostesses to all the missionary societies of Salem at the First Christian church. Dean Ava Milam will be the speaker for this interesting meeting. Miss Milam is the head of the Home Economics department of OAC but for some years was a missionary in China and will tell of conditions in China and the work that is being done there. Miss Milam is also an enthusiast for the highest type of American citizenship and home life to be presented to the Chinese students here in America and will probably give Salem women some inspiration along that line. Mrs. F. A. Elliot, recently elected president of the Salem federation of international missionary societies will preside at the meeting. Mrs. Harry Styles will sing, with Mrs. Frank Linn at the organ. Tea and Chinese rice wafers will be served by the women of the First Christian church. All women are invited.

The Women's Union of the First Congregational church will hold a special meeting today at the church, beginning at 10 o'clock. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. The meeting has been called on account of the large amount of sewing on hand.

Mrs. R. M. Hider was hostess on Monday for the members of the Monday bridge club entertaining with an attractive bridge tea at her home. Yellow tulips gave the floral motif in the rooms. Invited guests for the afternoon were: Mrs. Hollister B. McGuire of Oakland, Cal., Mrs. David Eyre, Mrs. Hal D. Patton, and Mrs. William Bell. The guest prize of the afternoon was awarded to Mrs. David W. Eyre.

In the club group were: Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Fritz Siede, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Connel Dyer, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Arthur Rain, Mrs. Hugh McGannon, Mrs. Ernest Kay, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Keith Powell, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., and the hostess, Mrs. Hider.

Mrs. E. T. Barnes is the houseguest of her daughter, Mrs. Willard Seton Kaufman in Seattle.

Attractive among the dinner parties preceding the dance of Monday evening at which Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Grier, and Mrs. Elker were hostesses, was that at which Mrs. Frank Myers and Mrs. Carl B. Webb entertained at 7 o'clock at the Spa. Covers were placed for 14. The lovely pastel tints were used in flowers, candles, and favors. Spirea, lilacs and tulips combined with maiden-hair fern in a colorful center basket while pink and yellow candles were used in crystal holders.

Particular interest is attached to the soloists who will appear this evening with the Willamette University Ladies Glee club in their Salem concert at 8 o'clock in Waller hall.

Miss Trista Wenger a well-known Salem contralto, has a group of distinctive numbers, as does Miss Faye Spaulding, of Cascade

Looks who especially pleased audiences on the trip. Miss Faye Sparks, assistant director of the club, who will take part in the program, will graduate in June from the school of music. Miss Gladys McIntire is another favorite soloist who will receive her degree in music this year. Miss Aldeane Smith, a fourth soloist, is a freshman, and has an exceptional lyric soprano voice.

Miss Helen Selig, an artist-violinist and pupil of William Wallace Graham, will be the evening's violinist. Miss Mildred Grant, the club accompanist, will give a special piano solo. Miss Sadie Jo Read, who took the leading role in "Ice Cream," will be the reader.

A group of especially well-chosen ensemble numbers as well as college songs will be given. The feature-skit will be "Dutch Love" by Aldeane Smith and Trista Wenger.

The members of the MacDowell club will be the special guests of the evening.

The music and physical education department of the Parish school, under the direction of Mrs. Alice Thompson and Miss Etta White, will give a program at the school gymnasium Friday evening May 1, at 7:30 p. m. A small admission of 10c will be charged. The following program will be given:

The Salem Music Teachers' association will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Harry M. Styles, 780 N. Summer street.

Miss Lena Belle Tartar was hostess last evening following the concert at the high school for a delightful supper party at the Gray Belle. The participants in the splendidly given concert were her guests. Iris and tulips centered the table.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop returned home last evening from Portland, having motored down on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop were accompanied to Portland by Chauncey and Roy Bishop, the former going on to Pendleton Monday night.

The story telling division of the Salem Art league will meet in the rooms of the Salem public library this evening at 7:30.

The ladies' social circle of the Central Congregational church will hold their April silver tea on Monday, April 28, in the church parlors. Among those on the hostess committee for the afternoon are Mrs. J. M. Robertson, Mrs. A. M. Reed and Mrs. Coates.

The Delta Alpha class of the First Methodist church met on Monday evening for a banquet that was enjoyable from every standpoint, in the church dining room. Covers were placed for 48 members and guests of the club. All arrangements for the evening, including the serving of the banquet, were made by members of the class. The decorations were unusually lovely, a basket of yellow tulips centering the main table. Lighted yellow candles in
