> The May Day festivity is one of the pretty events of the year and the program to be given this season is said to be more elaborate than in former years. It will consist of folk and May pole dances, of the crowning of the queen, Cora Severson, and of solo dances by Margaret Simms. The high school orchestra will furnish the music

The Lutheran brotherhood conention will bring a large number visitors to Silverton and if the present weather continues reports show that even more visitors than were at first expected will be present for the two meetings on Sunday morning and afternon. Many will very likely also remain for the meeting Sunday evening. The Saturday evening program at Trinity church is also open to the public. This consists of music and
