SONG OF A ROMANY MAID

'Tis the open road that is calling,
And my caged soul longs to be free,
To go with the wind to the rim trail's end,
To answer its call to me.

It's the Gypsy blood that's in my veins,
And the Gypsy heart in my breast,
It's the Gypsy feet that can't stay still
That long for the trail—without rest.

For I'm a child of the roving wild,
Of the tribe that can't stay still,
For I've drunk in the dust of the wanderlust,
And must drink and drink my fill.

—Naomi Phelps.

Since Mrs. Edward McDowell, the wife of the great American composer, is an honorary member of the sorority it was fitting that the program on Wednesday should be a MacDowell musicale. Miss Dorothea Steusloff told many interesting facts in relation to the Petersburg colony where the Alpha Chi Omega maintain a cottage that has been occupied by a number of present day celebrities.

The honor-guests of the evening included: Mrs. W. H. Steusloff, Mrs. W. P. Babcock, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Meyers, Mrs. Chambers, Miss Beryl Holt, and Mrs. O. F. Victor.

Mrs. Thomas H. Galloway and Mrs. Carl B. Webb entertained on Wednesday evening with a beautifully appointed dinner party with covers placed for eighteen.

A variety of spring flowers in the pastel shades were used about the rooms where five hundred was the after-dinner diversion. To Mrs. Charles E. Bates went the evening's high score, while Paul V. Johnson won the consolation award.

In the group for one of the season's enjoyable evenings were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bates, Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hamilton, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Webb and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Galloway.

The meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary planned for tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. H. R. White has been postponed indefinitely on account of illness in the family.

Dr. and Mrs. Mark S. Skiff have as their guests today Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kneedes and Mr. and Mrs. Mark S. Skiff, Jr., all of Portland.

The meeting of the Alpha Chi Omega alumnae association on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Claudius Thayer was one of the most delightful of the season, when the mothers of the members were invited guests. The hostesses of the evening were Mrs. G. F. Chambers and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert. Carnations, the Alpha Chi

QUEEN LUCIA I AND HER ATTENDANTS

Miss Lucia Caró (center), an attendant, Miss Elizabeth McClure (right) and Miss Jenelle Vandevort (left) who will be crowned Queen of the May at the Willamette University Junior Week-End and May Day festivities.

Col. and Mrs. E. Hofer have as their house guest, Mrs. Mary Kellogg of Anchorage, Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Pearson (Maude Durbin) of Portland are receiving felicitations upon the birth of a little daughter on the morning of May day. The little lady will be named Barbara for her aunt, Mrs. Curtis Cross. Mrs. Pearson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Darbin.

Mrs. Merle Rosecrans entertained delightfully for the members of her bridge club on Thursday at her home on North Cottage street. Tulips in shades of pink and yellow and golden deronium were used in the rooms. The prize of the afternoon went to Mrs. W. L. Phillips, while Mrs. W. J. Busick received the consolation award.

At the tea hour Mrs. Rosenkrans was assisted by Mrs. D. A. Hodge and Mrs. W. L. Phillips.

Mrs. Frank Shnedeker and Mrs. John Lanterman are home from a three day motor trip to Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley left on Wednesday by motor for a week's trip to Vancouver, B. C., where they are being entertained as house guests at the home of Mrs. G. E. McClosson, a sister of Mrs. Livesley.

One of the delightful luncheons of the week was that on Tuesday at which Mrs. B. L. Steeves was hostess entertaining at her attractive home on Court street. In the pastel color scheme pink and lavender sweet peas were used as a centerpiece, filling a lovely cut-glass bowl. Favors in exquisite tones of pin and lavender were used.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. Arletta M. Page, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Seymour Jones, and the hostess, Mrs. B. L. Steeves.

Mrs. Steeves has been hostesses to a series of similar affairs during the season.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman are at home at their new denise at 660 North Winter street.

The piano pupils of Mrs. W. F. Powers (Mabel Smith) gave a charmingly informal May day musicale at the home of Mrs. Powers' parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith. The house was tastefully decorated with spring flowers and at the close of each number the pupil was presented with a May basket. Punch and wafers were served after the program. Miss Leta Waters and Miss Helen Berg assisted the hostess.

Preceding the musical hour, the guests were entertained by the girls of the school with three dance numbers in costume, Dutch.

Doing your own work?

Many women are finding this just the extra help they need

Many women who are now doing their own work, find an occasional lift from our laundry just the extra help they need.

When pillows, wash rugs, blankets, comforts, spreads, or curtains need washing, they simply bundle them up and phone for our representative.

They know that their work will be done promptly and well—much better than they could do it at home, because we are especially prepared for it.

They know, too, that our charges will be reasonable, and that they can rely upon us to do just as we say.

Are you taking advantage of this opportunity to lighten your household tasks? Call us up today, and let us tell you more about it.

MRS. C. C. CLARK was elected regent of Chemeketa chapter. Daughters of the American Revolution, yesterday afternoon at the luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Elmo S. White, at which Mrs. L. W. Potter and Mrs. Mary Lisle were hostesses with Mrs. White, honoring Mrs. Russell Catlin, retiring regent.

Other officers of the chapter were elected as follows: Vice regent, Mrs. Homer Conley; secretary, Mrs. John Harbison; treasurer, Mrs. Alton B. Hurley; historian, Miss Lillian Applegate; registrar, Miss Eva Perree; librarian, Mrs. W. E. Hanson; chaplain, Mrs. Frances Cornell, and director, Mrs. A. A. Underhill. Formal installation will be held at the June meeting.

Thirty-eight members of the chapter were guests at the beautiful luncheon with covers arranged at three tables, each festive with its May pole centerpiece and pastel streamers. Miniature dolls marked the places. Lighted tapers and additional spring flowers made the rooms attractive.

The Salem Boys' chorus will give their concert on Tuesday, May 26, at the First Christian church, this being an event that is always anticipated with unusual interest.

Again a letter replete with interest has come from Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr., following a tour through Italy and southern France. To Mrs. Clifford Brown, the recipient, she writes descriptively of Rome where she was impressed not only by the beauty of famous things but also by the old world grandeur of the Italian city. The famous leaning Tower of Pisa was infinitely more exquisite and delicate than pictures ever hinted at. Mrs. Burghardt writes. The Vatican, with its marvelous paintings and sculpture, was the vast satisfaction that it always is to art lovers. Especially interesting music, due to the proximity of the Easter season, was heard constantly in the fine old churches and cathedrals.

Italian opera, proved quite as interesting from the standpoint of the audience as from the stage, the individuals all studying their librettos with such peculiar interest. Mrs. Burghardt comments upon the loveliness and freshness of the many English violets; upon the tremendousness of "The Transfiguration" in color; on the Mediterranean, and on the beautiful ancient willow.

In her letter she enclosed pressed blossoms of boxwood and of a little lavender flower taken from Keats' tomb.

Continued plans are being made in interest of the community musicale on Tuesday evening at the Armory in observance of National Music week. Two hundred and fifty voices will participate in the event, representing eight local organizations.

The Piety Hill club will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Edgar Hartley. Assistant hostesses with Mrs. Hartley will be Mrs. S. P. Kimball and Mrs. W. P. Fowle.
