Marie-Louise D'Arc Kiger, young Tacoma singer, who is steadily climbing to the throne, once held by the world's sweetest singer, "Jenny Lind," under the able tutorage of Professor T. H. J. Ryan, formerly of New York City.

The voice of Marie-Louise will lift you from the rut, and you'll never drop back again. Here is not a manufactured voice, it's clear, pure and sweet as the tinkle of a silver bell. It's the blessing of the living God. Like the perfume of wild flowers, the sparkling, laughing crystalline water of a mountain rill, when Marie sings the world is still.

The human race high and low, worship purity, are fascinated thereby in whatever form it appears, air, water, sunshine, gold, silver and diamonds; the voice of Marie-Louise, is pure music.

"Blessed by a voice so sweet and true A gift so pure and good. She'll help the world to understand, That God is truly good."

Marie-Louise D'Arc Kiger, the six-teen year old Pacific Coast Nightengale, will appear in concert in Salem at the Armory, one night only, Wednesday, June 10th, 1925. A return engagement could not be booked inside of five years at any price. Lasy and mean at any price. Her gift shall never be sold to the highest bidder, but must be spread like sunshine all over the earth. Miss Kiger has the highest singing voice in the world to-day, reaching the last F in the treble clef. (Watch this space next Sunday)
