

SELLWOOD TEAM DEFEATS PRISON

Convicts Lose Hard Baseball Contest Sunday by Score of 10 to 2

The Sellwood Athletic club baseball team of Portland had little trouble winning from the penitentiary team on the prison grounds Sunday afternoon. Inability of the prison players to connect with the offerings of Rogers, twirler for Sellwood, coupled with plenty of timely stick work by the Platano bunch was the cause of the one-sided score.

The prison pitchers struck out 25 men, walked five and hit three with pitched balls. Rogers struck out 10.

Score—

R. H. E.	10	11	3
Sellwood	10	11	3
Penitentiary	2	4	3

JUNIORS OFFER PLAY ON FRIDAY

"Mr. Pim Passes By" Added Attraction for May Day Week-end Here

"Mr. Pim Passes By" is to be presented by the Junior class of Willamette University Friday night, as a special feature of the May Day exercises to be held at Willamette May 8 and 9. The play, written by A. A. Milne, is being directed by Mrs. Smith, of Portland, assisted by Miss Ruth Ross and Miss Edna Schrieber.

The members of the cast are well adapted to their parts and it is expected to be one of the best dramatic productions given by Willamette students this year.

The Junior play is an annual event at the university as every Junior class for a number of years back has engaged in this activity.

The members of the cast and the production staff are working hard on the production so that it will be well in hand by the time specified. A practice play will be given some time in the near future so that the members of the cast will have had practical experience in handling their parts before the main presentation is given.

Close up the second linen mill proposition.

State flax industry is getting a stride. It will be going stronger than ever from now on.

The way things look now, the state flax industry will have a good sized surplus of fiber for the second linen mill, after supplying the Miles mill.

The two men from Ireland, here to have charge of the machinery of the Miles linen mill, visited the state flax plant yesterday. They found some things there, installed by Chief Engineer John Quinland, that are better than they have seen in Ireland, Belgium or France; especially in scutching machinery appliances.

Sugar beets is the Slogan subject for Thursday's Statesman. There are numbers of people here who have had experience with sugar beets in other states. The Slogan man wants to hear from them. Today or tomorrow. Let's all work together for a beet sugar factory for Salem. We can get it.

Some of our farmers putting in their corn and flax and other crops have been working their tractors 24 hours a day. Ball boys, at Turner, putting in flax, lost only four hours last week. They have been running 12 hour shifts.

If one-half of the world doesn't know how the other half lives, it isn't for lack of curiosity.

Many single men think they can enjoy life more with their present habits than they could with a wife.

People do things openly now that would have made good whispering in the old days.

Assistant Principal Will Teach in Eugene Next Year

To head the University high school at Eugene is to be the position of U. G. Moore, who has been assistant principal of the Salem schools, according to the reports made known yesterday. His salary, which was $1800 here will be $2250 there. Opportunity has been offered, so that he will be able to take five hours of college work at the University of Oregon which will apply towards his master's degree.

Mr. Moore, a graduate of the University of Oregon, spent six years at McMinville, being principal of the Junior high there for

F. C. Wooten, another Salem teacher will be on the staff with Mr. Moore, and will be head of the social science department of the University high school. Mr. Wooten is to get a B. A. degree this fall.

Many People Hear First Sermon by Rev. Ward

Rev. Charles E. Ward gave his first sermon as pastor of the First Congregational church to a packed house Sunday. In the morning he spoke on "God's Way With Men," and developed his theme by the use of a number of illustrations, showing that the way was one of love instead of force.

"Are you a fool," was the subject for the evening service. He told about the farmer who spent all his time growing grain and building new barns to the exclusion of the better things of this life. The forgetting of God in this life is the part that is foolish, he brought out.

Rev. Ward is not sure, whether he will continue the policy of showing pictures Sunday afternoon and stated that for awhile he would give sermons in the Sunday evening.

The church was elaborately decorated.

Two Men Tied in Semi-Final Golf Play

Hickson and McLaughlin tied in the semi-finals for the Al Krause trophy played Sunday on the Illahee Country club course. Two weeks ago the men played to a tie, and they will play for the third time Wednesday. The winner will meet Rex Sanford in the finals.

ROUTINE AFFAIRS OCCUPY COUNCIL

Mass of Detail Transacted Last Night; Many Petitions Received

A total of 22 bills were read for the third time last night at the city council. Then levied assessments for the construction of cement sidewalks in Broadway, Burlington and other additions to the city. A mass of detail and minor matters was considered, the majority being petitions.

The opening was made on the petition of the Oregon Pulp & Paper company for the use of the Court street dock, which will be investigated. Then followed the adoption of petitions for the improvement of John Brooks, Liberty, Fairgrounds road and McCoy street.

T. N. Rossick asked permission to erect a service station in the Highway addition, while the petition of Harry Steinbock to erect a news stand at State and High, adjacent to the Oregon Electric depot received an unfavorable report.

Petitions were heard by the sidewalk committee to construct cement sidewalks on North Fourth, Winter, a sewer on Frickey street. A favorable report was returned on the petition of Paul Gold to operate a junk shop and auto wrecking house on North Commercial.

Seven applications for licenses to conduct soft drink parlors were referred. A petition for a street

SORE, TENDER FEET RAW, ITCHY TOES

Irritating acid perspiration from the foot pores produces and aggravates cracked toes, itching between toes, rawness and tender, aching, swollen feet.

The moment you apply "Phillips Milk of Magnesia," all this soreness, itching and tiredness disappears. Just pat it on, it dries instantly. Nothing else stops foot odors, relieves foot soreness and foot weariness so promptly as this harmless antacid.

Insist upon genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia." All drugstores sell 25-cent bottles.—Adv.

LEGION SEEKING GRAVE LOCATIONS

Markers Will be Placed on All Ex-Service Men on Decoration Day

Names and location of all graves of ex-service men in Marion county are wanted by Capital Post No. 2, American Legion, in order that special grave markers may be placed Decoration day. The names should be given to Don Wiggins or Charles Goodwin, adjutant.

At a meeting of the post last night Vic McKenzie, vice commander, was named chairman of the American Legion endowment campaign for Salem. The quota is $4000 and every effort will be made to raise this amount in 48 hours.

Dr. Carlton Smith explained in detail the voluntary subscription plan that will eventually lead to home ownership for the post. About 150 men turned out for the meeting. An entertainment and feed will be furnished by the American Legion Auxiliary May 18.

GREB MATCH POSTPONED
COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 4.—Rain and cold weather caused the postponement until Wednesday of the match between Harry Greb, world's middleweight champion and Billy Britton, scheduled to take place here tonight.

MANY POSTURES ARE DEFECTIVE

Survey of Salem Grade Schools Is Completed by Miss Grace Snook

A total of 113 girls and 100 boys were reported to have defective posture, of the 961 girls and 981 boys of the grade schools in Salem, according to the report made by Miss Grace Snook, physical education supervisor. The defective postures can be improved by exercise, it is stated.

The first examination last November disclosed that 34.9 per cent of the pupils needed posture training. This total had been reduced to 16.9 by the time of the second examination in February. The exercises given by Miss Snook to the pupils needing it, was the reason for the decrease in the total.

The following percentage of the different schools need attention at present: Garfield, 241 enrolled, 4.5 per cent needing attention; Englewood, 237, 7.6 per cent; Yew Park, 284 enrolled, 10.5 per cent; Highland 270, 11.1 per cent; Richmond, 229, 11.3 per cent; Grant, 296, 14.1; Lincoln, 301, 14.9 per cent; Washington portable, 60, 21.6 per cent.
