ILLIHEE COURSE IN FINE SHAPE

First Match in Tri-City Tourney Will be Played Here on Sunday

Due to the prompt and efficient work of Graham P. Sharkey, the Illihe Country club course is in the finest shape that it has been since the grass greens were inaugurated. Sunday was a delightful day and despite the fishing expeditions a good number of players were on hand.

The first match of the tri-city tournament between Eugene, Corvallis and Salem, will take place next Sunday at the Illihe Country club grounds. There will be 20 men to a team and it is hoped that some of the boys will get out and practice with a little more diligence because they certainly need it. If Salem does not win this year in the tri-city tournament, the cup will go permanently to Eugene or Corvallis.

Several of the members of the municipal courses in Portland have signified their intentions of becoming associate members with Illihe which will be an added appreciation of the efforts of the officers of the country club to make it what it should be, the finest 9-hole course in the state.

Call to Bats Is Heard by Kiwanian Ball Team

A call for any Kiwanian that can stop a ball was issued Tuesday noon by Fred Broer and a baker's dozen players reported on the field last night. They went through their paces and the organization plans a big surprise for the Lions on Thursday, May 14. Last year the Kiwanis trimmed the Lions, and according to Mr. Broer, are out to do the same thing this year.

The Kiwanis have Carl Gabrielson and Broer in the battery and a lineup of outfield that is wonderful, according to the reports.

HIGH SCHOOL TO MEET OAC ROOKS

The Salem high Sluggers have a game arranged with the OAC Rooks for this afternoon, the game to be played at 3:30 o'clock on Oxford field diamond. The Rooks have been going strong, but it is thought the Salem team has been going one better. They have played four games this season and lost one by one score. They will do better with the Rooks, it is promised.

The Rooks took a victory from Franklin high school last Saturday by a 2 to 1 score, and they hope to do the same with the local sluggers.

Fabrey and Kelley will probably be the battery for the Salem school.

Kelly Breaks Finger in Game at Valsetz Sunday

Don Kelley, crack catcher of the Salem high school nine, received a broken index finger Sunday when he was playing with the Valsetz nine. It is thought, perhaps, the injured member will be brought around in time for Kelley to be part of the battery for the Salem team when they meet the Aggie Rooks this evening on Oxford park diamond.

FIELD MICE TO PLAY ALLEY CATS

Junior Twilight League to Resume at 5 O'Clock This Afternoon

This afternoon at 5:15 o'clock, one of the decisive games of the Junior Twilight league will be played between the Field Mice under Ray Miller and the Alley Cats captained by Dwight Adams on the high school diamond. These two teams are the strongest in the league and a good match is to be offered by the two slugging teams.

The Pickles Lennon's River Rats are showing up well, while William's Scouts are considerably stronger than the average team, but lack practice. They are hard at work and this difficulty will be cleared away.

Ostrim's Central sluggers are leading the cellar teams, although little is known of their strength.
