

WINNERS OF TONIGHT'S BOUTS WILL BE MATCHED FOR FIGHTS ON MAY 22

WOODS-LEWIS MAIN EVENT

Slow York to Meet Harold Reese in Semi-Windup; Large Crowd Expected

Winners of the main events tonight will be matched up with good men for the next program at the Armory, Friday, May 22. Matchmaker Harry Plant announced last night.

Spec Woods, Spokane, holder of the northwest welterweight title three years ago, arrived in the city yesterday and went through a light 10-round workout last night. He is in excellent condition for his match with Frankie Lewis, Salem, who also worked out.

Woods has been fighting some good men in the last few weeks. He has met Billy Gardeau, Portland, twice, getting the best of a 10-round event at Bend and a draw in a 6-round fight at Portland. He received a decision over Sewell Deane, formerly of Salem, at Leavenworth, Wash., in a 4-round match and a draw in Seattle with Marty Cross, of New York. Pet Webster, colored boy who drew a draw with Harper lost a decision to Woods while Gib Weaver, Seattle, was stopped in the third round recently.

Lewis has a good record and is better known to local fans. He won an easy decision over Charlie Dawson a few weeks ago and in his last fight broke even with Billy Gardeau. Both men are fighters and not boxers. They both possess a wicked punch that they are willing to use and fans are assured of their money's worth even though the bout should not go the entire 10 rounds.

In the semi-windup Slow York, Eugene, meets Harold Reese, Portland, in a 6-round event. Two snappy preliminaries will round out the evening's entertainment.

Advance sale of tickets indicate that a packed house will greet the fighters tonight.

Leaders' Tennis Tourney Is Won by Chas. Simpson

Charles Simpson wins laurels in the Leaders' Tennis tournament recently brought to a close at the Salem YMCA. He won over Francis de Harpert, who had defeated Scotty Marr. The games were played without delay as shown by the schedules. Warren arranged at a later date, with a sprinkling of the old time pep in the playing.

Bob Boardman is supervisor of the games.
