

LOCAL GOLFERS READY FOR MEET

First Contest in Tri-City
Tourney to be Played at Illhee Sunday

Sunday will be the first contest in the tri-city tournament this year between Eugene, Corvallis and Salem. The tournament has been waged for two years, Corvallis and Eugene each having won a leg on the cup and this year unless Salem wins the cup will go into the permanent possession of one of the other two clubs.

The Illhee course is in wonderful shape and next Sunday some par golf is expected. The Salem members have not been practicing as hard as they should but never the less we expect to win. The Salem team will be composed of the following members and the playoff will start promptly at 10 o'clock and will be 18 holes.

The following players will participate:

Ercel W. Kay, Kenneth Scott, C. H. Chambers, Rex Sanford, H. H. Olinger, H. McCammon, L. C. Farmer, Chester Cox, A. A. Keene, Orris Fry, Don Young, H. H. Smith.

Those opposed will be: Tom Wood, Gus Hixon, Fred Mangie, I. R. McLaughlin, John Roberts, Claude Steusloff, George Hug, Jack Elliott, Dr. Pemberton, Fred

FISHING IS GOOD OVER WEEK-END

Where to Go and How to Get There is Told by George E. Caldwell of Andersons' Sporting Goods Store.

DALLAS MILL CREEK—Water low and clear; prospects look very good for week-end. Some good catches reported during the middle of the week on spinners and chub; fish also rising to flies, blue upright, professor and black gnat. Take the Buell road past Dallas, a distance of 35 miles from Salem.

BIG NASTUCKA RIVER—The best fishing reported on this stream is above Beaver; some good catches are being made with large spinners, chub, royal professor and grey hackle flies. Take the west side highway to Rickreall and then through Amity to Beaver, 75 miles from Salem.

BUTTE CREEK AND ABAQUE RIVER—These streams can be reached by going to Silverton and taking the Scotts Mill road, a distance of 25 miles from Salem. Fish are biting good on salmon eggs and black gnat, blue upright and queen of water flies.

THOMAS CREEK—Reports from this stream during the week indicated that the fishing should be good for the week-end. The best fishing is reported from about 10 miles above Scio up to Jordan. Spinners and chub and salmon paste are the best lures. Take the Jefferson highway to Jefferson and then take the Scio road through Scio.

BLUE CREEK—Coming into Thomas creek below Jordan, some nice catches were made on this stream with spinners and chub, blue upright, March brown, and black gnat flies are also bringing results.

FIELD MICE "EAT" ALLEY CAT TEAM

Junior Twilight Baseball
League Gets Started With
16 to 10 Score

Did you ever hear of mice eating cats? It was done in the Junior Twilight league, when the Field Mice defeated the Alley Cats and swallowed 'em tails and all, 16 to 10. Adam's Alley cats figured they had a walkaway but in the third inning the Cats' pitcher, Freeman, blew up and started a perfect merry-go-round of 10 runs. In fact even Scotty Marr made a home run. In the fourth inning, Colgan relieved Freeman and the slaughter was stemmed. The fielding of the Field Mice was excellent. The Alley Cats were strong in outfield but poor in infield. Roberts, a newcomer on the Mice's team, with bases full knocked a homer and let in three more runs.

Denny Heenan umpired, game in charge of Bob Boardman.

The following is the line-up:
Field Mice—Heath, p.; Scotty Marr, c.; F. Lutz, i.; Moody Bonner, 2b.; Roberts, 3b.; Miller, Bell, cf.; Chuck Zimmerman, ss.; Kenney, lf.; Harris, 1b.; Ray Miller, manager.

Alley Cats—Siegmond, 1b.; Blake, c.; Kestel, lf.; Adams, 2b.; manager; Colgan, 3b.; Freeman, Colgan, p.; Wolf, ss.; Wm. Wilson, 2f.; Schaubauer, Morgan, Will, 1b., cf.

Saturday morning the Scouts play Waters' Oregon Journals.

PRINGLE

W. F. Davison, road patrolman, has a crew of men working on the new road running south from the girls' training school. There is quite a lot of fresco work on this job and Mr. Davison has been unable to hire as many teams as he needs. Among those working on this job are J. M. Coburn, W. Propst, W. Meier and E. A. Clark. Mr. Davison also has the job of overseeing the preparation of the mile of road running west from the feeble minded institution, for paving.

J. M. Coburn has recently had his car painted and a number of his neighbors thought he had purchased a new one.

Four car loads of Pringle folks attended the Red Hill Sunday school convention at Rosedale on May 3.

Loganberries are in full bloom. Evergreen blackberries will yield a very short crop this season. The outlook at this time for prunes and cherries is quite unfavorable.

Miss Helen Cammack, assistant school principal, attended a missionary convention in Portland on Saturday.

Pleasant Point school will play ball at Pringle Friday afternoon. The Pringle players are expecting a lively time.

Gooseberries are now ready to pick. But the canneries don't want them.

Standard Electric Ranges

Foods cooked in an electric range taste just as different as foods not cooked at all. The ovens of the standard are aluminum and steam tight, causing roasts and other foods to retain their juice and flavor. Yet these ovens are absolutely rust proof. See the white enameled standard electric range in our window.

NOTE—A great many people have the impression that electric ranges are expensive—but the experimental stages are past and electric ranges are now moderately priced.
