

BEARCATS NOSE OUT INDIANS IN DUAL TRACK MEET HERE SATURDAY

CHEMAWA LOSES BY LOW MARGIN

Willamette Team Annexes 62 1/2 Points; Stolohse Is High-Point Man

Willamette University track squad defeated the Chemawa Indians by the score of 52 1/2-52 1/2 in a fast and interesting meet held on the Willamette field yesterday. Both teams were in good condition and most of the events were closely contested by both sides. Stolohse, Willamette veteran was the high point man of the meet with a total of 16 points to his credit. He secured a first in both javelin and discus and a second in both the shotput and the broad jump.

The Willamette men are fast getting into mid-season form and are showing up well in all of the events and although most of the men are new material the Bearcat squad will be better this year than it has been for some time.

The summary of the meet is as follows:

Shotput—Fiery, Chemawa, first; Stolohse, Willamette, second; Bruno, Chemawa, third.
120 Yard High Hurdles—Vinson, Willamette, first; Kawasak, Chemawa, second; George, Chemawa, third.

440 Yard Run—Vandel, Willamette, first; Tweedy, Willamette, second; Rigby, Willamette, third.

High School Tennis Stars Beat Rooks

Clean Sweep Is Made in Singles; One Set of Doubles Lost to Visitors

The Salem high school tennis team defeated the OAC Rooks by a decisive score of five games to one, Saturday afternoon on the Asylum grounds. The singles were the outstanding plays of the day, with the exception of the first team doubles match, which was fiercely contested.

In the singles White of Salem defeated Grossmyer of OAC 9-7; 6-3. Lutz of Salem took Leiser of OAC to a tune of 6-4; 6-2. Creech of the Black and Red team defeated Ashmore by 6-2; 10-8. Jack Minto for Salem beat Morris of the Aggie team to the tune of 6-3; 6-2. That gave the local team the clean sweep of the singles.

The feature match was of the first doubles team when Lutz and White of the local players defeated Grossmyer and Leiser by a score of 8-7; 6-2. The only match the Salem players lost was when Ashmore and Morris of OAC defeated Minto and Creech of Salem 6-2; 6-3.

The OAC varsity players who witnessed the local games here, paid the players a high compliment when they stated that Salem had one of the clearest tennis teams on the Pacific coast.

The next match here is with Dallas Monday evening at the Asylum court, following the school hours.

Pacific Coast League Results

Seattle 11; Beavers 7

Portland, May 9.—By winning from Portland today, 11 to 7, in a wild comedy of Beaver errors, Seattle made it three games out of five. Sutherland pitched well for Seattle until the final inning, when with a big lead, he eased up and Portland made five runs.

SENATORS MEET PORTLAND TEAM

Local Team Still Heads Inter-State League; Luckenbach's Improved

The Salem Senators are primed for a go with the Luckenbach Steamship company nine this afternoon on the Oxford Park diamond. The local nine has been going strong and is considered one of the strongest teams in the inter-city league. Already they have defeated three teams and, perhaps will have a fourth consecutive victory to their credit.

The Luckenbach players have not put up a good fight in the league, but their management has sent word that he will show a good fight when his team gets in town. He admits having underestimated the strength of the league teams and has gone out for better timber. He was successful in his move, he states, and will have a bevy of players to set things going.

From the start of the season the Senators have been going strong. Their organization placed upon a sound business footing they have won the respect of the fans, and are putting up some good fights.

They took Vancouver, Wash., into camp and rated a victory, and in the second game here with Camas scored another victory. At Oregon City they won a game with the Papermakers and took a victory, at a good score.

At the last game, a good reserve catcher was discovered in the person of Joe Barr, who has been hiding out in the fielders' section. He put in some good work at Oregon City and it is expected he will show up better in the coming games.
