THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS. B. C. MILES was the scene of one of Salem's most delightful reunions of many months when the family had the opportunity of being together for the first time in four years. On Thursday Miss Eva Miles arrived home from Europe and on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Dunn arrived from Ireland.

A charmingly appointed 1 o'clock dinner was served at the Miles' home in celebration, not only of the home-coming, but also of the thirty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Miles. A beautifully laid wedding cake, with a profusion of flowers above the rooms, was a feature of the day.

In the group were: Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Miles and children, Ward, Frank, and Rodney Ross, Miss Eva Miles, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunn.

The Yomareo class of the First Methodist church will enjoy a picnic this evening at Graber's Grove. The group will gather at the church at 6 o'clock to motor out.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh entertained as their guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster and Mrs. Mary Foster of Portland.

An interesting letter from Arthur Rosebraugh was received at this time to typify a "long distance" visit for the occasion from Oxford. Mr. Rosebraugh writes interestingly of six weeks spent in France. He comments humorously on the roughness of the voyage across the English channel, and maintains that even with that he has never been sea-sick.

Barbara Fritchie tent, Daughters of Veterans, will hold their regular meeting at 8 o'clock Wednesday in the Armory.

The West Side circle of the Jason Lee Aid society of Jason Lee church will hold a social meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bertha Loveland, 2010 North Fifth street.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee, 1515 State street. Each member is asked to either bring or send her mite-box for this occasion. The lesson on South America will be given by Mrs. George H. Gutekunst and Mrs. H. H. Durkheimer.

A large throng visited the demonstration house on Sunday formally opening of "Better Homes" week. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Dancy was in charge with Mrs. Milton Meyers and Mrs. Geo. G. Brown as her assistants. In the evening Mrs. T. M. Hicks was assisted by Mrs. Walter Miner.

For today's opening with afternoon hours from 2 to 5 o'clock, and evening hours from 8 to 10. Mrs. C. K. Spaulding will be in charge, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb.

The Town and Gown club will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Lausanne Hall.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee Methodist church will meet at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eva Vore, 3975 Portland Road. The sabbonnets as well as the mite-boxes will be opened at this time. Mrs. Belle Roberts will have charge of the devotional and Mrs. Hageman of the missionary lesson. The ladies of the congregation and of the community are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Clifford Brown will entertain today the members of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

The first in a series of delightful garden "at homes" is an anticipated event of this afternoon when the public is invited to visit the attractive grounds at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Clements, 360 N. 14th street. Those who call are invited to bring pads and pencils to jot down notes that may interest them.

Miss Gladys Wilson of Hood River spent Willamette University Junior week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilson.

Mrs. W. W. Moore spent Mother's Day week-end as the guest of her daughter, Miss Lucille Moore, at the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, at the Oregon Agricultural College.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Leslie Methodist church will meet at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. T. McIntyre, 148 Superior street. Both the mite-boxes and the sabbonnets will be opened at this time.

Costs Only 3 Cents to Remove Your Wrinkles

Better than massage for removing wrinkles and age lines; far less expensive and bothersome, is a simple tartrate mixture which any woman can prepare and apply in 15 minutes. Almost immediately after spreading this over the face there is a pleasant, soothing sensation and the mirror shows the horrid age lines and "bags" disappearing like magic. In less than fifteen minutes the face is as smooth and firm as a schoolgirl's. Seems almost too good to be true, but the actual experience quickly removes all doubt.

All one needs to do is procure an original package of tartrate from the drugist, mix a spoonful with a spoonful of lemon juice and apply with the fingers. This of course is perfectly harmless. It is easily washed off. Having the face successfully refreshed and restored to a healthy glow. And the cost of such treatment is 3 cents!

Honoring Mrs. E. M. Vandevort on her 89th birthday, a family reunion was held on Saturday evening at the Brush college school, with nearly all the family present. The school was festive with golden Scotch broom, hawthorne and wood fern. At 6:30 o'clock a delicious dinner was served with birthday appointments. Music and reminiscences made the evening a pleasant one.

Those gathering for the delightful occasion were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, Miss Lulu Wood of Redwood, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lehman, Mrs. Grace Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winslow, Mary Smith, Florence Hawes of Portland, Minnie Caspell, Esther Krueger, Roy Knights, Miss Jennelle Vandevort, Jack Randall, Miss Grace Henderson, Everett Van Wort, Harold and Marion Lehman, Robert and William Lehman, Ruth and Loyal Whitney, Echo, Helen, Mary, Opal, Violet, Hazel and Doris Krueger, Joyce Knighton, Harra and Adeena Winslow, Lucille Caspell and Elva Talbot.

Mrs. Vandevort, the honor guest, was born in Iowa and crossed the plains to Oregon when she was 16 years of age. Practically all her life has been spent in the vicinity with Brush college the scene of her home.

Not only all the family, but all the many friends of Mrs. Vandevort extend to her greetings of the day.
