PLANS ARE BEING made for 200 guests at the Mothers' and Daughters' banquet this evening at the First Methodist church. The banquet, which will be served at 6:30 o'clock, is being directly sponsored by the men of the church. Walter Winslow is the chairman in charge. Mrs. H. H. Vandevort will attend to table details, while the Delta Alpha class, of which Mrs. C. C. Clark is the teacher, will provide the musical features. Miss Mary E. Findley has arranged a unique and delightful program.

The toastmistress of the evening will be Mrs. M. B. Paroungian.

An operetta in two acts entitled "El Bandido," or the bandit, will be given at 8 o'clock this evening at the McKinley junior high school.

Social and literary circles are much interested in the dinner to be given in honor of Anne Shannon Monroe, Oregon authoress, on Saturday evening, May 16, at Henry Thiele's at 6:30 o'clock. Miss Monroe has just returned from California to spend the summer in Portland, where she will complete her latest book, and is being warmly welcomed by friends here. She is the author of "Happy Valley" and other successes, and her latest work, "Behind the Ranges," is meeting a ready welcome. Among the speakers will be Mr. B. F. Irvine, Mrs. Ruby Page Ewver, Miss Anne M. Mulherson, Miss Cornelia Marvin, Miss Blanche L. Langley and others.

A combined apron and cooked food sale will be held all day Saturday, beginning at 9 o'clock, at the Southern Pacific office, 184 North Liberty street, by members of the Willing Workers' class of the First Christian church.

Miss Constance Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Rochester Yantis of Detroit, became the bride on May 6, of Arthur Frank Kerchoff of Saint Louis at a pretty ceremony in the chapel of the Metropolitan church of Detroit, at high noon.

The ceremony was carried out with simplicity, the bride's father giving her away and Richard Kerchoff, brother of the groom, acting as best man. The ushers were Jerome Benjamin and Bronson Allen.

The bride was gowned in a sandewool shade satin, striped bengaline ensemble with bands of ostrich and hat to match of straw euer lace with touches of velvet ribbon. Her corsage was orchids and lilies of the valley.

crepe faille ensemble; her flowers were lavender sweet peas and pink roses.

A wedding breakfast at the Statler hotel was held for the relatives and friends. The wedding cake surrounded with simlax made up the center piece, candelabras holding white tapers and cunning place cards were the only decorations. The out of town guests included Mrs. W. M. Kerchoff, grandmother of the groom, Miss Violet Kerchoff, Daniel Kerchoff and Richard Kerchoff, all of Saint Louis.

Mr. Kerchoff and his bride are touring Canada and eastern states for a two months honeymoon. They will make their home with the groom's father, Daniel C. Kerchoff, Crescent, Missouri for the summer.

The Fedelis chapter of the WWG, under the leadership of Mrs. O. B. Neptune, held the regular meeting and a pot-luck supper at the First Baptist church, Tuesday evening. An interesting program of the missionary work in China from the book "Ming Kwong, The City of Morning Light" was given.

The Women's Union of the First Congregational church will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Olsen, 1490 McCoy street.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley returned home Wednesday after spending two weeks in Vancouver, B. C., as guests of Mrs. George E. McCrossan, a sister of Mrs. Livesley. During the absence of the Livesleys in the province, Mrs. G. W. DeBeck remained at the Livesley home on Lincoln Hill.

Members and guests of the T.H.D. Club were delightfully entertained early this week with a party at Alkire's Hall with Miss Irene Boje as the hostess. In the group were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perlich, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ficke, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Siegmund, Miss Edna Warden, Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Reta Claggett, Miss Elsie Boynton, Miss Frances Piov, Miss Doris Bowden, Miss Bertha Miller, Miss Marlowe Miller, Miss Mildred Spong, Miss Mildred Case, Miss Virginia Wilson, Harold White, Charles Denhem, Albert Ullman, John Moritz, Harry Fowler, Chester Bigwood, Gilbert Wynkoop, John Campbell, Judd Beardsley, and the hostess Miss Irene Boje.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman was the scene yesterday afternoon of one of the
