

SOCIETY

By AUDRED HUNCH
Phone: 106

AN ENTHUSIASTIC day of golf was enjoyed in Eugene Sunday by a large number of Salem people.

In the Eugene country club tournament three Salem matrons—Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Mrs. H. H. Olinger and Mrs. Ed Gillingham—participated.

Those motoring down for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Edward Gillingham, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Erel Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry, Dr. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hixon and Mr. and Mrs. George Hug.

The ladies auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet in the Armory Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Lucile Elrod, one of the most feted brides-elect. She was honor guest this week at affairs given by Mrs. Dorothy Hunziker Bailey, Dr. and Mrs. DeWalt Elrod and Dr. and Mrs. Hicks Pennington. Next Tuesday Miss Jane O'Reilly will honor Miss Elrod at bridge. Wednesday Miss Dorothy McGuire is entertaining for her with an afternoon affair, and in the evening Mrs. Richard Case of Vancouver, Wash., is giving a dinner for her. Affairs are planned for Thursday, Friday and Saturday by Miss Elizabeth Richardson, Mrs. Daniel Dalton Madden, Mrs. Alice Gill and Mrs. Leonard Wilson.—Portland Telegram.

The Writers' club will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Anne M. Jones, 696 South Church street for the second meeting.

Delightful among the affairs given honoring coming brides was that given by Mrs. Jesse Martin for her niece, Miss Alta L. Martin in the Maclean grange lodge room. The room was beautifully decorated in pink rose buds and white snowballs and sword ferns. An interesting program was given in which Mrs. J. F. C. Teckenburg and Mrs. Norma Terwilliger gave some very clever readings. Other numbers of interest were a piano duet by Mrs. V. L. Masten and Mrs. G. Berg, and a vocal solo by Mrs. A. Spelbrink and a reading by Mrs. Shelburn and Frank Robinson.

A dainty luncheon was then served which was made unique when little Marjorie Hilborn and little Lucile Ladue impersonated real "French maids" and assisted Mrs. Martin in serving.

Mrs. Cornforth of Salem Heights presided at the punch bowl while little Hilborn cut the tarts.

Those present were: Mrs. William Stapleton, Mrs. William Farr, Mrs. O. L. Martin, Miss Hazel Martin, Miss Thelma Martin, Miss Ruth Draper, Mrs. H. O. Taylor, Mrs. Katephart, Mrs. G. A. Spelbrink, Mrs. Ivan Beers, Mrs. John U. Plank, Mrs. Welch, Misses Anona, Elizabeth and Elsie Welch, Mrs. F. Bath, Frank Robinson, Mrs. Bartels Mrs. R. L. Putnam, Mrs. G. Cookin, Mrs. C. P. Wells, Mrs. P. A. Wells, Miss Alta Zinn.

The pre-viewing of the Yale university Chronicle, "Daniel Boone" and "The Rag Man," starring Jackie Coogan, will take place at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the Oregon theatre with the president of each interested organization asked to send representatives, according to the request of the American Association of University Women.

Miss Priscilla Fry was a guest over the week-end at the Delta Delta house in Eugene.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the hall. The ladies of the Evangelical church will be special guests.

Assistant Postmaster and Mrs. A. E. Gibbard are entertaining as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Gage Christopher of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Fanny Whitney of San Diego. Gage Christopher is a prominent singer of the California city and has just finished an engagement at Eugene where he sang the bass solo parts in the oratorio "The Creation." Mr. Christopher has been asked to come for a return engagement and it is probable he will be again heard in the Oregon country. Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Christopher are aunt and cousin of Mr. Gibbard and are renewing acquaintance with the Gibbard families in Oregon. A family gathering at Mouth Sunday included Rev. and Mrs. F. F. Eddy of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. F. O'Rourke of Mouthmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbard, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Persons and daughter and Miss Esther Gighard of Salem. This with the California guests making four generations of the family together.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford and Mrs. F. G. Franklin had the opportunity of enjoying an unusual interesting meeting of the Oregon Writers' League last Saturday evening in Portland when a successful banquet was held honoring Anne Shannon Monroe.

Returning to Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford motored on to Corvallis to spend Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Arpke—1795 Fairmount street, will entertain the Barbara Fritchie Sewing club on Tuesday afternoon, May 19th, at 2 o'clock.

One of Anthony Euwer's most interesting pastels—"Dawn", was received in Salem yesterday morning by members of the Salem Writers' club and at an early date will be presented to the Salem public library as a fittingly chosen gift. The picture is at present at the Gilbert Studio and Craft Shop where Mr. Gilbert is planning a frame especially adapted to it.

The committee in charge of the selection included: Mrs. Blanche M. Jones, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, and Mrs. W. F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford and Mrs. F. G. Franklin had the opportunity of enjoying an unusual interesting meeting of the Oregon Writers' League last Saturday evening in Portland when a successful banquet was held honoring Anne Shannon Monroe.

Mr. Bryan said it would be ridiculous to entrust the education of children to "an oligarchy of scientists," referring to the society for the advancement of science. The modernists, he asserted, "are marking us brothers to the brute."

Mr. Bryan recently announced that he would assist in the prosecution of J. T. Schopes, science teacher of Dayton, Tenn., charged with violation of the Tennessee anti-evolution statute.

Mr. Bryan said it would be ridiculous to entrust the education of children to "an oligarchy of scientists," referring to the society for the advancement of science. The modernists, he asserted, "are marking us brothers to the brute."

Mr. Bryan recently announced that he would assist in the prosecution of J. T. Schopes, science teacher of Dayton, Tenn., charged with violation of the Tennessee anti-evolution statute.

Mr. Bryan said it would be ridiculous to entrust the education of children to "an oligarchy of scientists," referring to the society for the advancement of science. The modernists, he asserted, "are marking us brothers to the brute."

Mr. Bryan recently announced that he would assist in the prosecution of J. T. Schopes, science teacher of Dayton, Tenn., charged with violation of the Tennessee anti-evolution statute.

Simple Frocks for the Young Girl Graduate

EVELYN PIERCE

Though frocks for the younger girl must reflect the charming simplicity of youth, they may be as individual as the more sophisticated gowns her older sister wears, as evidenced by these two youthful dresses which Evelyn Pierce, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer player, wears in "Patsy."

To the left is a straight-belted the bottom, whose only trimming is a silk frock with a narrow flounce at the bottom, while the dress at the right is one of the quaint bouffant styles. Narrow ruffled organdie elegantly trims the full skirt of this frock, while the basque-like bodice has a colorful embroidered corsage in front.

Returning to Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford motored on to Corvallis to spend Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Arpke—1795 Fairmount street, will entertain the Barbara Fritchie Sewing club on Tuesday afternoon, May 19th, at 2 o'clock.

One of Anthony Euwer's most interesting pastels—"Dawn", was received in Salem yesterday morning by members of the Salem Writers' club and at an early date will be presented to the Salem public library as a fittingly chosen gift. The picture is at present at the Gilbert Studio and Craft Shop where Mr. Gilbert is planning a frame especially adapted to it.

The committee in charge of the selection included: Mrs. Blanche M. Jones, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, and Mrs. W. F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford and Mrs. F. G. Franklin had the opportunity of enjoying an unusual interesting meeting of the Oregon Writers' League last Saturday evening in Portland when a successful banquet was held honoring Anne Shannon Monroe.

Mr. Bryan said it would be ridiculous to entrust the education of children to "an oligarchy of scientists," referring to the society for the advancement of science. The modernists, he asserted, "are marking us brothers to the brute."

Mr. Bryan recently announced that he would assist in the prosecution of J. T. Schopes, science teacher of Dayton, Tenn., charged with violation of the Tennessee anti-evolution statute.

Mr. Bryan said it would be ridiculous to entrust the education of children to "an oligarchy of scientists," referring to the society for the advancement of science. The modernists, he asserted, "are marking us brothers to the brute."

Mr. Bryan recently announced that he would assist in the prosecution of J. T. Schopes, science teacher of Dayton, Tenn., charged with violation of the Tennessee anti-evolution statute.

Mr. Bryan said it would be ridiculous to entrust the education of children to "an oligarchy of scientists," referring to the society for the advancement of science. The modernists, he asserted, "are marking us brothers to the brute."

Mr. Bryan recently announced that he would assist in the prosecution of J. T. Schopes, science teacher of Dayton, Tenn., charged with violation of the Tennessee anti-evolution statute.

Mr. Bryan said it would be ridiculous to entrust the education of children to "an oligarchy of scientists," referring to the society for the advancement of science. The modernists, he asserted, "are marking us brothers to the brute."

Mr. Bryan recently announced that he would assist in the prosecution of J. T. Schopes, science teacher of Dayton, Tenn., charged with violation of the Tennessee anti-evolution statute.

Mr. Bryan said it would be ridiculous to entrust the education of children to "an oligarchy of scientists," referring to the society for the advancement of science. The modernists, he asserted, "are marking us brothers to the brute."

Mr. Bryan recently announced that he would assist in the prosecution of J. T. Schopes, science teacher of Dayton, Tenn., charged with violation of the Tennessee anti-evolution statute.

Mr. Bryan said it would be ridiculous to entrust the education of children to "an oligarchy of scientists," referring to the society for the advancement of science. The modernists, he asserted, "are marking us brothers to the brute."

Mr. Bryan recently announced that he would assist in the prosecution of J. T. Schopes, science teacher of Dayton, Tenn., charged with violation of the Tennessee anti-evolution statute.

Shepherd Witnesses Guarded Following Attack on Woman

Chicago police have been ordered to take steps to guard witnesses in the case of William D. Shepherd from attacks following the slugging by two men of Miss Gladys Roberts (inset), detective, who gave evidence against Shepherd to the grand jury. Shepherd's attorneys deny responsibility. Meanwhile Mrs. Julia Shepherd, the accused man's wife, is free on $5,000 bail. She is seen in court arranging her bond after her indictment as an accessory to the murder of William McClintock, "erphan millionaire."

SALEM MAN IS ELECTED DEPUTY OF K OF CS

FRANK DAVEY IS NAMED STATE DEPUTY OF K OF CS

PORTLAND, Ore., May 18.—At the conclusion of the business session which marked the second day of the Knights of Columbus convention here today, Frank Davey of Salem, was elected state deputy to succeed P. J. Hanley, of Portland.

John J. Dooley of Albany was named state secretary to succeed A. A. Mickel of Salem. The position of state treasurer, which has been filled during the past year by Leo J. Conlin of Baker, will be held during the coming year by Frank Ryan of Ontario. Dan J. Coman of Portland was elected state advocate and Frank Fitzpatrick of Tillamook, state warden. William Eagles of Albany was named official delegate to the supreme convention which will be held at Duluth, Minn. In addition the state deputy and the past state deputy will be delegates.

It was decided to hold the annual retreat at Mt. Angel college sometime during August, the exact date to be selected by a committee.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

By a resolution the convention went on record as favoring establishment by the order of "not less than five, radio broadcasting stations," in the United States and Canada. The resolution urged that the station be operated in connection with Catholic universities.

soldiers of fortune or deserters from the foreign legion; but thus far, as regards artillery only one battery, consisting of four guns has been discovered.

Mrs. Drury: "He scratched a match on the piano, and then apologized for not using the wall paper."

—S. W. Rowan.

Just try to think what life would be Without a little jollity: Ges, wouldn't it be dull and prosy? Let's laugh, and keep it bright and rosy!

The Vandal
Fisher: "One of those statistical friends of ours has figured it out that if all the crossword puzzles were pasted together they'd reach half-way around the world."

Cuyler: "I only wish it could be done. They'd take delight in touching a match to it."

So It Seems
Lasker: "Why do they call it the 'time payment plan?'"
Hurd: "Because it's always time for a payment."
—Stella C. Rice.

Instincts of a Gentleman
Mrs. Drury: "That fellow you brought home with you last night was certainly ill-bred."
Drury: "In what way?"

Don't be afraid to laugh and grin. For those who do commit no sin; In fact, to do so is a crime. That's sure to help and never hurt you.

Playing Safe
Carter: "Why do you always take off your shoes before reaching a train to a crossing?"
Folwell: "A fortune teller told me that I'd die with my boots on."
—Leah Ketcham.

Hot Biscuits and Honey! Delicious—when made with

CALUMET

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

They will raise perfectly—bake properly—digest easily

SALES 2 1/2 TIMES THOSE OF ANY OTHER BRAND

Children's Patronage Not Solicited on This Show!

OREGON NEW TODAY

MAY McAVOY
MARIE PREVOST
PAULINE FREDERICK

Any year's most sensational photoplay. Made by Ernst Lubitch, producer of "The Marriage Circle."

"THREE WOMEN"

MAY McAVOY, MARIE PREVOST, PAULINE FREDERICK, with LEW CODY

WILLARD LOUIS, MARY CARR, PIERRE GENDRON
What the Critics of the Portland Papers Have to Say:
FLOYD MAXWELL (Oregonian)

Ernst Lubitch's latest effort, "Three Women," which was previewed recently at the Rivoli, contains that unmistakable Lubitch quality that so characterizes "The Marriage Circle," quite the best play we have seen this season.

JOHN PALMER (Telegram)
Ernst Lubitch, who produced and directed "Three Women," has done his many elaborate productions just one better.

BOB SWAYLER (Journal)
So remarkable is this power of the director to make everything explain itself naturally that he has not done on the number of captions. He simply shows the picture and when it is over the viewer is satisfied.

HOWARD MCGOWAN (News)
We see here, at the time, the most brilliant and possible by the supreme direction of Lubitch.

ALSO LARRY SEMON IN "THE DOME DOCTOR"

SOCIAL CALENDAR

- Today
Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star. Stated communication, 8 o'clock.
Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star. Stated communication, 8 o'clock.
Barbara Mrelchle Sewing club. Mrs. C. A. Arpke, 1795 Fairmount street, hostess. 2 o'clock.
Writers' club. Mrs. Blanche M. Jones, 696 S. Church street, hostess.
O. N. S. club. Miss Marjorie Brown, 1040 Center street, hostess.
Willamette University music recital. Waller Hall.
Pre-viewing of "Daniel Boone" and "The Rag Man." Oregon Theatre. 10:30 o'clock.
Merry-Go-Round club. Mr. and Mrs. John H. McNary, hosts.
Wednesday
Apollo club concert. Armory. 8:15 o'clock.
Count-On-Me class of the First Baptist church, 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Harry Ralph, hostess.
Salem Daughters of the Nile. Mrs. Walter F. Buckner, 1310 Court street, hostess.
Thursday
Violin recital. Pupils of Miss Elizabeth Levy. First Christian church, 8 o'clock.
Garden "at home." 3 to 7:30 o'clock. George Putnam, E. Y. Lansing, and William Hamilton homes, Lincoln Hill.
Violin recital. Pupils of Miss Elizabeth Levy. First Christian church, 8 o'clock.
Friday
First Presbyterian church Ladies' Aid society. Church parlors. 2:30 o'clock.
Saturday
Salem Woman's club. Club house. 2:30 o'clock.
Mrs. Homer Gouley's tea complementing Miss Mildred Apperson.

Babe, Enjoying Sunshine Again, Denies He's Through as Hit King

"Babe" Ruth is mingling with the sunshine daily atop St. Vincent's Hospital in New York, which he hopes to be able to leave soon. The home-run king denies he is "through," and says he is pasting "em over the fence again in a few weeks."

CONSTIPATION

A misery that spreads poison thru the system and a direct cause of many other ills, harmful, and becoming chronic if neglected, is easily relieved and the tendency overcome by

Chamberlain's Tablets

Wholesome and thoroughly cleansing, they prevent harmful clogging, and body and mind quickly respond to their prompt, pleasant action, and beneficial effect on the entire intestinal tract. Only 25 cents.

Read The Statesman Classified Ads

GRAND THEATRE

One Big Laugh Night Tuesday, May 20th

A HENRY DUFFY PRODUCTION or
SO THIS IS LONDON

GEORGE M. COHAN'S INTERNATIONAL LAUGH RIOT
WITH LAWRENCE D'ORSAY

Sensible Prices
$1.50—$1.00 and 50c
Seats on Sale May 27—Mail Orders Now