

LOGGERS CLEAN UP ON BEARCATS IN LAST PART OF GAME; SCORE 7 TO 5

LONG LEAD OVERCOME BY HEAVY OFFENSIVE

COLLEGE OF PUGET SOUND TEAM GETS GOOD START

Twirler Knocked From Box; Willamette Bright in Spots; Isham Stars

After giving the College of Puget Sound baseball squad a four run lead in the first part of the game, the Willamette men knocked "Horse" Blevins, CPS twirler out of the box and secured a one run lead in the eighth, only to go down to defeat before the Logger batting offensive in the first part of the ninth and dropped the game by the score of 7-5 on the Willamette diamond Tuesday afternoon.

The Bearcats played streaks of wonderful ball making a number of spectacular catches and scoring in a neat double play although they dropped the game on errors that should have been inexcusable during a few of the critical moments.

Isham was the batting star for Willamette making one long drive which bounced the ball on the top of the grandstand scoring Nakano and Fasnacht. Nakano also brought in two runs on a long drive through right field.

The Bearcats will close their season here with the College of Seattle squad Friday afternoon.

The line ups were as follows:

Willamette 5—C. P. S. 7—
 Towner C. Aldrich
 Ellis P. Blevins
 Herman 1B. Schwarz
 Robertson 2B. Peterson
 Isham 3B. Ginn
 Fasnacht SS. Carl
 Nakano RF. Falconer
 McAllister CF. Thuler
 Kallahan LF. Thorabie
 Substitutes: Willamette, Poling for McAllister; CPS, Leek for Blevins.

DOZEN BIG LEAGUE CLUBS WANT HIM

But Neun May Spend Most of Season on Tiger Bench

By Norman E. Brown

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 19.—Fans here in Ty Cobb's home town, who by that token claim the Detroit Tigers as their own, will watch the future of Johnny Neun, young first sacker, with much interest as the 1925 campaign gets under way. For they have seen one of the sweetest young first basemen in the game in action and know him to be such.

And they are wondering, as the Tiger team works its way northward, how long Mr. John will warm the bench, hiding his light under the eaves of the Tiger dug-out.

I believe, as most critics do, that Neun would be playing first base on most any other big league club. The Cincy Reds made heroic efforts to get him. The Cleveland Indians wanted him. The Brooklyn Dodgers, knowing that Jack Fournier can't go on forever, looked Neun over. And there are at least six other clubs who could use a man of his caliber.

Blue Works in Well

But Cobb has Lu Blue, an experienced and a brilliant first baseman. Blue can hit. When he is right he is one of the best fielding first sacker in the game. He fits in well with Cobb's infield combinations. So, until Blue hits a slump or runs into an injury or illness, Johnny will be the reserve first baseman.

Cobb himself realizes that it is a shame to have such a youngster available with no place to put him, but he isn't crazy enough to hand Neun over to a rival club. So there you are.

Cobb has had Neun two years. He has farmed him out twice however, so cannot let him go with a string attached again.

Neun is a sweet looking first baseman. He handles himself well in every play. His foot work—the supreme test of a first sacker—is beyond criticism. He has the happy knack of unconsciously setting himself to get the greatest reach for a thrown ball. No player in baseball looks more ludicrous than a first baseman with the ball in his hand looking for the bag.

BOY SCOUTS PLAN MEET

CONTESTS WILL BE HELD ON WASHINGTON GROUNDS

The track and field meet of the Boy Scouts will be held on the old Washington school grounds at Twelfth and Center, according to the announcements made by Harold M. Ware, Scout executive.

Delegates from Scout troops in Corvallis, Lebanon, and Chemawa are expected to be on hand.

The public is invited to witness the contests Saturday, which will start at 10 o'clock. Various contests will be staged which will have group action as well as the individuals.

OREGON CHANCES LESSENER

EUGENE, May 9.—Chances for an Oregon victory in the dual track meet here with Oregon Agricultural college next Saturday received a hard blow this evening when it was announced that Walter Kelsey, hurdler and high and broad jumper, is out with influenza. Kelsey is a valuable man, having garnered nine points in each of the two dual meets in which he has participated.

VISITORS ARE INCREASING

RAINIER NATIONAL PARK RESERVATIONS GROWING

TACOMA, May 19.—More than twice the number of visitors from distant points are represented in bookings of the Rainier National Park company for service in transportation and hotel at Mt. Rainier as were listed at the same time last year, according to the statement today of T. H. Martin of the park company.

BILLY'S UNCLE

LIONS EASY VICTIMS TO WOLVES BATSTERS

FIRST GAME IN SUNDOWN LEAGUE DROPPED 6 TO 1

Newberry and Gill Slam Out Home Runs Giving Opener Few Real Thrills

The Wolves defeated the Lions baseball team last night at Oxford park by the score of 6 to 1, marking the first combat of the Sundown league, which has been organized in conjunction with the Twilight league here.

The fireworks started when Newberry knocked a home run, and the next man up to bat, Luke Gill did the same thing. When Haggerdon came around the diamond, the Wolves had three scores for their start. McFarland for the Lions could not stem the tide and as a result, the score went up. Erick Haggerdon starred for the Wolves and made a fine showing.

The Lions have a good team and with a little change in the line up will be able to put up a good scrap.

When Newberry went into the box the Lions put a lone pill across the back fence and made a score, the only one during the game.

Wilkinson did good work in umpiring the first game of the Sundown league and no squabbling was in evidence.

The line-up of the Wolves was Griver, Newberry, Stubbs, Chapman, Gill, White, Zosel, Williams, and Haggerdon.

The Lions were represented by Springer, Gregg, Humphreys, Kietzing, McFarland, Folrick, Olsen, George and Nelson.

LIFE STUDIES TAKEN AT CHEMAWA WIN MUCH PRAISE

Prizes Are Given to Students for Turning in Best Titles for Pictures

Beginning Thursday a group of studies of Indian life will be on display at the Atlas Book & Stationery store which have created much comment among local art circles. Relics of Indian life from the Chemawa Indian Training school will be brought to Salem to decorate the window. Miss Kathryn Gunnell, local photographer is sponsoring the studies of the Indians.

The studies have been named by students at the Indian school and are as follows:

Picture No. 1, "In Her Glory," by Frank Laller, of the 8th grade; "Sunset Dreaming," second picture named by Marie Andrews of the seventh grade; "Scouting Warriors," third study, titled by Alice Hall, eighth grade student; "Neah-pa-wish," or My Beautiful Princess, the fourth study was named by Raymond

This is the latest report received from the scene of activities in northern Africa. A column of French commanded by General Billotee, has taken up a position where it can watch the movements of the force of Riflians concentrated in the region of Sheshuan, known as "the holy city of Xaugen."

The other French columns are posted over a wide distance of 125 miles, and there necessarily are wide gaps between the troops of French troops, and infiltration by the Riflians will be comparatively easy until they strike the territory of tribes friendly to the French.

Tennis Match Called Off Until Thursday

The tennis match scheduled between the College of Puget Sound and the Willamette squad for yesterday afternoon was postponed till Thursday to fit in with the C. P. S. schedule.

The Bearcats will meet the University of Oregon Tennis men at Eugene today and the Loggers here tomorrow is the present plan.
