

LAST GAME OF SEASON WON BY BEARCATS 8-4

BRIHAM SWINGS HEAVY STICK TO GOOD ADVANTAGE

Visitors Rally in Ninth and Send Two Men Around Circuit For Markers

In the final game of the season the Willamette university squad defeated the College of Seattle by the score of 8-4 on the Willamette diamond yesterday afternoon.

Kalahan pitched the entire game for the local and held the Seattle men well under control for most of the game, although he allowed two long hits in the ninth which gave the visitors two of their four runs.

The Bearcats did exceptionally good work at bat and seemed to have learned to connect. Isham, third base, led the list for Willamette, as he was credited with two hits over the grandstand, which, according to ground rules should have been home runs.

Channel War Wrecks Play Havoc With Fishing Fleet

At a meeting organized by the Brixham council it was decided to suggest to the government the creation of a compensation scheme out of the German reparations payments, on the basis that the fund should bear 50 per cent of the losses and the smack owner should run a personal risk of 40 per cent and contribute a 10 per cent premium for insurance benefits.

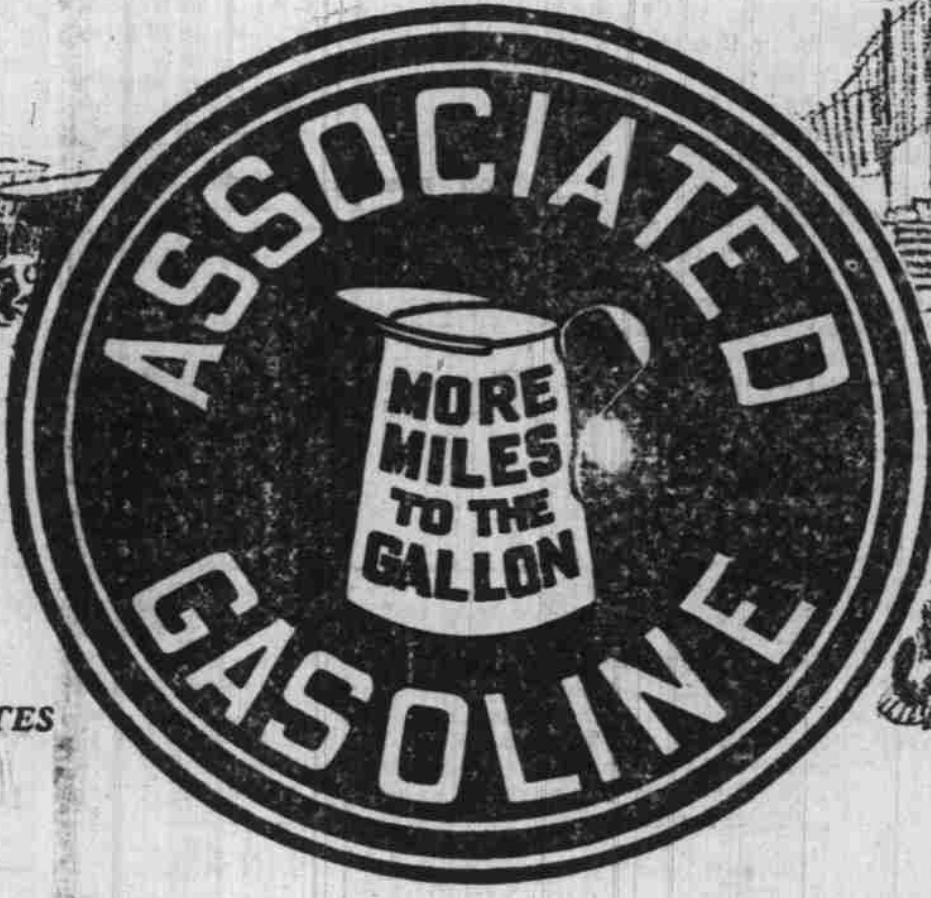

Spurious Examination Aids Peddled to School Children

MANILA.—Thousands of pupils in the public schools learned today that they had been deceived by an enterprising former employe of the bureau of education. He had prepared a set of questions which he claimed to be those used in the regular examinations at the close of the school year, and sold them in large numbers to pupils for 15 cents each.

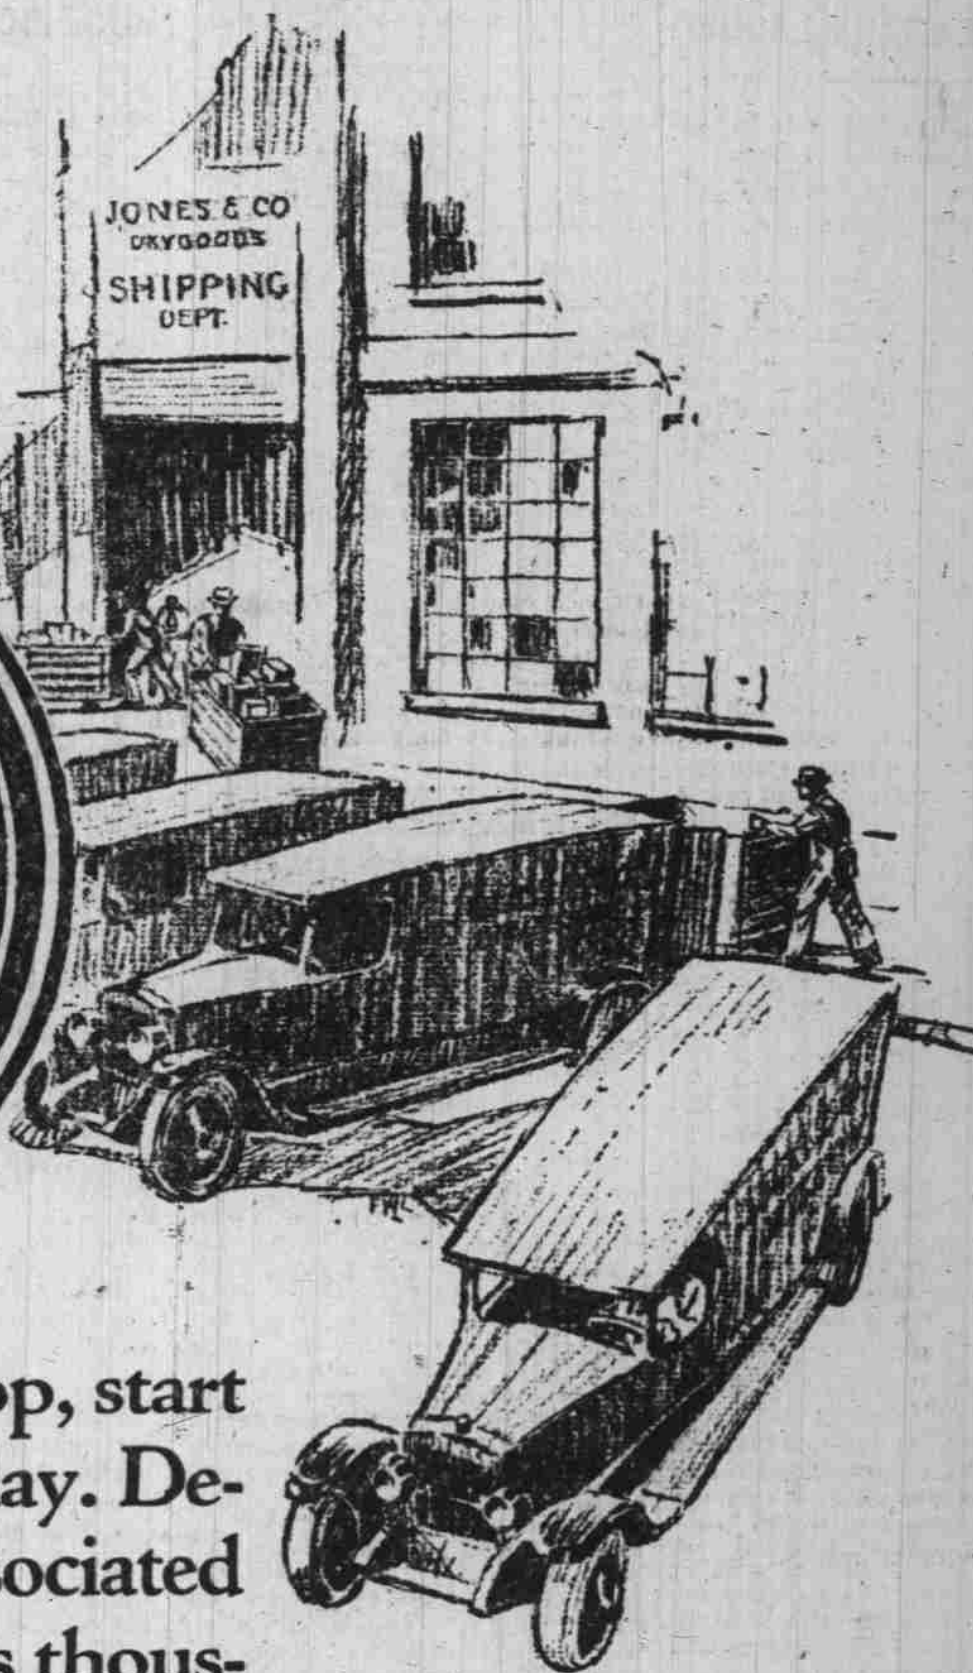

When the pupils went into the examination they discovered that the questions were entirely different from those which they had purchased.
