

SOCIETY

By AUDRED HUNCH

Phone: 106

NINETEEN MEMBERS of the Woman's Relief Corps will be guests of the various schools on Friday, May 29.

Blind school—Louise King, Florence Shipp, Chemawa—Ida Newmeyer, Alma Henderson.

Girls' Training school—Katie Schott, Marie Kaup.

Boys' Training school—Emma Thompson, Vera Glover.

West Salem—Mathilda White, Prudence Bonfleur, and Bernice Bouffier.

Salem High school—Helen Engstrom.

Salem Heights—Rose Voris, Belle Morris, Fannie Sandie.

Williamette University—Bessie Martin, Ida Traglio.

Yew Park—Jesse Crossan, Mary Moyer, Eleanor Getchell.

Parrish Junior High—Effie Danlap, Ida Babcock.

Brooks—Ella Harris, Pearl Harris, Jennie Gilbert, Ellen Hackett.

Englewood—Blanche Davis, Hattie Jewett.

Grant Junior High—Alma McWhorter and Alice Davies.

Garfield—Bertha Loveland and Elizabeth Diesterbach.

Highland—Fannie Fisher and Laura McAdams.

Lincoln—Julia Blodgett and Anna Simmons.

GALE DALTON

Ten year old songster who will appear tonight at an anticipated concert of the Salem Boys' Chorus at the First Christian church. Master Dalton is known as the small boy with the big voice.

McKinley—Julia Blodgett and Ida Long.

Richmond—Gertrude Remington and Elsie Simeral.

Sacred Heart Academy—Lizette Smith and Norma Terwilliger.

Reverend and Mrs. E. H. Shanks are entertaining as their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Mock of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm of Corvallis are guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mr. Schramm attending the Bankers' convention in Woodburn on Friday evening. On Sunday Miss Magdalena and Miss Irene Kuntz of Albany are additional guests at the family home.

At five o'clock in the afternoon the C. O. Schramm home was the scene of an attractive dinner party for the group with covers placed for Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm, and Patricia, Susanna, and Philip, of Corvallis, and Misses Magdalena and Irene Kuntz of Albany, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Schramm.

Miss Helen Corey is entertaining as her house-guest this week Miss Phyllis Walker of San Francisco, California. Miss Walker, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker, formerly lived in Salem where she has a large number of friends.

The Fringe Pleasant Point social club met at the home of Mrs. E. S. Coates on Thursday, May 21.

A delicious dinner at noon was followed with sewing in the afternoon, the day being Mrs. Coates' birthday was the occasion of a generous handkerchief shower. The members enjoying the day were: Mrs. D. Vanderbilt, Mrs. H. Harrison, Mrs. E. Elliott, Mrs. T. J. Clark, Mrs. P. E. Falcerton, Mrs. L. W. Potter, Mrs. C. T. Jones, Mrs. M. W. Welch, Mrs. F. R. Clark, Mrs. E. G. Clark, Mrs. J. McDonald, Mrs. B. Robbins, Mrs. J. M. Robertson, Mrs. Olive Shaffer, Mrs. O. T. Sealey, Mrs. E. Herpin, Mrs. J. W. Yates, and Mrs. E. S. Coates.

This was the closing meeting of the club till the opening of the fall season.

Of interest to many Salem friends is the announcement received from Mrs. A. Harber of the marriage of her daughter, Gwendolen, to Mr. Everett Le Forest Hill, Jr., of San Francisco, California. Mr. Hill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Le Forest Hill, Sr., at whose home the wedding ceremony was performed on May 18.

The bride and groom are on an extended motor trip through the eastern United States.

Before leaving for San Francisco, Miss Hulbert was in the office at The Oregon Statesman with Col. Carle Abrams.

Mrs. Clifford Brown entertained as her house-guest two days last week, Mrs. Allen Hemphill of Portland, who has returned west after an interval in Chicago. Mrs. Hemphill will be remembered in Salem as Ethelwynne Harris. Mrs. Brown entertained informally for a few former friends of her guest at the tea hour on Thursday.

The preceding week Mrs. Brown visited in Portland as a guest at the Hemphill home in Laurelhurst.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor is entertaining as her house-guest, Mrs. Estes Snedecor of Portland.

The Conover chapter of the Presbyterian church Westminster Guild will meet at 5 o'clock this evening at the church for a picnic supper and social outing in Polk county.

Byrd Elliot, age 13 years, violin prodigy, who is to appear as violin accompanist assisting artist to Marie-Louise D'Arc Kiger, who is scheduled for a concert in Salem on June 1st at the Salem armory, has received many compliments from the press where she has appeared. The Seattle Times, Music and Musicians, Seattle Recital, Junior Music Club, Bellingham Herald have many words of praise for her work. Byrd Elliot, the young violin prodigy has given concerts in the Pacific northwest that have drawn much favorable comment.

Mrs. Leo Holland, who was formerly Freda Meyer, has arrived in Salem from Oklahoma to spend the summer. Mrs. Holland will be at the home of her mother, Mrs. Emily Meyer.

A story hour particularly enjoyed by all those present was held on Saturday afternoon at the Atlas Book store under the delightful leadership of Miss Florence Cartwright. Not only did Miss Cartwright tell a story, but there were also stories by a number of children, including Henry Andrae, Marjorie Knox, Robert White and Merlin Gurnell.

Miss Cartwright entertained as her guests: Shirley Huntington, June and Junior Kennell, Glenn Prime, Jr., Douglas and Richard Chambers, Malcolm Burleson, Ronald and Alleen Blundell, Betty Jane Simmons, Gwynne Adams, Marjorie Knox, Jay Teed, Edgar Rowland, Jr., Joan Newcomb, Carol Potter, Jane Talmadge, Charles and Henry Andrae, Sarah Jane Baker, Gertrude Mildred Brooks, Margaret Browning, Betty Lou Burdette, Stuart Bush, Barbara Crain, Bobby Downs, Flavia Downs, Billy Evans, Jr., Marylee Fry, Raymond Farmer, Norman Fuller, Billy Forge, Jean Gilbertson, Merlin Gurnell, Claudine Gouffroy, Anna May Grabenhurst, Patsy Livesley, Edward Hugh McCaffrey, Isabel and Roberta McGilchrist, Richard Nelson, Natalie Neer, Jack Powers, Thomas Ed Rilea, Jr., Joe Roberts, Sybil Spears, Friday and Colin Slade, Richard Smith, Leone Spaulding, Nancy Jean Stricklin, Kenneth Uiter, Robert Van Patton, Vivian Williams and Robert White.

Miss Roberta Mills of Portland was guest over the week-end of her aunt, Mrs. and Mrs. C. K. Searles.

Miss Dorothy Livesley was a guest on Saturday evening of the Hill Military Academy for the Junior Prom, an annual social event of the academy.

Mrs. J. Vincent Meherin, the house-guest of Mrs. Lloyd Farmer, has returned to her home in San Francisco, California. During her visit in Salem Mrs. Meherin was complimented with various delightful social affairs.

Among those from Salem attracted to Corvallis on Sunday for the golf tournament were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Dr. and

Mrs. J. A. Remington is home from a week's visit in eastern and central Oregon. In Redmond Mrs. Remington was the guest of her daughter, Miss Pauline Remington. The trip, including visits in Bend and Mitchell, as well as in Redmond, was made by motor in company with Mrs. Percy Willis of Portland.

Mrs. Frank Power entertained at a delightfully appointed dinner last evening at her home particularly honoring Miss Phyllis Walker of San Francisco. A basket of blue delphinium and garden wagonette centered the table while pink candles were used attractively about the rooms.

Covers at the dinner were placed for Miss Phyllis Walker, Miss Helen Corey, Miss Mary Capper, Miss Florence Power, Miss Dolores

Williams and the hostess, Mrs. Frank Power.

The dinner last night was one in a series of delightful affairs planned for Miss Walker's pleasure. Last week her hostess entertained for her on Friday at tea and on Saturday at a 1:30 o'clock luncheon at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe. At the luncheon a centerpiece of blue delphinium, carnations and sweet peas in pastel shades was used, together with harmonizing blue candles in antique gold holders. At the tea Karl Drusky roses were used.

A Maytime wedding carried out with both simplicity and beauty took place on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mee, 328 North Front street, when their daughter, Pearl Alene, became the bride at 10 o'clock of Mr. John Aloysius Horgan. The double ring service was used at the impressive occasion with Rev. Morrow as the officiating clergyman.

The bridal party took their places at the floral altar of ferns, pink and white carnations, snapdragons, and art baskets of delphinium and peonies, while Miss Fay Woltz played the Mendelssohn wedding march.

The bride, becomingly gowned in pink georgette, carried a lovely shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Mee, in an attractive frock of old rose georgette, worn with corsage of lavender sweet peas and roses. The groom was attended by George D. Alderin as best man.

A beautifully appointed wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, with the bride cutting the elaborate cake that was the centerpiece. After returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Horgan will make their home in Salem.

Guests of the morning were: Mr. and Mrs. Horgan, Miss Mee, Mr. Alderin, Rev. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mee, Mr. and Mrs. A. Luch and son, Mrs. Zanker, Miss Louisa Heidecker, Charles Woltz, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Coenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Woltz, Miss Dorothy Woltz, Carl Woltz, Jr., Miss Ruth Rulifson, Miss Dorothy Rulifson, Floyd Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tripp, Junior Tripp, Miss Fay Woltz, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harger of Portland.

Three one act plays will be presented by the Willamette university Writers' club in the auditorium of the city library Tuesday, June 2.

The plays have been written by three members of the club who are well known on the Willamette campus for their ability along lines of dramatics.

The authors are Mary Gilbert, Lloyd Waltz, and William Albert Warren.

The Writers' club is an organization sponsored upon the campus by Professor Williston for the purpose of increasing interest in dramatic writing.

One of the charming affairs of last week was that of Saturday when Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb entertained at her attractive home, the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe, with a 7 o'clock dinner. Blue bowls of golden iris gave an artistic floral motif in the rooms while flame-tinted candles were used in a lovely brass candelabra. Little rosebud nut-cups were the favors used.

Those invited for the dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Given of Klamath Falls, Miss May Bollier, Mrs. Leo Spitzbart, Mr. James Reed, and the hostess, Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb.

Mrs. C. F. Patton entertained as her guest over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral and little son, Claire, Jr., of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Simeral are on their way to California by motor, planning to go as far south as the Mexican border.

Miss Edna Davis was the recipient of many useful gifts when Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick entertained at the latter's home Saturday evening. The kitchen shower idea was carried out by using a colander as a foundation. Guests were given cards bearing the names of Miss Davis and Mr. Richard Slater of Roseburg as a pleasing means of introduction. At the close of the evening refreshments were served, Miss Jefferson assisting.

Those present were Miss Edna Davis, Wilma Davis, Erma Meeks, Bernice Roberts, Loretta Varley, Lucille Allen, Elizabeth Fairchild, Alma Burdick, Elizabeth Hoag, Alma Halvorson, Mrs. Chester Jefferson, Mrs. Mary Hogg, Mrs. E. B. Fletcher, Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick.

Mrs. John A. Carson and Mrs. W. P. Fowle were entertained at luncheon Friday in Albany at the home of Mrs. Richard Kriesel (Teressa Fowle). Later Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Fowle joined the Salem group of War Mothers who were guests of the Albany chapter.

A charming hostess of yesterday was Mrs. Allan Bynon of Portland who entertained for a group of fourteen friends at an afternoon of bridge at the E. Hofer home.

One of the attractive affairs of and active social season will be the formal bridge tea this afternoon at the Woman's club house when Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer and Mrs. A. L. Wallace will entertain jointly in a delightful manner for a group of one hundred friends.

One of the charming affairs of last week was that of Saturday when Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb entertained at her attractive home, the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe, with a 7 o'clock dinner. Blue bowls of golden iris gave an artistic floral motif in the rooms while flame-tinted candles were used in a lovely brass candelabra. Little rosebud nut-cups were the favors used.

Those invited for the dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Given of Klamath Falls, Miss May Bollier, Mrs. Leo Spitzbart, Mr. James Reed, and the hostess, Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb.

Mrs. C. F. Patton entertained as her guest over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral and little son, Claire, Jr., of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Simeral are on their way to California by motor, planning to go as far south as the Mexican border.

Miss Edna Davis was the recipient of many useful gifts when Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick entertained at the latter's home Saturday evening. The kitchen shower idea was carried out by using a colander as a foundation. Guests were given cards bearing the names of Miss Davis and Mr. Richard Slater of Roseburg as a pleasing means of introduction. At the close of the evening refreshments were served, Miss Jefferson assisting.

Those present were Miss Edna Davis, Wilma Davis, Erma Meeks, Bernice Roberts, Loretta Varley, Lucille Allen, Elizabeth Fairchild, Alma Burdick, Elizabeth Hoag, Alma Halvorson, Mrs. Chester Jefferson, Mrs. Mary Hogg, Mrs. E. B. Fletcher, Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick.

Mrs. John A. Carson and Mrs. W. P. Fowle were entertained at luncheon Friday in Albany at the home of Mrs. Richard Kriesel (Teressa Fowle). Later Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Fowle joined the Salem group of War Mothers who were guests of the Albany chapter.

A charming hostess of yesterday was Mrs. Allan Bynon of Portland who entertained for a group of fourteen friends at an afternoon of bridge at the E. Hofer home.

One of the attractive affairs of and active social season will be the formal bridge tea this afternoon at the Woman's club house when Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer and Mrs. A. L. Wallace will entertain jointly in a delightful manner for a group of one hundred friends.

One of the charming affairs of last week was that of Saturday when Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb entertained at her attractive home, the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe, with a 7 o'clock dinner. Blue bowls of golden iris gave an artistic floral motif in the rooms while flame-tinted candles were used in a lovely brass candelabra. Little rosebud nut-cups were the favors used.

Those invited for the dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Given of Klamath Falls, Miss May Bollier, Mrs. Leo Spitzbart, Mr. James Reed, and the hostess, Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb.

Mrs. C. F. Patton entertained as her guest over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral and little son, Claire, Jr., of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Simeral are on their way to California by motor, planning to go as far south as the Mexican border.

Miss Edna Davis was the recipient of many useful gifts when Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick entertained at the latter's home Saturday evening. The kitchen shower idea was carried out by using a colander as a foundation. Guests were given cards bearing the names of Miss Davis and Mr. Richard Slater of Roseburg as a pleasing means of introduction. At the close of the evening refreshments were served, Miss Jefferson assisting.

Those present were Miss Edna Davis, Wilma Davis, Erma Meeks, Bernice Roberts, Loretta Varley, Lucille Allen, Elizabeth Fairchild, Alma Burdick, Elizabeth Hoag, Alma Halvorson, Mrs. Chester Jefferson, Mrs. Mary Hogg, Mrs. E. B. Fletcher, Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick.

Mrs. John A. Carson and Mrs. W. P. Fowle were entertained at luncheon Friday in Albany at the home of Mrs. Richard Kriesel (Teressa Fowle). Later Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Fowle joined the Salem group of War Mothers who were guests of the Albany chapter.

A charming hostess of yesterday was Mrs. Allan Bynon of Portland who entertained for a group of fourteen friends at an afternoon of bridge at the E. Hofer home.

One of the attractive affairs of and active social season will be the formal bridge tea this afternoon at the Woman's club house when Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer and Mrs. A. L. Wallace will entertain jointly in a delightful manner for a group of one hundred friends.

One of the charming affairs of last week was that of Saturday when Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb entertained at her attractive

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Today
Salem Boys' Chorus, 8:15 o'clock. First Christian church. Recital. Willamette university school of music. Waller hall, 8 o'clock.

Sons of Veterans' auxiliary and Sons of Veterans' camp. Armory, 8 o'clock.

Formal tea. Mrs. A. L. Wallace and Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer, hostesses. Woman's club house, N. Cottage street.

Wednesday
Reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, 332 Court street, 8 o'clock.

Miss Gladys McIntyre in graduation recital. Waller hall, 8 o'clock.

Salem branch of the National League of Women Voters. Marion hotel, 1 o'clock luncheon.

Thursday
Grace E. Hall presented by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church at silver tea. Dr. H. J. Clements' home.

Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. Errel Kay, Mrs. Edward Gillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hixon.

The friends of Mrs. A. L. Brown are welcoming her home from St. Louis, Missouri, where she has been spending the past three months as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Matthews.

Brown returned by way of Spokane where she enjoyed a few days' stop, and was among those held up by the landslide in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Albert were hosts at their mountain lodge at Mehama for an enjoyable house-party over the past week-end. In the group which returned home by motor yesterday were:

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brassfield and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brassfield of Berkeley, California, Mrs. T. C. Hopkins, Mrs. E. C. Small, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause of Portland, Mrs. J. C. Griffith, Miss Mary Jane Albert, Miss Josephine Albert, Asel Roff and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith are entertaining as their house-guests for the summer season Mrs. Percy Melis and baby daughter, Miriam Jean, of Spokane.

The 26th wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. G. Koehler was the occasion of Sunday evening of a surprise gathering at the Koehler home of more than 50 friends. Rev. Mr. Bertold of Portland conveyed greetings of the evening, while the program was arranged by the Ladies' Aid and Young People's societies. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour.

Joshua Smith's camp No. 6, Sons of Veterans, will meet at 8 o'clock this evening at the Armory. Initiation of new members will take place at this time. A large attendance is urged.

Mrs. J. A. Remington is home from a week's visit in eastern and central Oregon. In Redmond Mrs. Remington was the guest of her daughter, Miss Pauline Remington. The trip, including visits in Bend and Mitchell, as well as in Redmond, was made by motor in company with Mrs. Percy Willis of Portland.

Mrs. Frank Power entertained at a delightfully appointed dinner last evening at her home particularly honoring Miss Phyllis Walker of San Francisco. A basket of blue delphinium and garden wagonette centered the table while pink candles were used attractively about the rooms.

Covers at the dinner were placed for Miss Phyllis Walker, Miss Helen Corey, Miss Mary Capper, Miss Florence Power, Miss Dolores

Williams and the hostess, Mrs. Frank Power.

The dinner last night was one in a series of delightful affairs planned for Miss Walker's pleasure. Last week her hostess entertained for her on Friday at tea and on Saturday at a 1:30 o'clock luncheon at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe. At the luncheon a centerpiece of blue delphinium, carnations and sweet peas in pastel shades was used, together with harmonizing blue candles in antique gold holders. At the tea Karl Drusky roses were used.

Those invited for the dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Given of Klamath Falls, Miss May Bollier, Mrs. Leo Spitzbart, Mr. James Reed, and the hostess, Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb.

Mrs. C. F. Patton entertained as her guest over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral and little son, Claire, Jr., of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Simeral are on their way to California by motor, planning to go as far south as the Mexican border.

Miss Edna Davis was the recipient of many useful gifts when Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick entertained at the latter's home Saturday evening. The kitchen shower idea was carried out by using a colander as a foundation. Guests were given cards bearing the names of Miss Davis and Mr. Richard Slater of Roseburg as a pleasing means of introduction. At the close of the evening refreshments were served, Miss Jefferson assisting.

Those present were Miss Edna Davis, Wilma Davis, Erma Meeks, Bernice Roberts, Loretta Varley, Lucille Allen, Elizabeth Fairchild, Alma Burdick, Elizabeth Hoag, Alma Halvorson, Mrs. Chester Jefferson, Mrs. Mary Hogg, Mrs. E. B. Fletcher, Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick.

Mrs. John A. Carson and Mrs. W. P. Fowle were entertained at luncheon Friday in Albany at the home of Mrs. Richard Kriesel (Teressa Fowle). Later Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Fowle joined the Salem group of War Mothers who were guests of the Albany chapter.

A charming hostess of yesterday was Mrs. Allan Bynon of Portland who entertained for a group of fourteen friends at an afternoon of bridge at the E. Hofer home.

One of the attractive affairs of and active social season will be the formal bridge tea this afternoon at the Woman's club house when Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer and Mrs. A. L. Wallace will entertain jointly in a delightful manner for a group of one hundred friends.

One of the charming affairs of last week was that of Saturday when Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb entertained at her attractive home, the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe, with a 7 o'clock dinner. Blue bowls of golden iris gave an artistic floral motif in the rooms while flame-tinted candles were used in a lovely brass candelabra. Little rosebud nut-cups were the favors used.

Those invited for the dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Given of Klamath Falls, Miss May Bollier, Mrs. Leo Spitzbart, Mr. James Reed, and the hostess, Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb.

Mrs. C. F. Patton entertained as her guest over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral and little son, Claire, Jr., of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Simeral are on their way to California by motor, planning to go as far south as the Mexican border.

Miss Edna Davis was the recipient of many useful gifts when Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick entertained at the latter's home Saturday evening. The kitchen shower idea was carried out by using a colander as a foundation. Guests were given cards bearing the names of Miss Davis and Mr. Richard Slater of Roseburg as a pleasing means of introduction. At the close of the evening refreshments were served, Miss Jefferson assisting.

Those present were Miss Edna Davis, Wilma Davis, Erma Meeks, Bernice Roberts, Loretta Varley, Lucille Allen, Elizabeth Fairchild, Alma Burdick, Elizabeth Hoag, Alma Halvorson, Mrs. Chester Jefferson, Mrs. Mary Hogg, Mrs. E. B. Fletcher, Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick.

Mrs. John A. Carson and Mrs. W. P. Fowle were entertained at luncheon Friday in Albany at the home of Mrs. Richard Kriesel (Teressa Fowle). Later Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Fowle joined the Salem group of War Mothers who were guests of the Albany chapter.

A charming hostess of yesterday was Mrs. Allan Bynon of Portland who entertained for a group of fourteen friends at an afternoon of bridge at the E. Hofer home.

One of the attractive affairs of and active social season will be the formal bridge tea this afternoon at the Woman's club house when Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer and Mrs. A. L. Wallace will entertain jointly in a delightful manner for a group of one hundred friends.

One of the charming affairs of last week was that of Saturday when Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb entertained at her attractive home, the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe, with a 7 o'clock dinner. Blue bowls of golden iris gave an artistic floral motif in the rooms while flame-tinted candles were used in a lovely brass candelabra. Little rosebud nut-cups were the favors used.

Those invited for the dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Given of Klamath Falls, Miss May Bollier, Mrs. Leo Spitzbart, Mr. James Reed, and the hostess, Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb.

Mrs. C. F. Patton entertained as her guest over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral and little son, Claire, Jr., of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Simeral are on their way to California by motor, planning to go as far south as the Mexican border.

Miss Edna Davis was the recipient of many useful gifts when Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick entertained at the latter's home Saturday evening. The kitchen shower idea was carried out by using a colander as a foundation. Guests were given cards bearing the names of Miss Davis and Mr. Richard Slater of Roseburg as a pleasing means of introduction. At the close of the evening refreshments were served, Miss Jefferson assisting.

Those present were Miss Edna Davis, Wilma Davis, Erma Meeks, Bernice Roberts, Loretta Varley, Lucille Allen, Elizabeth Fairchild, Alma Burdick, Elizabeth Hoag, Alma Halvorson, Mrs. Chester Jefferson, Mrs. Mary Hogg, Mrs. E. B. Fletcher, Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick.

Mrs. John A. Carson and Mrs. W. P. Fowle were entertained at luncheon Friday in Albany at the home of Mrs. Richard Kriesel (Teressa Fowle). Later Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Fowle joined the Salem group of War Mothers who were guests of the Albany chapter.

A charming hostess of yesterday was Mrs. Allan Bynon of Portland who entertained for a group of fourteen friends at an afternoon of bridge at the E. Hofer home.

One of the attractive affairs of and active social season will be the formal bridge tea this afternoon at the Woman's club house when Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer and Mrs. A. L. Wallace will entertain jointly in a delightful manner for a group of one hundred friends.

One of the charming affairs of last week was that of Saturday when Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb entertained at her attractive home, the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe, with a 7 o'clock dinner. Blue bowls of golden iris gave an artistic floral motif in the rooms while flame-tinted candles were used in a lovely brass candelabra. Little rosebud nut-cups were the favors used.

Those invited for the dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Given of Klamath Falls, Miss May Bollier, Mrs. Leo Spitzbart, Mr. James Reed, and the hostess, Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb.

Mrs. C. F. Patton entertained as her guest over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Simeral and little son, Claire, Jr., of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Simeral are on their way to California by motor, planning to go as far south as the Mexican border.

Miss Edna Davis was the recipient of many useful gifts when Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick entertained at the latter's home Saturday evening. The kitchen shower idea was carried out by using a colander as a foundation. Guests were given cards bearing the names of Miss Davis and Mr. Richard Slater of Roseburg as a pleasing means of introduction. At the close of the evening refreshments were served, Miss Jefferson assisting.

Those present were Miss Edna Davis, Wilma Davis, Erma Meeks, Bernice Roberts, Loretta Varley, Lucille Allen, Elizabeth Fairchild, Alma Burdick, Elizabeth Hoag, Alma Halvorson, Mrs. Chester Jefferson, Mrs. Mary Hogg, Mrs. E. B. Fletcher, Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Mrs. Robert Headrick.

Mrs. John A. Carson and Mrs. W. P. Fowle were entertained at luncheon Friday in Albany at the home of Mrs. Richard Kriesel (Teressa Fowle). Later Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Fowle joined the Salem group of War Mothers who were guests of the Albany chapter.

A charming hostess of yesterday was Mrs. Allan Bynon of Portland who entertained for a group of fourteen friends at an afternoon of bridge at the E. Hofer home.

One of the attractive affairs of and active social season will be the formal bridge tea this afternoon at the Woman's club house when Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer and Mrs. A. L. Wallace will entertain jointly in a delightful manner for a group of one hundred friends.

One of the charming affairs of last week was that of Saturday when Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb entertained at her attractive home, the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe, with a 7 o'clock dinner. Blue bowls of golden iris gave an artistic floral motif in the rooms while flame-tinted candles were used in a lovely brass candelabra. Little rosebud nut-cups were the favors used.