OUTSTANDING among a season of attractive social affairs was the afternoon of bridge and tea at which Mrs. A. L. Wallace and Mrs. Harry J. Weldmer were hostesses yesterday afternoon in the reception room of the Woman's Club house which was a veritable drawing room in atmosphere and charm. Early summer flowers, the lavender tones predominating, were used variously about the rooms, softly lighted with a myriad tinted candles.

During the early afternoon thirteen tables of bridge were in play with a large number of additional guests calling at the tea hour.

A lovely French bouquet in a crystal bowl centered the tea table. Yellow candles were used. Mrs. C. K. Spaulding presided at the urn, while Mrs. R. B. Fleming cut the ices.

Little Miss Helen Weldmer opened the door, while the hostesses were graciously assisted in the living room by Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. Ed Rostein and Mrs. Roy Burton and in the dining room by Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. F. G. Brock, Mrs. G. F. Forge, Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, and Miss Marie Rostein.

The Book and Thimble club members with their families and a few friends enjoyed an all-day annual picnic at Fred W. Kubins' grove on Kingwood Heights road last Saturday. This was the eleventh picnic held at that place by the club. Each year there are some variations in the program for that day. A pot luck dinner was a pleasant change from the well planned balanced menu of last year. Afterward there were various kinds of outdoor games. A very interesting feature of the afternoon was the basketball game played by the Book and Thimble club members against their husbands. The score being 4 to 0. The ladies claiming the four.

Chapter AB of the PEO sisterhood held a delightfully planned meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. T. E. McCroskey. The program was a comprehensive review of the subject, "Americanization," given by Mrs. Alice Thompson. Bouquets of marguerites and vivid poppies were used about the rooms of the McCroskey home.

An interesting report was given by Mrs. Thompson, the chairman of the program committee for the new year. Mrs. Thompson has as her assistants Miss Grace Osborn and Miss Lena Bell Tarter.

The chairman of the social committee for the new club year is Mrs. McCroskey. Working with her will be Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. Louise F. Brickell and Mrs. A. M. Reeves.

Mrs. W. E. Kirk will have the chairmanship of the educational committee. Mrs. Clara Patterson and Miss Dorothy Steusloff complete the personnel.

On the philanthropic committee are: Miss Grace Elisabeth Smith, Dr. Mary C. Rowland and Miss Angelina McCullough.

Mrs. Harry M. Styles will head the visiting committee, assisted by Mrs. W. D. Smith and Mrs. L. N. Meyers.

The auditing committee for the new year will be composed of Mrs. T. E. McCroskey and Mrs. H. E. Barrett.

At the refreshment hour the hostess was assisted by Dorothea Steusloff. Plans were made for the dinner party at which Mrs. Clara Patterson will entertain for the chapter members early in June.

The members in the group Monday evening were: Mrs. H. E. Barrett, Dr. Angelina McCullough, Miss Grace Osborn, Mrs. Clara Patterson, Miss May Rauch, Mrs. Mary Reeves, Dr. Mary C. Rowland, Miss Grace Elisabeth Smith, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. Harry M. Styles, Mrs. Alice Thompson, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Miss Dorothy Steusloff and Mrs. McCroskey.

The second spring recital by pupils of Professor E. W. Hobson, voice; Professor W. W. Graham, violin; and Miss Frances Virginia Melton, pianist, was an interesting musical event of last evening with an appreciative crowd present to hear the following numbers:

Piano—(a)—Italian Concerto, Bach—Allegro animato.
(b)—Etude, op. 10-5, Chopin—Bethel Mayer.
Voice—O, let Night speak of me.

en acting as hostesses to the group which included guests from many surrounding towns. The picnic was an unusually opportune manner in which those who will attend the National Plumbers' convention in Portland the latter part of June to actually become acquainted preceding that date. Boating on the river, Mr. George Hurley of Albany and Mr. A. L. Godfrey both having made the trip in their motor boats, was one of many enjoyable sports of the day.

The following guests, representing five different counties, were in the picnic group:

Albany—Mrs. Mary Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. George Hurley, Charles Hurley.

Corvallis—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lane, Bobby Lane, Mary Woodcock, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wildis, Darwin Woodcock, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Yundt, Harry W. Yundt, Paul Yundt, Betty Yundt, Robert Yundt, Richard Yundt, Albert Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Woodruff, Frances Woodruff, Virginia Woodruff.

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Inman, Marjorie Inman, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mann, Charles Mann, Maxine Mann, Mr. and Mrs. L. Doerr.

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Spaniol, Miss Spaniol.

Independence—C. McBeth, Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Scott, Freda Nidger, Edna Jackson, Velma Raimy.

Over one hundred cards were issued for the formal tea yesterday afternoon at which Miss Jennelle Vandevort, one of the most popular members of the senior class of Willamette university, announced September 2 as the date of her wedding to Mr. Roland F. Randall of Corvallis.

The tea, charming in its appointment, took place at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, with calling hours from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Miss Dorothy Owen and Miss Verna McKeehan greeted the guests at the door while Mrs. H. H. Vandevort and Miss Jennelle Vandevort received. Small cards were presented the guests naming the nuptial day.

Lovely baskets on low pedestals about the rooms were filled with great masses of pink rhododendron. In the drawing room those assisting were Miss Hollis Vick, Miss Adella White, Miss Remoh Tryor, and Miss Ann Silver.

Miss Florence Young invited the guests into the dining room where the tea-table was a lovely study in pink and silver. Pink sweet peas were used daintily as a centerpiece while pink candles were used in harmonizing silver holders. Miss Betty Holt and Miss Eva Randall presided at the urns. Assisting in the serving were: Miss Alma Wells, Miss Katherine Rossman, Miss Ruth Hewitt, Miss Myrtle Jensen, and Miss Mildred Herwig. Others assisting in the dining room were: Mrs. Arch Caspell of Stayton, Miss Herbert Ostling, and Miss Mildred Judson.

During the afternoon Miss Margaret Arnold sang and Miss Delberta Kelso and Miss Mildred Grant played piano solos.

Boys' Chorus Makes Decided Hit in 3rd Annual Concert Here Last Night

Gale Dalton, Boy Soprano of Portland, Proves Revelation; Numbers Are Excellently Arranged By Dr. Epley, Director

What was undoubtedly the most successful boys chorus in the history of the organization was presented last night at the First Christian church, in the third annual concert of the Salem Boys Chorus, under the direction of Dr. H. C. Epley.

Original and striking musical numbers were presented by the boys in several of their selections, in addition to the beautiful background that had been prepared. By the use of lattice work and colored lights one of the most picturesque and attractive showings was given the chorus.

Arranged on the platform in their white blouses and red ties, the 100 boy members of the chorus were well presented, and the decorations, flowers and mosses, intensified the effect.

Gale Dalton, boy soprano of Portland was the sensation of the evening, and no less marked was the offerings of Glen and Donald Woody, Frederick Wolfe and the instrumental numbers.

The program opened with a rendition of "Our Salutation," a composition specially arranged by Dr. H. C. Epley, secretaries.

A city of beautiful streets and well-kept lawns. Salem, Oregon.
