INVITE GUARD OFFICERS

MACHINE GUN TOURNEY SATURDAY IS OF INTEREST

Colonel G. W. Moses, commandant of the Oregon Agricultural college, has extended through the commanding general an invitation to all officers of the Oregon National guard to be present at the annual military tournament to be held on the afternoon of Memorial Day at Corvallis.

One feature of the tournament which will be of interest to National guard officers is the machine gun competition in which the Oregon National guard will be represented by Companies H and M of the 162nd Infantry.

Officers who are to accept the invitation are to communicate with Captain T. C. McCormick, tournament director.

Bits For Breakfast

A mining boom—
* * *
It is on its way—
* * *
It is surely coming to the Santiam district—
* * *
And the Santiam district is at the front door of Salem. That district is going to do for Salem what the Coeur d'Alene district has done for Spokane—
* * *
The wealth is there, in "unlimited" quantities, in ores that will pay to mine, whenever the proper facilities and transportation are provided—and the operations will make many millionaires. They will go on record and on for generations, for there are literally mountains of rich ores that will yield copper and gold and silver and lead and zinc and other metals of value in the markets of the world—
* * *
It would pay Marion county to finish the rock road from the Santiam district, in order to give an opportunity for trucking the concentrates all the year through. This would guarantee the opening up of a number of mines in that region—and it would lead to the construction of a railroad and of aerial tramways to connect with the railroad. Once well started, that development will proceed rapidly—
* * *
There is every indication now that the Lotz-Larsen property will within a month be on a permanent paying basis—paying operating expenses and a little more, and so be in much better condition than heretofore to go ahead towards full development—
* * *
The retail prices of fruit and vegetables in New York are nearly twice the wholesale prices, owing chiefly to the cost of transportation, and nearly half of that cost is due to wasted time because of traffic congestion, partial loads, delays at both ends of trips and so on. It is all another exhibit of the city's increasingly unwieldy bigness.
