

Here's Nearest Approach to Ruth

Who comes the nearest to emulating Babe Ruth as he continues lost to the game? Bob Meusel and Ken Williams, Rogers Hornsby and Leo Hartnett are after his home run honors but "Goose" Goslin, Washington outfield star, resembles him most in style, stance and terrific driving power. Goslin is up there as a home run hitter, too. Note the similarity in the build and style of the men.

REED DECLARED BEST HEAVER OF HORSESHOE

CHAMPIONSHIP CONTESTS ARE STAGED THURSDAY

Wilson Reaches Finals; Deciding Contest Hotly Contested By Tossers

Ermel Reed is the winner of the Salem high school horseshoe pitching contest which has been conducted there during the past few weeks. He won the victory by a narrow margin from Julius Wilson. In the semi-finals Reed defeated Walter Martin by a score of 21 to 11. Wilson defeated Leonard and Gregg.

The final games were played yesterday between Reed and Wilson and was witnessed by a large crowd of high school students. Reed lost the first match but won the last two, with the last game see-sawing back and forth. Both players were throwing the shoes close to the peg, with the result that many ringers were made.

Reed, as champion player, wins the $5 baseball glove awarded by the Anderson Sporting goods store and Wilson secured the standard official baseball, also awarded by the same firm.

OREGON LOSES IN TENNIS

SEATTLE, May 28—Washington's five man tennis team easily defeated the University of Oregon racquet wielders, winning every set here today. Bill Adams was the only Oregon player that forced a Washington player to three sets before admitting defeat. Joe Livergood won the match 7-5, 2-6, 6-3.

Other results in singles were: Bob Hesketh beat George Rayden, 6-1, 6-1; Sam Skidmore beat George Meade, 6-3, 6-2; Mel Drangas beat Roy Oberberg, 6-1, 6-2; and Dick Dubois beat Harry Meyer 6-3, 6-3.

MUCH LUMBER CUT

SEATTLE, May 28—The West Coast Lumbermen's association reported here today that 119 mills in Washington and Oregon cut 107,965,917 feet of lumber last week and sold 113,526,550.
