HERE IS YOUR TRADE—4 room house on Locust street; good gravel one block to pavement; lot 40x120; cherry, apple, walnut trees; city water; electricity; $1300. Take good lot or other property for $480; time on balance.

IDEAL IS THE ONE WORD that perfectly describes this 7-room 2-story home. Not new but everything else. Cleaner, more perfect from basement to garret simply cannot be found. Lot 60x160, fine corner on paved street with east front and open view; fine big double garage; for order, neatness and general appearance from end to end, it is simply the last word. Basement as clean and orderly as a dining room with profusion of closets and storage nooks; construction the best; conditions A-1. At the price, $4500, it is very seldom equalled. The kind that a salesman is proud to show and that buyers wait months to find. Will consider a smaller house in exchange.

GROWING GROCERY; fine location in most rapidly growing section; new building with modern living apartment; long low lease an ideal, going proposition. Owner will disclose best of reasons for selling. Will consider exchange.

GEM 10 ACRES 4 1-2 miles north of Salem; best macadam road to pavement; very best soil; nearly all cultivated and set to good assortment of fruit, mostly berries; comfortable 4-room house in good condition; good barn and chicken house. SALEMITE IN PICTURE

"LURE OF ALASKA" SHOWS REV. PHILIP BAUER

"The Lure of Alaska" is the title of a lecture to be given in the First Congregational church Sunday evening. This lecture is illustrated by seventy beautiful colored pictures depicting the scenery, industries, gold mining, and religious work of our most fascinating territory.

Of unusual interest to the people of Salem is the fact that one of our former citizens, Rev. Philip E. Bauer, figures in the pictures garbed in his Alaskan winter apparel. Mr. Bauer spent some time in religious work in Alaska and during that time was photographed for a set of most beautiful stereopticon pictures illustrating Alaskan scenery.

While a citizen of Salem several years ago Mr. Bauer was pastor of the First Congregational church and later parole officer of the state pentitentiary under Governor West.
