

County News in Brief

Livesley

Mrs. William Meier was hostess to the G. T. club at the meeting Thursday. A delicious luncheon was served. Those enjoying the occasion were: Mrs. Alice Coolidge, Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Mrs. S. C. Davenport, Mrs. N. P. Kugel, Mrs. J. P. Bressler, Mrs. Bud Stutesman, Mrs. B. D. Fidler, Mrs. George Higgins, Mrs. Charles Schwab, Mrs. J. A. Pearson, Mrs. H. B. Carpenter, Miss Frances Bressler, Mrs. A. T. Macklin and Miss Dorothy Meier. Mrs. Geo. Higgins will entertain at the next meeting.

Mrs. Fred Allen and Mrs. A. McClusky called Monday on Mr. and Mrs. Will Coolidge. Mrs. McClusky is an old schoolmate of Mr. Coolidge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wrechter and baby of Salem, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Oresbora last week.

J. H. Fitzwater spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Stutesman.

J. B. Pearson and son Ernest were at Warrenton, Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Clevinger and baby of California are visiting with Mrs. Clevinger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury.

Mrs. G. Noake and son Karl are on a visit to Aberdeen, Wash.

John Blankenship was bitten on the hand by an insect last week and is now covered with boils as a result of the poison.

Miss Edith Ross, a former Livesley teacher, will teach at McMinnville this coming year.

Miss Esther Long, the primary teacher, will attend school at Mouth this summer.

Miss Blanche Harmon left for Molalla, Sunday, where she will spend the summer with her uncle, H. Hibbard.

School was closed Friday. The children and parents enjoyed a picnic in the grove a short distance from the school grounds.

Elvina Thomas, Fredrick Brandbury, Henry Query and Ernest Pearson took the eighth grade examinations last week.

Mrs. W. A. Sippell, Mrs. Flora Davis, Mrs. W. R. Edward of West Salem, visited Mrs. C. D. Query Friday.

Ed. Clymer of Seattle, Wash., is visiting with his brother, L. P. Clymer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heggin and children, Raymond and Bernice spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. J. B. Parker, in Salem.

Mrs. J. B. Parker, in Salem, home in Portland last Saturday.

Mrs. Bud Stutesman spent the weekend in Portland with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burns and Mr. and Mrs. W. Littlefield of West Portland, spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Carpenter.

Mt. Pleasant-Cole

Miss Maude Darby is spending the week end at the Claude Darby home at Stayton.

Louis Geisler and family made a business trip to Mill City one day last week.

Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Salem last Wednesday.

A program, weinny roast was given at the Mt. Pleasant school house Friday in honor of the last day of school. A very large crowd attended.

Mr. Hora and son Joe, Harley Darby, motored to Corvallis last Friday.

Parberry families spent last week at Washington visiting his mother, who is quite ill.

Ben Darby, wife and son Harley and Joe Hora, were transacting business in Albany last Thursday.

Turner

Last Friday night, the girls' Glee club presented, "The Feast of the Little Lanterns," a Chinese operetta, all in costume. Much talent and training was shown. Miss Lois Fuller, English teacher is director.

Those taking part were Misses Eleanor Moore, Ethel Green, Roberts Wilson, Mildred Martin, Lillian Demitt, Ella Archibald, Agnes Allenby, Doris Smith, Evelyn Archibald, Doris Hillenry, Doris Gray, Bessie Davenport, Lois Robertson, Fay Given, Mildred Moore. Accompanist, Mary Miller.

Mrs. Robertson of California visited a few days at the J. L. Robertson home, also Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heath were up from Portland Sunday.

T. P. Rowly of the Turner Tribune was a business visitor in Salem Monday.

Mrs. S. H. Bond was in Salem Thursday.

Miss Hazel Bear spent the week end in Portland, being the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Mollett, formerly of Turner.

Mrs. Lyle spent last week in Portland, the guest of her children.

J. L. Webb and wife have moved back to Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore of Mill City were down Friday evening to hear the Girls' Glee club. Memorial exercises will be held at the Masonic cemetery Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Small entertained Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George Small of Salem, Mrs. C.

Small and daughter Ella May of Astoria, and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Small and daughter Mary of Independence.

The funeral of a baby grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Webb, little daughter of Mrs. Anna Mickenham of Mill City, was held at the Christian church Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Crawford and daughter were at the farm Monday and Tuesday.

The school gave a memorial program Friday afternoon.

A big crowd attended the Riches-Gray sale Wednesday.

Lloyd Hiltrey is making extensive improvements on his farm home, the house has been raised and turned around.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moore and daughters were in Salem Monday.

Marion

S. H. Russell underwent a serious operation at the Salem hospital Tuesday morning. He is reported to be doing very well. A number of Marion people attended the Riches-Gray sale near Turner Wednesday.

Mrs. J. H. Rhoten is spending a few days in Salem at the home of her son E. A. Rhoten.

Mrs. H. C. Ballenger expects to leave for California Friday, where her son is located.

Scotts Mills

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson of Pocatello, Idaho, and Mrs. Gladys Perd of Seattle, Wash., visited their mother, Mrs. Hugh Magee at Crooked Finger last week, leaving for their homes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Magee accompanied them as far as Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Portland visited Miss and Hartman Sunday.

Miss Charlie Amundsen who has been visiting her parents returned to Eugene Sunday where she is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Planders and daughter Evelyn of South Dakota, who has been visiting relatives here for several months left for their home Wednesday.

Miss La Verne Kich who is attending U. of C. visited her parents here over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde O. Lewis and children, Mrs. Everett Lewis and son of Lyons, visited friends in this vicinity Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Magee and family of Rickney visited at Crooked Finger Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Bellinger and family of Salem, were also on a picnic in this vicinity Sunday.

Hugh Magee was in Salem Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Groshong and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hogg returned Saturday from Ashland, where they had been gone all week attending the Grand Lodge of the IOOF and report having a fine time. Mrs. Hogg and daughter, Doris, returned home Sunday. Doris visiting relatives in Salem all week.

Quite a number from here attended the funeral at Miller cemetery Tuesday of Harold Barkhurst, age 18 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Barkhurst, (former residents here) who was killed in the Silver Falls logging camp Saturday evening. Rev. J. A. Bennett of Silverton officiated.

Mrs. J. A. Taylor and daughter, Mrs. L. Russell, motored to Salem Wednesday.

Sidney

J. A. Colgin from Marion was at the Cochran home part of the day Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hampton returned Monday from visiting their son and family in Tacoma, Wash. They made the trip by auto and saw many nice views along the way.

Paul Clippin the former owner of the Birrell place was in the neighborhood this week viewing things.

The ball game turned out quite well Sunday. The home town got first place. There were quite a few people out.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Farr have their nephew with them for a short visit.

Last week the river was so high that they could not haul gravel, but the work is being carried on again this week.

Mrs. Lillian Robinson of Salem and Mrs. Stella Carter of Grants Pass, were visiting at the C. L. Hartley home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott were Salem visitors Monday on some business.

Dug Savage and his sister were Sunday visitors at the John Paragon home.

The Sojo meat wagon is making the rounds here.

Oak Ridge

Keith Andrews won the prize of fishing tackle offered by Pad-dock's Hardware for the largest trout each week. The fish weighed one and three-fourths pound.

Patriotic services will be held at the church on Sunday, May 31. Mr. Arthur Prialax of Eugene will give the address.

Rev. Grace Driver is holding services at West Fir every other Sunday during the absence of Miss Lingren who had to retire from her duties on account of ill health.

Miss Lingren expects to return after two months convalescence.

On May 19 a baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Smith. On May 18 twin girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse F. Michel at Dr. Wilson's hospital. One girl surviving.

An interesting ball game was witnessed on Sunday by a large crowd. The single men won the game from the married men by the close score of 10-9.

Dr. C. E. Wilson visited "Wren and Greenough's" construction camp this week and reports the railroad work as progressing very rapidly. This camp is situated at what is known as the low line, and by the first of July the steel will be laid to the high line back past McCreadie Hot Springs. The steel is laid to the springs at present. The railroad grade goes 17 miles above McCreadie Springs and then comes back a mile to the east of the springs, which is the beginning of the high line.

Wren and Greenough's will complete their work by the first of September.

C. Jones has purchased the warehouse from the Utah Construction company.

J. A. Neal is operating a stage to Eugene and reports the roads greatly improved.

Marten Notz of Marshfield has purchased property next to Temple man's warehouse and is to erect a two-story rooming house.

Frank Sullivan has returned from Washington, D. C., and at present is up at the construction camps looking over the railroad work.

Templeman & Carrier are building a lumber dock and warehouse and will deal in retail lumber.

Rickey

A large crowd attended the school picnic which was held at Hager's grove Monday. A long table has been built, swings put up, a baseball diamond laid out, and with the natural scenery Hager's grove is one of the most ideal picnic places near Salem, and for the day the gates were thrown open to the school and neighbors.

A basket dinner was enjoyed at noon and then began the great event of the year—the ball game between the married men and the school boys. Only an able umpire like Tom Fitzpatrick would have given just decisions in a fast game of 11 innings with a score of 4 to 5 in favor of the men.

Those starting on the men's team were Andy Barron, George Hager and Art Binegar. Several of the men received the surprise of their lives when they were fanned out by Wilber Straw, pitching for the boys.

The married women held the girls down to an even score in a three-inning game.

A party of about 20 motored to Crooked Finger Sunday and after a picnic dinner went on to Moss Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Harris visited Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baker of Mill City Wednesday.

Jay Straug and family have moved to Salem.

The E. Forgard family will move to Fruitland this week. Mrs. Forgard has been elected principal of the Fruitland school for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards attended the school picnic at Auburn last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Wallace are entertaining relatives from Washington.

Mrs. Susan Caplinger and Mr. and Mrs. Killian of Salem were among former residents of our community who attended the school picnic Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Messerli and daughter motored to Dallas Tuesday.

Raymond Wallace is spending the week with his brother, Bruce Wallace, of Swegle.

Pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during the school year are Loyd Sheridan, Troy Crabb and Margaret Magee.

Brooks

Rev. and Mrs. Ed. Whitnel and son of Banks were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris.

Mrs. Roland Jones, accompanied by her mother Mrs. O. L. Bailey, motored to Portland Friday. Mrs. John Whitcomb accompanied them home for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

The next meeting of the Brooks Community club will be the home of Mrs. Eugene Manning on Wednesday afternoon May 27th.

Miss Fern Batchelor of Portland spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batchelor.

Mr. McCall and family have rented a house in Brooks and moved in the week past.

Miss Ella Aspinwall of Portland spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Clark Aspinwall.

Mrs. Leta Nyhart and family are moving from Dallas to Brooks and will occupy the J. W. Fruit house.

The cool moist weather the past week or two has given the week an opportunity to grow less ter than the onions. As a consequence the Labish onion growers are in need of extra weeder and scuffle hoes are working overtime.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cronan and son George were visitors at the Duniavy home on Sunday.

Howard Ramp is moving his merchandise goods from his store in Brooks to his new building on the Brooks four corners.

U. Loren of Wacoada was the guest of his daughter and family; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ramp on Sunday.

The play "Deacon Dabba," which was given in the Brooks school house on Thursday evening May 21st, by the Christian Endeavor Society was one of the best ever staged in Brooks. Between acts, Ivan Jones gave a vocal solo accompanied by Mrs. Malcolm Ramer, and Robert Aspinwall a reading. The proceeds will be used to repair the Evangelical church in Brooks.

The Methodist Ladies Aid society met at the home of Mrs. A. E. Harris on Thursday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

A delightful party was given by Mrs. Dan Cronin in honor of Mr. Cronin's birthday on Saturday evening. The evening was spent in dancing. The rooms of the Cronin home were prettily decorated in pinks and locus. A very artistic and delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. W. E. Ramp. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Wadsten, Mr. and Mrs. John Duniavy, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ramp, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Ashbaugh, Misses Marie Duniavy, Edith Manning, Masters Harold Aspinwall, Kenneth and Cecil Manning. The musicians were Mr. Anway, Mr. McCall, and Mr. Johnson.

Marie Duniavy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Duniavy, won first prize in the typing contest held in the Gervais city hall last Friday, making seventy-four words a minute in a five minute test. And no mistakes, (a perfection paper.) She typed on a Remington typewriter.

Mrs. Flora Ashbaugh of Littleton, Colo., and Herriet McCleod of Cripple Creek, Colo., arrived Sunday and are guests of their mother Mrs. McCleod, and sister, Mrs. C. V. Ashbaugh and family.

Pratum

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford of Salem were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sike.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kleen and two children, Nellie and Waldo, and Olivia de Vries spent Sunday afternoon with the parents of Mrs. Kleen in Clackamas county.

Mr. Mason and family from Mill City were in this neighborhood Sunday.

F. A. Frazier is hauling gravel on his road.

Wednesday evening the junior choir of the M. E. church met at the church, getting in shape for Children's day.

A new county road across the Slough place will connect the Fruitland and Penn road at that place, which will be quite a convenience for this neighborhood.

A sumptuous feed and a wonderful good time was enjoyed by all who attended the last day of school and exercises at the picnic grounds Wednesday.

Mrs. D. Kleen, Mrs. G. H. Thompson, Mrs. W. de Vries, Mrs. A. Meyer and Mrs. O. J. Beadles attended a missionary meeting at Newberg last Friday.

The Braves class mowed the grass from the church yard Wednesday evening.

Theo Kleen and family moved east of Portland, near the Columbia river, on account of Mrs. Kleen's health.

Potato planting will soon be over with.

Brother Shares Abd Krim's Glory

Auburn

W. A. Southmaye and family of Pacific City are visiting their uncle, Mr. Brownson. It is possible they may locate here.

Rev. Poling of Salem will preach at Auburn Sunday night.

Mr. Wright is in the hospital seriously ill.

Norris Merrill and his brother, Byrl Merrill, who are attending school at Corvallis, were among Auburn visitors Sunday.

R. Perlich is erecting a new residence.

The "Four-Corners" store is now open for business.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Cummings were guests at a strawberry dinner at the home of their brother, Chas. Cady, Friday evening.

Mrs. Elva Estes, formerly of Auburn, has gone to Newport where she will spend the summer taking charge of her cottages.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Walling and family motored to Clagget cemetery Sunday.

Liberty

Plan to attend the graduating exercises held in Liberty Hall the evening of June 4th. There were no failures in the eighth grade, all getting through with good averages. Watch for the program. An all-day picnic will be held the last day of school.

Mr. Claude Stevenson, leader of the school chicken club No. 1, and Mr. William Zosel will take members of the club to visit the OAC poultry yards next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, who recently came here from California, will stay through strawberry and loganberry picking, then go to Eastern Oregon for wheat harvest. Mr. Brown is a brother of Mr. A. L. Brown.

A surprise dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Shepard last Sunday in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Shepard.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dorman are the proud parents of a baby daughter born Wednesday, May 20th. Mr. Dorman is a grandson of Grandpa and Grandma Dorman, and this is their first great grand daughter.

The Liberty "Berry Glommers" went to Stayton to play the baseball fans there last Sunday. The score was 7 to 12 in favor of the Stayton team.

The young people had a party at Liberty hall last Friday night in honor of Mr. Harold Judd, a sailor on board the U. S. S. Sirius, who was home visiting his people. Just before the party he received a telegram recalling him so the social was staged without the honor guest. Games were played until about 10:30, then refreshments were served. The chaperones were the Mesdames Dallas, Scott and Ohmurt.

Mrs. P. A. Williams of Scappoose, is visiting at the home of her daughter Mrs. P. G. Judd.

Last Saturday the friends and relatives of Mr. Bruce Fox gave him a delightful party in honor of his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keys of Vancouver, Washington, have returned to their home here to work their land.

Miss Betty Smith, who was driving home from church Sunday was run into by another car. She was badly cut on the head by broken glass, so was taken to the Deaconess Hospital.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dougherty were sorry to hear that it was necessary for their little son Donald Lee, to undergo an operation in Oregon City last week. He is doing nicely.

Miss Mary Berndt is visiting relatives at Hoskins.

W. H. Matheson is expected home next Friday evening to visit his family. They will move to Tacoma where Mr. Matheson is working, about the first of July.

Miss H. B. Cleveland who has been staying at the Matheson home, has returned to Hillsboro.

Sunnyside

Mrs. C. H. Murray of Salem visited last Friday with Mrs. G. T. Hestert.

Mr. Van Trump was looking over the orchards in this neighborhood Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Taylor of Salem visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Taylor.

Cecil Pearson arrived home from Crane, Or., Wednesday. The trip was made by motor over the Columbia highway.

The old Sunnyside schoolhouse will be sold at public auction next Monday at 2 o'clock.

The Pearson children, Earnest and Inea, have the whooping cough.

Mr. Dyer and son Keith went to Sheridan Tuesday and moved Mrs. Dyer's father and mother to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Kiffin of Salem visited Mr. and Mrs. Beckley Sunday.

Mark Pemberton and Harry Nelson, with the rest of their manual training class from McKinley school visited Corvallis Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Miffler of Salem are spending a few days at their cherry orchard.

The Willamette valley is the center of all farm crops in Oregon and Salem is the heart of the valley. Come to Salem to live, and bring all your friends.

The Statesman leads the field of the season's athletic activities.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Edwin Bayliss left last night for Carlton, where she will spend Memorial Day with relatives.

H. H. Chase and Roy Shumake, local painters, left yesterday on a week-end fishing trip.

Rev. Martin Fereshettian, local attorney and pastor of the Unitarian church of this city will visit in Portland and Vancouver, during the week-end.

Mrs. C. B. Stamp visited in Salem from Moonmouth yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hilyou transacted business in the city while visiting from Lebanon Friday afternoon.

S. A. Hofer was a visitor here from Woodburn yesterday.

George M. Beck, a resident of Hubbard was in the city yesterday.

Lena Hamsyer visited here from Macley yesterday.

J. W. Day and Nellie Boggs were in the city from Corvallis Friday morning.

Herbert and Howard Socolofsky Salem residents are planning to visit their brother, Walter Socolofsky at Eugene, where he is a student at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Esther and Margaret Halvorsen were visitors from Eugene yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson left for Marshfield this morning where they will spend the holiday and week-end visiting with friends.

A city of beautiful streets and well-kept lawns. Salem, Oregon.

TODAY—2 TO 11 P. M.

From the Story "The River Boat" By Charles E. Whittaker Starring WALLACE BEERY SEE

THE DEVIL'S CARGO

GRAND TODAY SUNDAY MONDAY

NEW TODAY

TODAY SUNDAY MONDAY

"The Spaniard"

STARRING RICARDO CORTEZ

JETTA GOUDAL — NOAH BEERY

"The Spaniard" is the 1925 model of "The Shick." Volcanic lover, daring leader, lover of women, hero of a thrilling romance of society and the halcyon. Magnificently produced by the man who made "The Thief of Bagdad." From the novel by JUANITA SAVAGE.

COMEDY ----- McDONALD ----- NEWS

OREGON

MATINEES 35c — EVENINGS 35c AND 50c