

Popularity in National Capital Is Undimmed in Her Absence

Though Helene Heilmann, daughter of M. Heilmann, former first secretary of the French embassy in Washington, no longer resides in the capital, she still is immensely popular in the younger diplomatic set there.

ZYBYSKO IS DEFEATED IN TWO STRAIGHT FALLS

JOE STETCHER, SCISSORS EXPONENT, CONQUEROR

Veteran of Mat Fights Gamedly in Defensive Position; Good Crowd in Attendance

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 30.—(By Associated Press.)—Stanislaus Zbysko, veteran Pole, who was taken to a hospital here this afternoon after his championship match with Joe Stetcher of Nebraska, was found to be suffering from internal injuries, several broken ribs, and injuries to his back, it was learned.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 30.—Joe Stetcher, Nebraska, scissors marvel who lost the heavyweight wrestling championship to Ed "Strangler" Lewis four years ago, again reached the pinnacle of the wrestling world by defeating Stanislaus Zbysko, title claimant, in straight falls here tonight.

Stetcher won both falls with his favorite hold, the first in one hour and 23 minutes, and the second in five minutes.

Zbysko, veteran of 30 years on the mat, fought gamely but after the first 15 minutes was largely on the defensive and finally was forced to give up to full body scissors holds. Stetcher was declared the winner just as the sun was setting.

Time after time Stetcher was on top but Zbysko pulled his arms and legs underneath so effectively that Stetcher was unable to complete the scissors.

Zbysko used the flying mare as his chief offensive weapon but it was not effective.

The match was staged in the St. Louis university athletic field before a crowd estimated at 15,500. The purse was $50,000, of which $10,000 was posted by Joe Stetcher and his brother and manager, Anton Stetcher. Zbysko was to get the purse, win or lose.

McTIGUE DEFEATED BY PAUL BERLENBACH

and the welterweight champion, Mickey Walker, at Newark, N. J.

Round 1.—For the first time in his fighting career McTigue wore flaming red trunks instead of the familiar green. Both fighters appeared to be in tip-top condition.

McTigue worked a light jab to the face. Berlenbach bored in and landed lightly to the body with a left hook. Berlenbach launched a terrific offensive to the body which was countered with stinging lefts and rights to the face.

Berlenbach was cautioned against hitting low. Berlenbach drove McTigue against the ropes with a left to the stomach. McTigue seemed slow.

Round 2.—Berlenbach drove lefts to the chin and McTigue frowned displeasure. Berlenbach was fighting well. Berlenbach drove two heavy lefts to the champion's face. McTigue swung a sharp right to Berlenbach's jaw.

Round 3.—There was a good deal of sparring, culminating in exchanges of right hooks to the jaw. McTigue landed a heavy left to the head. Berlenbach returned a staggering left hook to the jaw.

Berlenbach's punches were stinging the champion. McTigue fought very cannily. Berlenbach landed a left into McTigue's stomach, sending him into the ropes at the bell.

Round 4.—Berlenbach shook McTigue with a left to the chin and another to the stomach. McTigue needed to summon all his cleverness to withstand Berlenbach's determined rushes. McTigue was spitting blood. McTigue sent in occasional rights to Berlenbach's jaw, but the punches seemed to have little power. McTigue appeared wearied at the bell.

Round 6.—McTigue showed a burst of speed and landed several sharp rights to the head. The champion continued his rally and shook the challenger with lefts and rights to the face. McTigue kept up a terrific bombardment on Berlenbach's head and sent him to his knees with his shower of punches. The great crowd roared encouragement. Berlenbach went to his corner unruined, however, and seemed not to have suffered a great deal.

Round 7.—McTigue continued his assault, and terrific fighting followed. Berlenbach refused to give ground, however. McTigue boxed like a master and kept the heavy punching Berlenbach at bay throughout the round.

McTigue backed away from Berlenbach and they circled around the ring, McTigue holding off his adversary with long lefts to the face, occasionally crossing with his right when Berlenbach became too savage. Berlenbach's terrific left is always dangerous and McTigue used all of his skill in keeping away from it.

Berlenbach kept boring in, trying to break down McTigue's defense. He shook the champion with a short left to the chin and then was cautioned for hitting low. There was a great deal of clinching. Berlenbach seemed willing to take two of McTigue's punches to land one of his own.

Round 10.—Berlenbach landed a hard left to the chin after McTigue had left-jabbed him half a dozen times. Berlenbach landed swinging lefts to the body and head. McTigue sent a stinging right to the chin. Berlenbach landed a right to the kidneys as the bell rang.

Round 11.—Berlenbach charged vigorously but missed his target. McTigue kept up the jab, jab, jab. Berlenbach fought like a demon and landed heavily to the champion's body and jaw. Three jabs from McTigue and a heavy left hook for Berlenbach ended the round.

Round 12.—Berlenbach landed a resounding left to the stomach and another to the chin. McTigue kept up his jabbing tattoo. They exchanged rights to the head. It was thrilling fighting. Berlenbach landed more frequently.

Round 13.—McTigue's right ear bled. McTigue landed a right to the head. Berlenbach sunk two lefts to the chin. McTigue sent Berlenbach against the ropes with a right to the face. There was a vicious exchange of rights and lefts to the head. Berlenbach landed a left to the jaw. McTigue countering with a left hook and a right to the chin.

Round 14.—There were a number of clinches without any damaging blows. Berlenbach rocked McTigue's head with lefts. They exchanged rights to the head. McTigue's left eye bled from a cut. McTigue sent a right and left to stomach. They traded lefts to the chin. McTigue kept the jabbing going and Berlenbach punched on with left to the head.

Round 15.—They shook hands, exchanged smiles, and McTigue sent a vigorous right to the jaw. Berlenbach knocked the plaster off Mike's cut eye. McTigue's upper lip was swollen twice its size. He countered Berlenbach's lefts with short rights to the body. They began slugfests to the head. It was about an even exchange. Berlenbach backed McTigue into the ropes and swung both left and right to the head.

STRONG ACTS FEATURED

BLIGH VAUDEVILLE PROGRAM IS ONE OF GREAT MERIT

Ackerman and Harris are sending two acts as feature attractions on the new bill at the Bligh theater Tuesday. They are the Lyric Four and the Reno Sisters and Allan. Possessors of splendid voices "The Lyric Four" touch the high spots of harmony. Their program includes present-day hits and character and comedy songs all rendered faultlessly. They introduce mandolins, a stringed instrument, which they use advantageously.

The Reno Sisters and Allan present "Dance Fantasies of 1925," a colorful revue of song and dances. The dainty Reno sisters are responsible for the dance portion of the offering and Allan handles the vocal portion in a most satisfactory manner.

Tampering with the mail is a serious offense in the eyes of our government, but Gilbert and Van Alst get away with it in such a manner as to remove all the stigma of crime and are rewarded with laughs instead of being convicted. A queer name for a queer guy is the name "Wm. C. Turtle," who is one of the best comedy magicians in vaudeville. His act is a variety of magic presented in a neat and clever manner.

Lew and George Pearl are two rotund exponents of melody and mirth who justify the many anecdotes of the good naturedness of the corpulent. They bring to vaudeville approximately 500 pounds of unalloyed comedy.

HARVEY WILL QUIT POST

WASHINGTON, May 30.—The Washington Post tomorrow will announce the resignation of Colonel George Harvey, former ambassador to the Court of St. James as its editor. The announcement will say that other obligations now demand Mr. Harvey's time and energies.

Colonel Harvey became editor of the post in June, 1924.

Jane Cowl, America's beautiful stage star, is an important booking of the Grand Theater management in the role of "Juliet" on Tuesday night, June 9. Miss Cowl's entire New York company of fifty people have been retained for the brief western tour which ends June 25 when Miss Cowl returns to New York to complete arrangements for her appearance in London.

JANE COWL TO APPEAR IN SALEM ON JUNE 9

FAMOUS ROLE IN "ROMEO AND JULIET" TO BE SEEN

Jane Cowl's performance of "Romeo and Juliet," the attraction at the Grand theatre for an engagement of one one night, Tuesday, June 9th, coming direct from San Francisco to Salem, has the virgin freshness the role must have had in Shakespeare's day. There is no trace of the pedantic, pedagogic interpretation which some professors may have decided was correct. There is no trace of the elocution and declamation which, in many an actress, mars the poets lines by robbing them of their beauty and their music and making them, instead, exercises in careful enunciation.

OREGON TODAY MONDAY TUESDAY

"The Spaniard" is the greatest of all Spanish romances. One long, breathless, unforgettable thrill!

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With Othine—Double Strength

This preparation for the removal of freckles is so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by all drug and department stores with a guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil or waste time on lemon juice or cucumbers; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine; it is this that is sold on money-back guarantee.

We recommend Othine Complexion Soap for use with Othine, also as a shampoo—It's wonderful for bobbed hair—25c a cake at all drug or department stores or by mail. Othine Laboratories, Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.—adv.

approached her task with thoughtful heed to its glories, but without the stupid veneration which might drain "Romeo and Juliet" of its living force. Her critical intelligence is too keen to allow her to be persuaded to follow the usual and outworn paths of her predecessors. Her abilities as an actress are too great to urge her to the insincerity of an impersonation built not by herself, but by another whose perceptions are not so clear as hers. Her point of view is not warped by the past. She has cut her own path, a straight and well defined one. Its goal is on a height which commands a noble vista.
